Ship Diverted To Georgetown

The Imperial Oil Co. tanker J. Edgar Simard, assisted by the CGWS Tupper, was making slow progress towards Charlottetown late last night. They were in Hillsboro Bay and in 24 hours had moved about 10 miles.

Early in the night they were an estimated six to seven miles from the dock. At midnight they were still not in sight from the Railway wharf.

Meanwhile a fertilizer ship en route to Charlottetown, the MV Fosheim, was diverted to Georgetown. However, it was not known when she would reach her new destination.

David Seales of the Island Fertilizer Corp., said last night a resident of White Sands told him the Fosheim had reached High Bank when the decision

Steps Taken To Keep Peace In Canal Zone

PANAMA CITY (AP)—The United States and Panama took a first step toward patching up differences Monday by agreeing to creation of a joint authority to coordinate the activities of American States to keep the peace in the canal zone.

Amid signs of decreasing tension, Thomas C. Mann, president, envoy of President Johnson, said before the signing of the accord very shortly.

He indicated that ceremony would take place Jan. 22—the date when Prime Minister Pearson is to visit President Johnson in Washington.

The negotiators declined to reveal any details until the documents have been prepared for signature.

26 Deaths Reported

Reports at Halifax yesterday indicated applications have been made for licenses to drill oil for oil on the eastern end of Prince Edward Island.

At the same time it was expected the Fosheim could reach dock there under her own power.

The Simard, with a cargo of 60,000 barrels of fuel oils, sailed from Halifax about 6 p.m. Friday. She entered the icefield 15 miles east of Cape Bear near daybreak Sunday.

The area in question has not been explored for oil by drilling. Surveys earlier had disclosed possible oil-bearing formations which form a plateau toward the eastern end of P.E.I.

Island Man Is Re-Elected Chairman of Dairy Bureau

NEL A. MATHESON, provincial and farm editor of The Guardian and The Evening Patriot was made an honorary dairy farmer by the Dairy Farmers of Canada last night at ceremonies at the Charlottetown Hotel.

M. Matheson, president of the Dairy Farmers of Canada, also presented with a certificate, showing that he was a dairy farmer and the conditions which he was to observe, by John K. Dickson, Ormstown, Que., president of the Dairy Farmers of Canada.

Also presented with similar certificates were James Thompson, editor of the Maritime Farmer and Jack Johnson, in charge of the Maritime farm broadcast of the CBC.

26,000 Winter Homes Set To Collect Bonus

MONTREAL (CP)—Two boys were charged with attempted murder and robbery with violence Monday in connection with the robbing of a Montreal waitress in a suburban St.-Michel cafeteria last Saturday and were ordered to undergo a mental examination.

The boys, brother aged 12 and 15, appeared before juvenile court judge John Long. The case was postponed until Jan. 27.

Det.-Capt. Fernand Dinelle of the St. Michel police said the waitress, Lise St. Maurice, was found lying naked and bleeding in the hallway and several cuts about the body.

Police had to break through a padlocked door to get to the girl who could be heard whimpering inside after an anonymous telephone caller informed them someone could be found injured in the cafeteria.

The two boys, aged 12 and 15, were written on Miss St. Maurice's stomach by her own blood.

Police said they believed the girl surprised thieves breaking into the cafeteria after she had left behind by two other employees to close up at 2 a.m.

Stress Placed on Transport

OTTAWA (CP)—The RCAF will be withdrawn from all combat roles, with the possible exception of anti-submarine operations, within five years, authorities forecast Monday.

They predicted that the service would be reorganized to emphasize transport force and that its combat roles in home waters would be gradually being eliminated by 1969 or earlier.

Plans are already being made to expand the RCAF station at Trenton, Ont., headquarters for transport command.

The lessening emphasis on the role of combat jet planes is causing considerable embarrassment in the RCAF because of its young people—and the building up of a new jet training program.

Abroad Leaders Open Talks

CAIRO (AP)—Arab kings, presidents, sheiks and strong men met at a summit meeting in Cairo Monday night in an annual display of pan-Arab unity and quickly went into secret session to plan action against Israel.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic addressed the opening session of 13 Arab rulers and their delegations. Congressmen heard part of it, then were ordered out of the meeting room.

Abandoned Plant At Truro Burns

TRURO (CP)—Damage from a spectacular fire destroyed an abandoned mill plant here Monday night and for a three-day period.

The mill, may run as high as $100,000, firemen said.

The plant, which broke out about 6 p.m. Monday evening, involved the former Borden Co. plant and was owned by Stanfield's Limited wool storage and processing business.

The Truro fire department, assisted by men and equipment from nearby Bellefleur, fought the fire for almost two hours and kept flames from leaping into surrounding buildings and textile complex after a small fire in the wool processing plant had been extinguished.

Borden Company had closed down operations at the plant since November and the building had been purchased by Stanfield's Limited in December.

The structure, located at the corner of Bayview and Logan Streets, was an eight-story, two-story frame building. A service station adjacent to the building had been completely destroyed and the plant erupted into flames.

Two Nuclear Weapons Aboard Crashed Plane

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP)—U.S. Strategic Air Command bomber carrying two nuclear weapons crashed in flames near a farm Monday night, and the plane was found to have carried two nuclear weapons.

The commander of the five-man crew bailed out, landed safely on a western Maryland farm and returned to his base before his crew had left the plane before him.

The plane, the West Virginia, was Civil Air Patrol said in Charleston it had word that two crew members from the air force bomber which crashed in west ern Maryland had been found.

Ma J. E. Cheives said the report was picked up by the C.A.P. radio network, but its source was not immediately disclosed.

He said the C.A.P. had word the bodies were not recognizable.

Ma J. Thomas W. McCormick, commander of the B-52 jet bomber, said he had a member heard from after the crash.

He came down on a farm near Grantsville, Md., about 20 miles west of here, a few miles from the crash scene.

"I'm bruised but I'm not injured, that I know of," he told The Associated Press by telephone.

The 45-year-old plane commander said he had walked for nearly six hours through a snow blanket two to three feet deep to reach the farm, two or three miles from the crash scene.

The plane was described as a Strategic Air Command B-52 bomber with two unarmed nuclear weapons.

Mad Hockey, Slot Machines Debated As City Council Meets

By GEORGE CHANDON

Admission fees to Sunday hockey and slot machines were the subject of discussion of the city engineer and discussion of gambling machines were the main topics last night at a meeting of the city council at Charlottetown City Council met for its regular monthly meeting.

The resignation of Norman Stewart as city engineer was accepted "with regret" last night after he had stated his intention not to withdraw his notice. He had been asked at the meeting to reconsider his resignation and to give his decision at a later date.

Mr. Stewart showed his will- ingness, however, to remain in the position until the job was filled.

It was decided that slots would be taken immediately in advertising for the position.

Councillor E.M. MacRae said he had been hoping that Mr. Stewart would change his mind, but now that the decision had been made he wondered if it could be filled so ably as was done by Mr. Stewart.

SUNDAY HOCKEY

With Sunday hockey games being scheduled in the new Charlottetown and District Junior Hockey League, a major discussion arose last night as to the possibility of slot machines being charged. Both Councillors A.L. Wright and MacRae voiced strong exception to any
