

Francis Says 'Plante' Can Still Rise To The Occasion

NEW YORK (AP)—"He can still rise to the occasion," Eric Francis said Monday, referring to the sensational comeback of Jacques Plante which has thrust the Montreal goaltender back into the National Hockey League spotlight. "Being able to come through when the chips are down in such a dramatic way is what separates the great from the ordinary and Plante showed that he still can do that," added

Francis, new general manager of New York Rangers. Francis recalled from his time in Baltimore of the American League at the season's start when he was coaching Plante. "I earned him ranking among the all-time greats, blisped the champion Maple Leafs 6-0 Saturday night for his 62nd big-league shutout."

He was recalled from Baltimore to replace the injured Marcel Paille.

Prince County Troop Has Opening Tonight

SUMMERSIDE — After a successful first year operation in 1963, this year's version of the Prince County Hockey League promises to be more than ever a dog fight for the league pennant. The league opener is tonight with the RCAP Eagles pitted against Summerside's Junior Legionnaires at Civic Stadium in Summerside. Game time is 8:15 p.m.

Four teams comprise the top that include a league winner and Maritime Junior Champions, the Summerside Junior Legionnaires coached by Grant Grady; a newly sponsored Enman Drum Combines, a team that basically has the same corps from last year's season with a few new additions in 1964 look powerful. The Combines are piloted by Greg Deighan. RCAP Eagles, a new entry this winter is coached by Sgt. Tony Licari who has a very impressive back ground. Licari had a brief stint with the Detroit Red Wings in 1946-47. Prior to this he toiled with the Omaha Knights and then Indianapolis of the American League.

Borden Nationals headed by Jim Macdonald may be the dark horse. In practice sessions, capable players from Charlottetown have been working out with the club. A team that came on strong near the end of the 1963 season despite a third place finish in a four club set up, Borden this year could finish high.

In a pre season analysis of the league, Francis said, "I think the league will be a dog fight for the league pennant. The league opener is tonight with the RCAP Eagles pitted against Summerside's Junior Legionnaires at Civic Stadium in Summerside. Game time is 8:15 p.m."

"I didn't get to Toronto until after 2 o'clock Saturday night and there was still enough time to eat and get a little rest," Plante said "Actually, the boys were really tired. It's a much improved team and I was really surprised."

Plante was the first big-league goalie to wear a face mask since he wore one last year while winning the Vezina trophy five straight times while a member of the Montreal Canadiens. Montreal traded him to New York in June 1963.

"You know, I think it was the first time I had a shutout in Toronto since the 1959-60 season," Plante recalled. "It was the last game of the finals and gave us our fifth straight Stanley Cup Championship. But I'd have to say Saturday night's game ranks right up there with that one. It was a big thrill."

"Any time you win 1-0 in this league the pressure has to be on all during the game," said Francis, "and considering what this guy has accomplished recently the heat was on him even more."

Plante was reported to have made uncomplicated remarks about the Rangers while in Baltimore. The press has to be on all during the game, said Francis, "and considering what this guy has accomplished recently the heat was on him even more."

Faulkner Brothers Team Up To Make Formidable Force

HARBOR GRACE, Nfld. (CP) — A promising young defenseman for the Charlottetown Capitals, Alex Faulkner, falls near the top of the season of regret is understandable.

When it happens to three members of the same family, it can be a real heart-breaker, not only for the men themselves but for all who took pride in their accomplishments.

George was almost daily copy in sports pages of Quebec and Newfoundland newspapers during his three seasons with Shawigan Falls Cataracts of the Quebec Hockey League. He scored 71 points and was hoping for a chance in the NHL this season.

Jack was scouted by Detroit and placed with Johnston Jets of the U.S. Eastern Amateur Hockey League last season. He scored 71 points and was hoping for a chance in the NHL this season.
