

THE DAILY EXAMINER. NOVEMBER 8, 1889.

Notes and Comments.

The French press regards the visit of the Prince of Wales to Egypt as clinching the English suzerain. La France asks whether the game of protesting is worth the candle, and whether it is not better to disarm English hostility in view of the possibility of a European war.

The Governor-General has enjoyed himself immensely in Victoria, B.C. A correspondent, who is accompanying His Excellency, writes: "For relative wealth, for scenic wonderland, for wide open Sunday saloons, for an absence of business rush, for a plenitude of womanly beauty and a pervading civic charm that finds no expression equivalent in Webster, give me Victoria."

Referring to the address of Principal Grant, in Montreal, on Halloween, La Patrie says: "All the fanatics who are now agitating with so much ardor will find therein a severe lesson by which they would do well to profit, and all truly patriotic Canadians will sincerely thank the distinguished man who spoke such noble words."

It is not unlikely that the Mowat Government will be defeated in the approaching elections. There is widespread throughout Ontario the idea that Mowat and his colleagues have been too much governed by the Archbishop of Toronto. This idea has been strengthened by the close political partnership which has existed between Mowat and the author of the Jesuits' Estate Act, and the favor shown by the Minister of Education to the French schools.

The idea of a general Thanksgiving Day is a good one; and the people of Canada have much to be thankful for. It is a pity that special Thanksgiving services were not held in all the churches, and that everyone did not respond to the invitation of the Governor-General.

Halifax is enforcing the compulsory education act. The law provides that all children between 8 and 14 must attend school six months out of the twelve; and parents whose children do not so attend school are liable for fines from $1 to $20 and costs.

Y. M. C. A.

WEEK OF PRAYER, NOV. 10 TO 16.

The Y. M. C. Association, of Charlottetown, have made the following arrangements for the week of prayer:—

Sunday, 10th—Prayer meeting in the parlor from 10 to 10.45, a.m. Gospel meeting in the hall, 4 to 5 p. m. Subject—"Met by the way," Acts 22, 6 to 11. A mass meeting in the evening from 8.30 to 9.30. Praise and short practical addresses.

At both these services collections will be taken in aid of special Association work. Silver will be preferred.

A prayer meeting will be held in the parlor daily during the week from 12.45 to 1.15 p. m.

Wednesday, 13th—A mothers' prayer meeting in the lower parlor at 3 p. m. For women only.

Friday, 15th—Gospel meeting in hall at 8 p. m. Subject—"An opening to great advantage," John 10, 7 to 9.

Saturday, 16th—Bible class in parlor from 8 to 9.

The pastors of the different churches have kindly consented to preach on Sunday next about young men, and the urgent need of special Christian effort in their behalf.

Personal.

The Queen has finally decided to open Parliament in person.

Lord Rowton, the literary executor of Lord Beaconsfield, has confined to Mr. Froude all the materials for a life of the famous statesman.

Gen. Sir Frederick Roberts succeeds Prince Edward of Saxe-Weimar as commander of the forces in Ireland.

The friends of Dr. Blanchard will be glad to learn that he has begun practice in this city—though he still retains his office as Superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane.

Dr. Blanchard's experience in the treatment of nervous and mental troubles will, no doubt, be valuable to those who are so affected, now that his skill is available by the public.

Alexander Simpson, a reporter on the Kansas City Times, has received word from London that he had fallen heir to the estate of his aunt in Edinburgh, valued at $200,000.

Baron Ashbourne, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, has called Judge Gowan, of Canada, to the Irish bar in recognition of his services as a jurist.

Mr. Geo. H. Porter, of Halifax, the well-known and popular agent of the Canada Life Insurance Company, is on one of his regular business trips to the Island. He is at the Osborne.

THE BEATRICE.—The steamer Princess Beatrice, Captain Kelly, arrived from Halifax at half-past one yesterday morning, with a cargo of general merchandise and two passengers—James White and Geo. H. Porter.

She sailed on return about half-past one yesterday afternoon with a cargo of potatoes, oats and straw, and several passengers.

The Cronin Trial.

O'SULLIVAN JUSTIFIED THE MURDER, SAYING THAT CRONIN WAS A BRITISH SPY.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The first witness called in the Cronin trial this morning was Edward Spellman, district officer of the United Brotherhood of Peoria, Ill., who was examined on behalf of the prosecution by the State Attorney. He proved a very unwilling witness, and contradicted the evidence he gave before the grand jury in several important particulars.

WHAT THE STATE HOPES FOR. The great hope of the prosecution is that one, if not two, of the accused men will squeal before the case is sent to the jury. Patrick Sullivan, the iceman, is believed to feel very weak in the knees, and apart from Coughlin he knows more regarding the great conspiracy than any of the defendants. The latter is still firm, but opinions differ regarding the iceman.

SYMPATHY FOR THE DEFENCE. A meeting of Irishmen was held here yesterday, at which $376 was collected for the purpose of "seeing that the prisoners now on trial for their lives before Judge McConnell be supplied with means to make proper and legal defence."

CRONIN'S SYMPATHISERS MEET. The friends of Dr. Cronin who are arranging for a public gathering, to add to the prosecution fund, also held a meeting yesterday which proved even more sensational than that of last Sunday.

WAS BURKE THE MURDERER? Chief of Police Hubbard says: Three years ago Martin Burke was boarding with Mrs. Griffin at No. 1318 State Street. While there Lizzie Kettler applied for a room, and Burke was instrumental in securing it for her.

CROP RETURNS.—The government final crop returns for Nova Scotia show the hay crop to have been 118 per cent., 18 more than full crop; potatoes were a little under 74 per cent., oats 82, wheat 94, barley 94, rye 83, buckwheat 94, beans and peas 99, castor oil 99, mangolds 99, swedish turnips 93, yellow Aberdeen turnips 91, and apples 80 per cent.

The Catholic Centennial.

No event in the history of the Roman Catholic Church in America has ever attracted more attention than the centennial celebration to take place in Baltimore on the 10th, 11th and 12th of November. The occasion to be commemorated is the establishment of the hierarchy of the Catholic Church in the United States, which took place in 1789 under a bull of Pope Pius VI., appointing John Carroll, first bishop of Baltimore, his territory comprising the whole union.
