Burgess-Hatherly Wedding Is Beautiful Fall Event

St. John's Roman Catholic Glebe, Springhill, was the setting for a beautiful fall wedding on Saturday, Oct. 4, at 3 p.m. when Patricia Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hatherly, became the bride of Cst. Donald Burgess, R.C.M.P. son of Mrs. John Burgess, Charlottetown, P.E.I. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Charles Hatherly, Pugwash, uncle of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her full skirted peau-de-soie gown with its very long train. The rounded neckline, scalloped with lace, came to a V in the back and was buttoned to the waist in a small bustle.

The full length sleeves featured tiny buttoned cuffs. Her chapel veil fell from a pillbox style cap studded with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade spray of red and white roses. Her only ornaments were tiny pearl earrings and a miniature gold watch, gifts of the groom.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Glen Maddison, wore a street length gown of crimson velvet with matching velvet picture hat and shoes. She wore white gloves and carried a nosegay of red and white carnations and mums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy MacDonald and Miss Carole Rector, wore identical Royal blue velvet street length gowns with matching velvet picture hats and shoes. They wore white gloves and carried nosegays of blue and white mums and carnations.

Little Susan MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dougall MacDonald, made a winsome flower girl in her very full skirted red velvet gown and matching cap. She carried a basket of baby red roses.

David Foster, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester (Bud) Foster, was a very manly little train bearer in his miniature R.C.M.P. uniform.

Cst. Gordon Keller, R.C.M.P. Sherbrooke, N.S. was the best man and the attendants were Cst. Robert Wood, Parrsboro, and Cst. Sandy McFaffie, Amherst. All the men wore the full dress scarlet serge uniforms of the R.C.M.P.

The bride's mother wore a beige sheath dress with a beige Breton sailor velvet hat with her muskrat jacket she wore beige gloves and dark brown shoes. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Burgess wore a dusty blue ensemble with matching accessories and a grey squirrel neckpiece. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Warren, Ottawa, Ont. grandmother of the groom wore a Royal blue ensemble and brown maid to which the groomsmen made fitting reply.

Telegrams of good wishes were received from interested friends. The guest book was circulated by Miss Betty Enman, Summerside, cousin of the bride.

For the honeymoon tour through Nova Scotia, Mrs. Cooke chose a knitted turquoise suit with brown velvet hat, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride who has her Bachelor of Education from Mount Allison University is a teacher in the Amherst Regional High School. The groom who is a graduate of the same institution is pursuing his studies for a Master of Science degree. They will reside in Sackville.

Prior to their marriage a community shower was held in their honour when numerous useful and beautiful gifts were received. Presentations were also made by students and friends in Amherst.

Guests from outside the province included Rev. Dr. and Mrs. G.M. Young, Miss Helen Young, Fredericton, N.B. Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Archer and family, Antigonish, N.S. Mr. James Hirtle, Bridgewater, N.S. Mrs. T.C. Mitchell, Mr. Don Mabey, Dartmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Betts, Messrs. David and Andrew Betts, Halifax, Mrs. W.S.H. Crawford and sons Frederick and William, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones Sackville, Mr. and Mrs. Baillie Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hirtle, Mr. and Mrs. Hower Betz, Mr. and Mrs. James Simpkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carroll, Moncton.—Photo by Craswell.

The bride's table, centred with the traditional three-tiered cake, flanked by low bows of varicolored roses was served by Miss Deanna Bell, DeSable, Mrs. Sheldon Howatt and Mrs. Harleigh Howatt served an adjacent table with settings for ten presided over by the bride's parents.

Mrs. Stirling MacKay, Albany, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Don Hirtle, Moncton, cousin of the groom, poured tea at a daintily appointed table.

The toast to the bride was proposed in an interesting and unique way by Rev. Dr. George M. Young of Fredericton, N.B., a former pastor of the congregation. An appropriate response was made by the groom who then proposed a toast to the brides-hers. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Ruth McIsaac, great aunt of the bride, wore a teal blue dress with brown accessories, brown fur jacket and red roses.

The wedding reception was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall for approximately two hundred guests. After Rev. Father Hatherly pronounced the blessing, Mr. Rod Johnston proposed the toast to the bride with the groom responding.

The bride and groom cut the beautiful four tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature "Mountie" and bride in the traditional manner and then personally served their guests. During the reception the Major chords sang several appropriate selections.

Presiding over the silver tea services were Mrs. James Cameron and Mrs. Frank Bell, aunts of the bride, Mrs. George Burgess, Charlottetown, P.E.I. and Mrs. Leo MacDonald, Mrs. Larry Duff and Mrs. Harmon Carigan replenished.

Serving the bride's table were Miss Sidney Gidney, Digby, and Mrs. Angus Henwood. The guests were served by the Misses Bonnie Bell, Elaine Maddison, Shirley Moore, Jean Marshall, Josie Gillis Sandra Cormier Aubrey Newman of Moncton, and Mrs. Donald Stubbert, Sackville, Mrs. Gerald Gilbert and Mrs. Jack Bourgeois.

The bride's travelling ensemble consisted of a beige dress suit, worn with an orange ice trimmed hat, orange ice gloves, dark brown shoes and bag, muskrat jacket and a corsage of orange delight roses.

The honeymoon is being spent touring Quebec and Ontario returning by boat via Yarmouth, N.S. The happy couple will reside in Antigonish where the bride is a valued member on the teaching staff of Morrison School, and the groom is stationed with the R.C.M.P.

40th Wedding Anniversary Is Most Happily Observed

Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Keoughan had as their guests for the past few weeks, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McLellan, Boston.

On Oct. 2nd, returning home from a visit with friends, they were pleasantly surprised to find another daughter Mrs. W. A. McLellan her husband and children also.

Mrs. Gertrude McDonald had arrived from United States to join with their parents in celebrating their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

Refreshments were served and a dainty buffet supper was soon in readiness. Later in the evening friends called to extend congratulations and best wishes.

Music and dancing was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and a sing-song "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" brought the evening to a close.

On Saturday morning the McLennans left again for Somerville, Mass., with the thought of what a happy reunion it really was.

PARKDALE W.I.

The monthly meeting of Parkdale W.I. was held in the hall on Oct 2 with the president, Mrs. Frank Ross in the chair.

Meeting opened by singing, "When You and I Were Young Maggie". Roll call was responded to by 21 members telling of their worst mistake in cooking. After the reading of the minutes, the correspondence was read followed by the treasurer's report. Routine reports were heard from the sick and school committees. The Brownies and Guides have resumed their activities for the season and are showing much interest in their work.

On Oct. 23, a hot turkey dinner will be served in the hall. Tickets were passed out to the members to sell. The following were appointed a committee in charge. Mrs. A. Seaman, Mrs. H. Douglas, Mrs. G. Newman, Mrs. H. MacDonald and Mrs. L. O'Brien. Mrs. E. Cook and Mrs. L. Ramsay will be in charge of the bazaar.

Membership was renewed in the Drama Festival Association with Mrs. V. Hudson and Mrs. A. Found representative members.

A wedding reception is booked for early in November. Mrs. M. F. Rodd, Mrs. V.M. Hudson and Mrs. H. Frizzell were appointed a nominating committee for the annual meeting.

The program convened by Mrs. Aubrey Found was a demonstration featuring supper, using a home made mix as a base.

Delicious salmon, rolls and asparagus rolls were made on the spot and baked, accompanied by orange cake this provided an appetizing buffet lunch.

Products of Ogilvie's were arranged at the front of the hall. A mix-quiz was won by Mrs. F. Bertram. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

BLAST APARTMENT HOUSES
CHICAGO (AP) — Two bombs Tuesday damaged two apartment buildings in a south side white neighborhood into which Negroes have been moving. No one was injured in the blasts that blew out the front stairways of the buildings. Police estimated the damage at $4,000 to each. Negro families have rented apartments in both buildings.

MR. AND MRS. G. A. COOKE AND PARTY

Tryon United Church Is Scene Of Lovely Wedding

Baskets of pink and white gladioli against a background of beautiful pastel shades in the recently decorated United Church, Tryon, formed a delightful setting for a late summer wedding, Thursday, August 28, at three-thirty o'clock. Those exchanging marriage vows were Mildred Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith, Tryon and George Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. MacDonald Cooke, Moncton, N.B.

The guests were ushered by Mr. Don Mabey, Dartmouth, and Mr. William Jones, Sackville, to seats marked with sweet peas and white satin bows. The officiating clergyman for the double ceremony was Rev. A.D.C. Earle, Tryon.

The processional hymn "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven", was sung by the choir and congregation with Dr. Peter MacDonald as organist Miss Maida Robertson, Charlottetown, cousin of the bride, rendered effectively two solos, "O Perfect Love" during the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" while the register was being signed.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a floor-length dress of white tulle over bridal taffeta. Panels of exquisite lace with wide edging fell in tiers over the bouffant skirt. The fitted torso with long tapered sleeves and sequin-trimmed Peter Pan collar was fastened in the back with tiny covered buttons. A shoulder-length veil was held in place by a Queen Anne headdress adorned with sequins and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white gladioli.

Her sister, Miss Barbara Smith as maid of honor, wore a floor-length dress of Dior blue orphea over net. The draped skirt was caught up at intervals with clusters of satin roses in a harmonizing shade. Her headdress and mitts were of matching color and she carried a basket of pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, David Cooke, Moncton.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride was attired in a sheath dress of navy crepe with sabrina neckline. Her picture hat had a crown of royal blue velvet with draped brim of variegated blue silk. The accessories were navy and white, and she wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Cooke was costumed in Dior blue shantung silk with matching shoes, elbow-length white kid gloves and pink feather hat. A corsage of pink carnations completed the ensemble.

A reception for approximately eighty-five guests was held in the church hall with the Evening Auxiliary of the W.M.S. catering. Mrs. Arthur MacKay, Albany, acted as hostess. Grace was said by Rev. Alexander MacKay, Kensington, uncle of the bride.

The bride's table, centred with the traditional three-tiered cake, flanked by low bows of varicolored roses was served by Miss Deanna Bell, DeSable, Mrs. Sheldon Howatt and Mrs. Harleigh Howatt served an adjacent table with settings for ten presided over by the bride's parents.

Why is the daily newspaper like an all-around athlete?

ANSWER: IT'S SO VERSATILE! Advertisers invest more money in the daily newspaper than in any other medium because it can do so many things so well. Among its many accomplishments for advertisers, the daily newspaper can announce new products, promote deals, advertise prices, challenge competition, bolster sick markets and tell a complete product story. With the newspaper advertisers can apply selling pressure whenever and wherever they wish. It's the perfect answer to their needs.
