O'Leary Lions Plan Project

O'LEARY - The O'Leary Lions Club held its supper meeting at 'Red' Turner's summer home at Mill River. Wives and guests were present for an enjoyable supper hour being spent.

The meeting was presided over by president, Ralph Bishop during which a committee was appointed to meet with other organizations in the village to find out what steps are planned, if any, regarding playground facilities.

This committee will report at the next meeting so the club can decide steps it will take to provide playground facilities for children in O'Leary.

A bottle drive will be carried out in O'Leary and vicinity Wednesday afternoon and evening, June 5.
