men's singles event. There was one major upset—the first of the 57th annual tournament—and two that came close. Six-seeded Henri Rochon, 33-year-old veteran from Montreal, fell to another old-timer, pudgy Jim Macken of Vancouver, 6-3, 3-6, 8-6.

Two seeds who came close to falling by the wayside were seventh-ranked Bob Bedard and seventh-seeded Glen Bassett.

Bedard, the defending champion ran into 19-year-old Greg Grant of Los Angeles.

MARATHON SET
The Californian, displaying a blazing serve, dropped the first set to Bedard 6-2 but then engaged the Sherbrooke, Que., ace in a marathon duel that went 30 sets before Grant took a 16-14 decision in the deciding set. Bedard whipped off precision lobs and cross-court placements to win 6-2.

Both Perry, ranked 23, year-old from Los Angeles who is seeded No. 1, met 35-year-old Phil Seymour of San Francisco and needed 18 sets to win, 6-3, 6-3.

Noel Brown, 30-year-old former professional from Los Angeles, whipped Montreal's Val Harri 6-1, 6-1.

Towering Earl Baumgardner, Los Angeles, 19-year-old, defended his fifth rating with comparative ease taking Lawrie Barclay of Montreal and Vancouver 6-4, 6-1.

FONTANA WINS
Fourth-seeded Don Fontana, Davis Cupper from Toronto, came up against Don Stensaas of Modesto, Calif., a player who matched Fontana in both height and length of limb. Fontana's experience and control proved too much and he won out 6-3, 8-6.

Bassett from Los Angeles, needed 31 sets to eliminate Bob Sherman of Arcadia, Calif., 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Eight-ranked Paul Willey, agile Davis Cup team member from Vancouver, won 6-2, 6-4 against Cliff Vickery, a tall youngster from San Mateo, Calif.

Jim Corbett took seconds in the 100 yard and 220. Don Leclair was third in the 100 and Ivan Ashley of East Royally was third in the 220.

Groom was the only entrant in the pole vault as the young fellow, who is holder of the Marine record for this event, put an exhibition jump. Groom cleared the bar easily at 10 feet.

The running high jump was in progress as the rain started and a rain-soaked John McGowan of Montreal won it with a leap of 5 feet 2 inches. Dave Hyndman of Charlottetown was second.

With 26 golfers entered in the P. E. I. Men's Amateur championships officials of the tournament are faced with a congestion problem as the tournament swings to Summerside for the final 18 holes on Saturday.

To alleviate the congestion that is almost certain to arise with such a large body of golfers active on the 9-hole course several golfers have consented to play their rounds in the morning, but unless a number of others volunteer to play their rounds in the afternoon, those playing with a delay before getting off the tee.

Officials said last night that the turnout for the tournament is the highest in a number of years.

There will be no City Baseball League game at Memorial Field tonight. The game between the Dodgers and Stars will be held Friday night when it is hoped an airforce band will be in attendance for a band concert.

Youth Club Downs Shamrocks 11-7 To Take Semi-final Lead

The Basileia Youth Club won the first game of their City Softball League semi-final series against the B. I. S. Shamrocks yesterday evening by coming from behind in the sixth inning to score five runs and win 11-7.

The Shamrocks walked two home runs in the half of the sixth to jump into a 7-6 lead but the advantage was only short lived as the Ralph Pineau coached B. Y. C. struck for five runs in the last of the sixth and then kept the Shamrocks scoreless in the seventh.

Ralph Pineau pitched for the first five innings for the B. Y. C. and gave up only two hits. Joe Thistle pitched the sixth inning and received credit for the victory. Pineau returned to hurl and final frame.

Gregory Hurlis
Again it was "Iron-Arm" Demps Gregory who toiled on the hill for the Shamrocks. It was his 18th appearance this season and he gave up only seven hits.

The B. Y. C. came alive in the last of the sixth. Charlie Weatherbie led off with a single. Joe Revell followed with a single and Clary Peters walloped a triple into left field. Arsenault produced another single and Ralph Pineau cleaned the bases with a blast into centre field. Coady laid down a bunt to reach first but Burge flied out to end the inning.

In the first of the seventh Hagen flied out. Gregory walked but Gallant popped out and "The Little Professor" playing coach Shephard grounded out to end the game.

Montreal Royal Hurler Bill Harris Suffering Sore Arm

MONTREAL (CP) — Right-hander Billy Harris, one of the International League Montreal Royals' top pitchers, is suffering from a sore arm. It was learned Wednesday.

There was speculation that Harris, 25, who hails from Dorchester, N.B., will have to be sidelined for a time if he is to recover and reach the major baseball leagues has been predicted.

Reporters had noted Harris was gamely trying to take his turn on the mound for Royals at the beginning of the game. But it became evident that the Marimor's aching arm wasn't up to it.

HURTS THROWING CURVES
"My arm feels okay so long as I'm throwing a fastball, but once I try to break off a curve, the pain just above my elbow is very severe," he told a reporter.

Mulleay allowed Harris to miss his regular turn a couple of times, but when the pressure on the pitching staff became great with the pile-up of doubleheaders and the failure of starters to go more than one or two innings, Harris has been called through sheer necessity.

A club spokesman said Harris' arm should be all right if given a little rest. He said soreness in the arm has been going away and coming back every so often.

Harris has won eight games and lost nine.

N.Y. Giants Turn Back Reds 3-1; Ted And Jensen Lead Bosox Win

SPORT NY GIANTS
BY THE CANADIAN PRESS
Ruben Gomez limited Cincinnati to one hit in seven innings and contributed a vital two-bagger that started New York Giants on a two-run rally in the seventh inning to down the Redlegs 3-1 Wednesday.

The second-place Redlegs got their only run without the benefit of a hit in the fourth as Roy McMillan lead off with a walk, advanced when Frankie Robinson was hit by a pitch, and got home on two fly balls.

In the American League Ted Williams and Jackie Jensen hit home runs to account for all the Boston scoring in a 5-4 decision over Detroit Tigers while Washington Senators rallied for four runs in the tenth to earn a 6-4 victory over Chicago White Sox.

ACE RELIEF BY HURD
Tom Brewer won his 15th game for Boston but needed a sparkling ninth-inning relief chore from Tommy Hurd to beat down a late Tiger rally. Hurd, taking over with the bases loaded and just one out, struck out slugger Charley Maxwell and got Al Kaline on a routine fly.

Washington was forced into overtime by Sam Esposito's home run. Each side had scored an unearned run early in the game and shelled from the mound in the second inning of the series opener Monday, came back with a six hit performance, missing a shut out on a homer by Hank Bauer.

BROOKLYN (AP)—Dale Mitchell, who joined Brooklyn from Cleveland just 24 hours earlier, beat out a pinch-hit infield chopper to drive in the tie-breaking run in the eighth inning Wednesday night beating Milwaukee 2-1, and hoisting the third place Dodgers to within three games of the National League leading Braves.

The defeat left Milwaukee with a 2-game lead over second place Cincinnati, beaten by the New York Giants 3-1.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bob Lemon pitched the Cleveland Indians to a 5-1 victory over the New York Yankees Wednesday night, aided by four double plays.
