

Ginger E In Fastest Mile Takes New Mark Of 2:11

Gallant Way, owned by Andrew Perry of Summerside, was the only double dash winner on last evening's exciting 8-lash card at the local driving park. The 7-year-old brown horse by Algiers took both heats of the A Trot and Pace in times of 2:16.4 and 2:17.

Ginger E, in the fourth dash on the card with Lorne Kelly up, lowered his mark by one second, doing the twice-around-the-oval in 2:11 flat. This was also the fastest mile of the night.

Belle Texas, owned by Mapco Stables of Summerside also took a new mark of 2:14 in the second dash on the card.

In the second dash of the A Pace, which Jolly Dick won in 2:17 1-2, all drivers were fined for an unsatisfactory drive to the first half which was in 1:12 2. Mr. Jollicott, in this heat, finished second but was set back to third for breaking at the wire.

Other winners on last night's card were Tommy Shanler, Myrtle's Boy, Peter Federal.

The highest pay of the night was the second daily double on a combination ticket of Gallant Way and Jolly Dick which paid $2.10. The first double paid $19.40 on a combination of Belle Texas and Myrtle's Boy. The Quinella in the fourth dash paid $35.70 and the exactor in the seventh paid $31.20. The highest single win of the night was on Peter Federal in the 7th race, $15.70. Gallant Way on his first time out paid $15.10 to win and the second time paid $12.80.

Race Bettors Shell Out In Swank Surroundings

BY JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Racetrack bettors may wait that some days they can't make car fare home, but at least they're shelling out in luxurious surroundings in Ontario. The Jockey Club has made sure of that.

The racing authorities have poured more than $20,000,000 into

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

RAIN FORCED everything but the P.E.I. District golf tournament from the local sports scene Sunday. The weatherman once again proved how wrong he could really be, telling us on Saturday to expect a sunny sky on Sunday. And if that was a sunny sky, then we want no part of even an overcast one.

Included among the list of sports that fell victim to the weather were baseball games in the King's County league. Fans in this section of the province only get a chance on Sunday to look at their favourites and a wet Sunday doesn't put them in a happy frame of mind.

While we are on the subject of the King's County league, we hear some rumors that indeed were not joyful. We understand that the reigning champions, Peakes Bombers, have lost their baseball diamond and must start getting a new one in shape. On top of that there comes word that they are to lose several of their players. As we get it, the Bombers may have trouble in staying in the league. We hope that this is not the case because we think a King's County league without Peakes Bombers just wouldn't be the thing.

WE MAKE no apologies to the other entrants in the loop when we say that the success this league has enjoyed is due in no small way to the ball players that have come out of Peakes. It certainly has been a hotbed of enthusiasm and even though Peakes' natives have moved to other sections of the provinces, once a Peakes' fan always a Peakes' fan. No other club has a greater following than these same Bombers and their withdrawal from the league would certainly put a real crimp in the fan interest.

We think that the King's County league definitely needs the names of Peakes Bombers. If some help is needed to keep the Bombers alive, then we say let's see it forthcoming. Let's not stand by and watch the best rural baseball community go unrepresented in this baseball league.

Peakes has done a great deal for baseball in King's. Let's see King's repay the debt of doing something for these Bombers.

THE CITY SOFTBALL LEAGUE and the Prince County Softball League got together for the first time Saturday afternoon at Summerside and the Prince County Pontiacs managed to edge the BIS Shamrocks 10-8.

The meeting was long overdue and as a result of this clash several more exhibition encounters are expected. Softball fans here and in Summerside welcome a chance to see outside competition and these exhibition tilts are just the things to fill the bill.

The Pontiacs grabbed their victory the hard way Saturday. They fought back from an 8-2 deficit to gain their verdict. There was just one bit of doubt after that triumph and that was whether the Summerside outfit would have conquered had Irish manager Ev Beagan let his ace hurler go the limit. Perhaps the Pontiacs would have knocked him around too, but there still is that question to be answered. While Joe Thistle was on the hill, the Summersiders were able to garner only two runs.

WELL, THAT QUESTION could be partially answered the next time these two teams clash. If Thistle is available for mound duty, we'd like to see him get a chance to go as far as he could against the Pontiacs. Perhaps the westerners would have him out of there in a real hurry. And then perhaps, Joe might be able to outfox Eustace Reeves and his lads.

We are anxious to see these teams meet again with Thistle getting an opportunity to go the distance.

CHARLOTTETOWN LEGIONAIRES, Brian Lewis' snappy junior baseball team, are hoping for some exhibitions clashes within the next few weeks.

Brian informs us that Halifax Juniors will definitely be here on Sunday July 12. This is the outfit that has been wanting a game since mid-May. These lads are handled by Al Hollingsworth, the young man who took care of the Halifax midgets that played Harry Sentner's Abbies for the Maritime crown.

Lewis also hopes to have the Summerside Juniors appear here shortly and he is working on the Westmoreland league entrants in the hope of bringing one of his teams over this way.

Undoubtedly before any of these games are played, the Legionaires and Abbies will go at each other at Memorial Field.

Baseball fans here seemed assured of more baseball action this summer than they have witnessed for many a year.

THE 5 SIGNALS regiment showed all other signal regiments how softball and volleyball should be played during their recent one week training period at Camp Gagetown.

The Prince Edward Islanders outclassed all competitors in these two sports and were mighty proud of their feats. From Lt. Col. Jenkins down, all 5 Signals members were happy that once more the local signalmen showed the way.

To all who participated in these sports at Gagetown, this column extends congratulations.

THAT WAS a rough series that New York Yankees had with those snarling Detroit Tigers over the weekend. The Bengals took three out of four from the Bombers and really put a stop to Yankees' drive toward the top of the American league heap.

These men of Jimmy Dykes are playing terrific ball for their new pilot and there is a better than even chance that they'll go the full distance this year. The experts have been calling for the Tigers to cause trouble for the last two or three years but they were never quite able to untangle themselves.

MARVILLE, France. (CP)—The RCAF officer in the control tower was a bit worried when he saw the commanding officer jump on a bulldozer and steer it over the crest of a hill.

He watched wide-eyed as Group Capt. D.J. (Blackie) Williams, DSO, DFC, of Vancouver drove the bulldozer's blade into the side of the hill and scraped out a big golf course.

Wilhelm Loses First Game 6-4

BALTIMORE (AP) — Detroit Tigers ended Hoyt Wilhelm's nine-game winning streak Monday night, battering the Baltimore pitcher from the mound in the seventh inning on their way to a 6-4 victory over the Orioles.

Baltimore almost took Wilhelm off the hook by scoring three runs in the eighth to chase Ray Narjeski and pull within 5-4, but reliever Dave Sisler stopped the rally. The Tigers added an unearned run in the ninth, edged .002 ahead of idle Chicago into the American League lead.

BOSTON (AP) — Cleveland Monday night on Minnie Mino's three-run homer which produced a 5-1 victory over Boston.

The tie-breaking blow in the fourth inning of loser Bill Monbouquette brought the two-day runs batted in total to 12 for the rampaging Mino and extended the Indians' winning streak to six.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A five-run Kansas City rally in the ninth inning fell short Monday night as Washington Senators broke a five-game losing streak by whipping the Athletics 8-5.

Washington's Harmon Killebrew walloped his 22nd homer of the season. Jim Lemon, who blasted three homers in Sunday's doubleheader against Cleveland, hit another, his 17th of the year.

There was nothing special about the Old Woodbine meet. There were the biggest stake races with the biggest purse the $10,000 Eclipse Stakes.

The Jockey Club was no piker when the 36-day summer meeting at New Woodbine opened this week. It has 17 stake races on the card, topped by the $50,000-added Queen's Plate on Tuesday, June 30.

The total money in stake races for the meet is $197,500. Where else in Canada will you find that kind of money available for the CONFIDENT OUTLOOK.

There will be at least two feature stake races a week and Jockey Club officials are confident that the crowds and wagering will be the highest since the track opened four years ago.

Possibly the largest crowd in the history of Canadian sport will attend the June 30 Queen's Plate when the Queen and Prince Philip are scheduled to watch the 1.14-mile classic. The record now is 39,419 set in 1955 at Vancouver's Empire Stadium when Edmonton Eskimos whipped Montreal Alouettes in the Grey Cup final.

New Woodbine can handle more than 40,000 persons without too much inconvenience to the bettors. There are pari-mutuel windows strategically situated grandstand, enough to handle the around the clubhouse and a big crowd expected.

NOISY COURSE

radio towers and other obstructions.

After Williams made his conspicuous start with the bulldozer, each squadron and station section was assigned two greens and two fairways to whip into shape.

Instead of labor, some technical sections offered equipment like cups, flagsticks, litter baskets and signs. Station funds were used to build a neat stone clubhouse.

PROUD RESULTS
"This building is the only thing that cost us money," says Williams, proudly. "The course itself cost nothing."

The nine-hole course, which Williams figures will have a par of 72 for two trips around, is not without a few faults. One hole is within ear-shattering distance of a Sabre jet gunnery range.

Now, 18 months later, the Arrowhead Golf Club is ready for operation. And if you ask anyone at No. 1 fighter wing about the club they will quickly single out their commanding officer for all the credit.

Fit. Lt. Rod Perks, 44, of Toronto, who supervised the technical aspects of the course, says Williams "did more than anyone—he's the man who got the job done."

The Group Captain still goes over the course with a bag picking up stones.

NEEDED LINKS
Williams, a compact, well-tanned pilot who still puts in his time on Sabre jets, decided the base needed a golf course when he and other officers and airmen were spending several hours travelling to and from courses in Belgium and Luxembourg. He tried to buy land from a neighboring farm and when this failed he decided to push ahead with available property.

Perks, one-time golf professional at the old Glenmawr Club in Toronto, designed a course on a slope that runs down from an aircraft taxiing strip, across a brook, to the base's boundary fence. The fairways criss-cross past a few maintenance buildings.

Kensington Trips Cape Traverse

The Kensington softball team handed Cape Traverse its first defeat of the season at Bedouin diamond last evening, edging the league leaders 4-3 in a regular game of the Prince County softball league.

Cape Traverse was leading 2-0 going into the final inning but their three errors in that chapter coupled with two base blows brought four Kensington runs across the plate. Cape Traverse got one of them back in their half and had the tying run on third, but couldn't get it across.

Bill Lynch's rap to right field after Fred Jardine had singled to left and three other runners had got lives on Cape bobbles accounted for all Kensington runs.

The Cape boys outir their rivals nine to four. Besides Lynch's game winning single, Carlyle MacEachara, Alan Andrews and Fred Jardine collected one-base hits off pitcher Wendell MacFadyen's offerings. Winning pitcher Earl Dunning kept the Cape bingles pretty well scattered.

Ged MacFadyen led his mates with a single and double in four tries. Brother Wendell cracked out a double. Wes Campbell, Charlie Roberts, Geo. Campbell, Don MacFarlane, Gord Cutcliffe, and Shelley Gardiner each had one single.

A short to first to home double play with first sacker Gord Kennedy on the pivot was the best defensive play of the game.

THREE CHILDREN SHOT
GLADWIN, Mich. (AP)—Three sleeping children were shot to death Sunday night at their home near this central Michigan community. County prosecutor Silas Atlee said the father, Axel Lewis Edick, 25, was held for investigation of murder. Atlee quoted Edick as saying he shot the children with a 12-gauge shotgun and then shot and wounded himself in the head with a .22-caliber rifle he is expected to recover.
