

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS E. IRESON
Wedding Of Interest To Island Friends Is Held In Hamilton

The Melrose United Church in Hamilton, Ont. was the scene of a pretty wedding of interest to Hamilton friends and relatives on March 24, 1962 when Sonia Louise DePasquier, daughter of Mrs. Mary DuPasquier and the late John DuPasquier formerly of Forest Hill and Charlotteville, became the bride for Thomas Edward Ireson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ireson of Hamilton.

For the ceremony the church was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums. The organist, Miss Hampshire accompanied the soloist James Bechell as he sang "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by a friend of the family, Cpl. J. Raymond Buckley of the RCAF in Trenton Ont., the bride looked radiant in a full length gown of white tulle with a slight train and full length sleeves. The dress featured a stand-up collar. Her first-look veil was caught in place with a double crown of sequins. Her bouquet was of red roses.

The groom wore a dark suit. Mr. Walter Ireson, Jr. and the bridesmaids were Miss Laurie Hunt, Miss Coppinger and Mrs. Dingwell, formerly of Charlotteville. They were red veiled in green length dresses with short quarter length sleeves, and round necklines. They carried bouquets of white carnations with red sweetheart roses.

Mr. Walter Ireson, Jr. brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were George Coppinger, and Wayne and Gary Ireson, brothers of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a brown sheath dress with matching coat both with three quarter length sleeves. Her accessories were in champagne beige and her corsage was of white and yellow mums.

The mother of the groom wore turquoise draped dress and carried a bouquet of tall mums roses.

Following the ceremony approximately 100 guests attended the reception held at the Galbraith Room at the Pines in Stony Creek.

The toast to the bride was proposed by the groom's uncle, William Cowan, and Mrs. Tom McLaughlin of Boston, Massachusetts.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Tom McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dingwell, and Mr. Roy MacLaren all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ford of Grimsby.

For a honeymoon trip the bride travelled in a blue tailcoat suit with white accessories and her corsage was also in white.

The bride is employed by the Robert Steele Company of Canada and the groom is with the Hamilton City Police Force. The young couple will reside in Hamilton.

Prior to her marriage Mrs. Ireson was entertained at a number of showers and social functions.

CGIT Graduation Ceremony Is Held At Kensington United

Eight girls graduated from CGIT in an inspiring ceremony in Kensington United Church Sunday. The girls were presented with their pins and certificates by the minister, Rev. L. M. Murray, who conducted the service and addressed the graduates.

Speaking on the theme "Filled With the Holy Spirit", Mr. Murray impressed upon his audience that the Christian life is a reality lived, must be open to the spirit of God and reaching out to others. "When the fruits of the spirit come into our lives, then we are really living", he said.

Mrs. Robert Carruthers, who conducted the ceremony, explained the standards of CGIT and congratulated the graduating class.

Presentation of the pins and certificates was made by Mr. Murray. The graduates were Elizabeth Cadeby, Linda Woodside, Patsy Ramsay, Marilyn Mackay, Astrid Miller, Judy Picketts, Nancy MacLure, and Julie Ramsay.

Elizabeth Devision, who completed two years' CGIT, was presented with a pin by one of the leaders, Miss Dorothy MacKenzie, Valdictorian was Patsy Ramsay.

Five explorers were also graduated at the service. This part of the service was conducted by leaders Mrs. L.M. Murray, Miss Carolyn Thomas, and Miss Phyllis Miller, who made the presentations. The explorers who became CGIT members were Nancy Kennedy, Barbara Alexander, Barbara Anne Adair, Valerie McEwen, and Brenda Hunter.

Women Once Hoarded Rainwater For Washday

"Every cloud must have its silver lining." And we smile at his wistfully for the return of fair skies, as we bear the rain fall from an awning's spout to run off into the night — if we had the rain-barrel — once there to catch it, we think now, what a fine wash should spread in the morning! Not that we do not count high among our tangible riches, the good wash-water on tap at this place. But there is an extra soft quality that which has been tipped by the sunlight, and filtered by a cloud, for the housewife who would wash her clothes in the tubs, made up by washboard and tub — odd ones of these tubs have survived the change of the years, the best one having been appropriated as a temporary receptacle for the cattle in the pole-barn, during periods when they were allowed to go down to drink at the mill stream.

"What's worrying me, is to see how much rain sitting here will get her chicks down from the loft when they're hatched!" she mused, when he chatted of the bantam situation with a young neighboring matron, this one, Edwin who has been with the Engineering Department of Collins Radio Inc., Toronto, for the past three years, left Monday for a special three month training course in Madison, Wisconsin to be completed in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Fred MacTactoe, Summerside, entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. N.J. Hatley, previous to her return to her home in Daytona Beach, Florida. She had been visiting her sister, Miss Effie Jeffrey, Linklater Road.

Mrs. Albert Jeffrey has returned to her home in Miscouche after spending two weeks with her brother, Mr. Albert Aiken and family in Hamilton, Ontario.

And all this day the stream in the low of our valley, ran red and troubled, and increased flow. Goss was the laughter of its spring-song — but only for a time, as it hurried down to the dam.

"June keeps cool!" Mr. C. from the house on the hill, offered when, toward dusk, he came by. "Cool — and fairly damp" he added.

"Too cool for growth!" James said. "There's not too much grass yet for the stock. It's not — well, growing, as it should for the time of year."

"It needs sun and warmth now."

"Yes, a few days of heat effect a miracle!" James noted.

"Yes, a few days of that could, effect a miracle!" James added.

The cropping was of course suspended in today's mist and showers — the seeders and harrows left it. But at Alderley, incidentals to the seeding were done in preparation for the return of that "Silver lining." We

Zion Church WMS Group Has Annual Meet

The annual meeting of the Zion Church WMS group was held on June 1 with the president, Mrs. Cyrus Martin in the chair. Mrs. Flora Mackay had charge of the devotional period and she was assisted by Mrs. W.C. Lawson and Mrs. Larier.

The correspondence was read and discussed and it included several cards of appreciation. Miss Ida MacLoughlin read an interesting paper on the Presbyterian Church in Nigeria.

The following reports were given:

Crystal drops glisten on the pines. Rain sheds from the roof and runs into the night.

But "By tomorrow we say hopefully — with the affairs the cropping in mind —" the sun will once more "shine through."

Until tomorrow — Diary — Good-night....
