Sam Snead Has Big Golf Goal For This Year

NEW YORK, (AP)—Sam Snead's big golf goal this year is to duplicate Ben Hogan's “little slam” of 1953—that is, win the Masters, U. S. and British Opens in a single season.

Fred Corcoran, Snead's business consultant, said Tuesday Sam had asked that an entry be filed for the British championship, scheduled July 5-9 at Royal Birkdale—with one contingency.

To keep the overseas date, Snead must first win the U. S. Open at Baltusrol in Springfield, N.J., June 17-19. This is a title which has been carefully avoiding the West Virginian for 17 years.

“I'd like to play in the British Open but it would all depend on how I do at Baltusrol,” Sam said after scoring a record victory in the round robin at suburban Meadow Brook Sunday.

Jimmy Demaret and Gene Sarazen also are entering the British Open. Hogan has announced he won't be among the competitors.

Snead already has won the 1954 Masters, in a dramatic playoff with Hogan. He is, as usual, one of the hottest favorites at Baltusrol.

Windina Seen Possible Winner Of Queen's Plate

TORONTO, (CP)—Only four fillies have been listed among winners of the last 30 renewals of the Queen's Plate but a trim Miss named Windina is being eyed by turf pundits these mornings. Windina, winner of four of eight starts in 1953, is conceded an excellent chance of beating her male rivals in the gallop for the guinea June 22.

Horsemen remember vividly the manner in which a filly named Canadiana ran away and hid from the colts in the 1953 renewal of the Plate. It was appropriate, of course, that Canadiana should have won because the 1953 plate was contested on Coronation Day. However, never in the history of the race have fillies won in successive years. In comparatively recent seasons: Young Kitty won in 1928; Sally Fuller in 1935; the long-priced Paolita in 1943 and Canadiana.

Windina represents the first racing venture of B. B. Steen, a Toronto business man. Steen was agitated into the yearling sales at Woodbine in 1952, raised his hand to scratch his ear and, the next thing he knew, the auctioneer told him he had bought a filly for $3,400. The filly had been consigned by Frank Conklin, Brantford, Ont. breeder, and she was turned over for training to Jim Bentley.

In her first start at Woodbine in 1953, Windina beat a field of eager fillies. She hustled out of the gate and led all the way!

WON YEARLING STAKES

After that, she raced greenly in two starts. She was fourth in the My Dear Stakes after starting nicely. She finished third to Beau Bunty and Trochian. Both colts in the Clarendon stakes again closed well from a slow beginning. She was shipped to Fort Erie and won the yearling sales stakes when she pulled away from the field in the last furlong.

In the eye-opener stakes at Long Branch, she was beaten by less than three lengths by Free King Maple and Omyboy but tired slightly at the close. She won the Princess Elizabeth at Woodbine in easy fashion.

Then, she gave another manifestation of feminine unpredictability in the Coronation Stakes at one mile and 70 yards. She raced easily for five furlongs, took the lead when she was ready and appeared to run out of wind and finished a puffing and blowing sixth.

Reluctantly, Bentley decided to give her one last chance to prove she could go over a distance. He entered her in a special race at one mile and 70 yards at Woodbine. Windina opened up a handy lead and hung on to beat Collette by a whisker.

Windina earned $8,415 to top all Canadian-bred two-year-olds in the money-won department.

Professional price-makers rate Windina at 20-to-1 which is considered to be a short price for a filly at this stage of the game.
