REV. AND MRS. F. MacKINNON

Double Ring Ceremony Held In Pownal Church

Pownal United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on September 11th at 7 o'clock, when Helena Ruth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pippy, Hazelbrook, became the bride of Rev. Frank MacKinnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. MacKinnon, Hay's River, Cape Breton.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. R. Goudge, Pownal. Mr. Arthur Matheson was organist and Mr. Edward Woodruff sang "Because" before the ceremony and the "Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli and a variety of cut flowers. The guest pews were marked with bows of satin ribbon and white gladioli bloom.

The youthful bride who was given in marriage by her father looking charming in a floor-length gown of white nylon net over satin with inserts of swiss organdy lace with tight fitting bodice off the shoulder neckline, with invisible nylon net yoke, trimmed with pearls. Lace sleeves tapering to points over the hands and full hooped skirt. Her shoulder veil of nylon net was held in place by a headpiece of nylon net and rhinestones and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Kathryn Pippy, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of pink acetate with bolero and matching feather headress and carried a nosegay of blue carnations.

Misses Christina and Florella MacKinnon, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina length gowns of blue nylon and matching feather headress and carried nosegays of pink carnations.

The winsome little flower girl Nancy Elizabeth Pippy, sister of the bride, wore a figured pink nylon dress with matching bandeau and white accessories, and she carried a nosegay of white blue carnations.

Mr. Alex MacKinnon, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were Aubrey Pippy, brother of the bride, and Harvey MacKinnon, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a dress of dusty rose crepe and lace with navy accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a dress of navy blue taffeta with fur collar accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Pownal Hall for 80 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom, cut flowers and lighted candles.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. T. R. Goudge and was responded to by the groom. Following the blessing by Rev. T. R. Goudge a delicious chicken salad supper was prepared by the Ladies Aid of Pownal United Church and was served by relatives and friends of the bride. Those serving were Mrs. Maxwell Copper, Mrs. John D. MacPherson, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Blair Hackett and Miss Estelle Coady. Mrs. Aubrey Oxner, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Dan H. MacLean, aunt of the groom poured. Miss Mary MacPherson was in charge of the guest book. Numerous telegrams were read by the best man.

Following the reception the happy couple left on an extended motor trip through the Eastern provinces and the United States.

For travelling the bride donned a dress of blue English wool with hat to match and black and white accessories. Her corsage was feathered pink carnations.

Out of Province guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. MacKinnon, Hay's River, C.B.; Mr. Archie MacKinnon, Mr. Harvey
