Liguorian Youth Club Notes

A FAREWELL GATHERING FOR REV. FR. HENNESSEY

On Wednesday evening, July 19th, the picnic grounds at Dalvey Beach was the scene of a farewell party honouring Rev. Father Patrick Hennessey, C.S.S.R., Chaplain of the Liguorian Youth Club of Holy Redeemer Parish. It was with sorrow and regret that we learned of our beloved Chaplain's departure from our midst, but his spirit and ideals shall always remain with us. The evening got under way with modern and square dancing. The bowling trophies which were hard won during the winter months were presented to the winning teams by Fr. Hennessey. Weiners and coke followed and were enjoyed by all. The President of the Club, Mr. Carl Proude, presented Father Hennessey with a suitable gift from the Club and read the address. Father Hennessey thanked the members for the spirit of co-operation they had shown since the formation of the club and wished us success for the future. The evening closed with a sing-song also the singing of Auld Lang Syne and "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow." Evening prayers were then said followed by Father's blessing. Following is the text of the address read:

To The Rev. Patrick Hennessey: Rev. and Dear Father:

A short time ago it was with a touch of sorrow that the members of this Club learned of your departure from the Parish of the Most Holy Redeemer, and more immediately from the directorship of the Liguorian Youth Club. You came to our parish approximately two and one-half years ago, and with your dynamic personality and personal holiness, you won the hearts and respect of everyone, both young and old. Your visits to the sick and aged, as well as to the homes, were always appreciated and eagerly looked forward to. For the young people you had a smile and many words of wise counsel. It is hard to express the way in which you have engrafted yourself into the hearts of the parishioners, but it can be shown that you have won our hearts by saying that you have become one of our most beloved priests.

Upon the formation of our club you became the first spiritual director. The beginning of such a club was not an easy task. Many obstacles arose but with your guidance and support these were quickly surmounted. Time meant nothing to you in the establishing and furthering of the Club toward its objectives. No one here tonight, perhaps, can realize the personal sacrifices you have made for it. You gave yourself in a most unselfish manner. No doubt you have gained many satisfactions from your relationship with the Club but it cannot be denied that we, the members, have gained the most. Nevertheless there is one great satisfaction which you can take away with you and that is the fact that you have brought each and every person in the Club closer to his neighbour and, more important, closer to God.

Numerous things can be recalled and many words spoken of your stay with us but time and circumstances do not permit this. At this parting, perhaps, our group sentiments can best be told by relating this timely little story. The religious friction between Northern Ireland and Southern Ireland is well known, but even with this there is an annual soccer match between teams from these two parts. In the evening after the game the supporters of the teams usually gather in the taverns and review the game. On this occasion the team from Northern Ireland won. So that evening two Orangemen were reviewing the events and immediately one raised his beer and said, "Ay 'tis a sad night in the Vatican tonight!" We can easily change these few words and say, "Ay 'tis a sad night in Holy Redeemer!" But in every sadness there is brightness. You, Father, are leaving us to the mission field; to the winning of new souls and the reclaiming of lost ones. You have made great gains in your work with us and we know that you will be even more successful in your new priestly duties.

On this, the eve of your departure, our thoughts and prayers go with you. We shall be thinking of you always. In appreciation of all you have done for us we ask you to accept this small gift from us. In concluding this short address may we wish you bon voyage and God's blessing on you during your travels. Yours most sincerely,

THE MEMBERS OF THE LIGUORIAN YOUTH CLUB
