

Don't Neglect Your Watch

If you allow your watch to run too long without cleaning, or with damaged parts it may be worn so badly as to destroy its usefulness as a timepiece; better have it examined by your Watch Doctor and if in need of repairs he will advise you accordingly and perhaps save your watch.

WE BOAST on our repair department turning out first-class work only. WE GUARANTEE ALL OUR WORK; if you have not given us a trial it will pay you to do so and we will be pleased to see you at GREAT GEORGE STREET.

The Fourth of July

will be commemorated by the people of St. Joseph's Parish, Lot 29, by holding a day to raise funds in aid of their new church, and to assist in replacing the personal house burned down last Autumn.

A most willing and vigilant committee will make lavish preparations to hospitably cater to every need and pleasure of those who favor them with their presence and patronage on that day; while the ladies of Kelly's Cross will give the well merited credit of being most capable bakers and love courteous waiters.

Every refreshment obtainable, and everything calculated to satisfy and to entertain, will be provided. Come to Kelly's Cross, therefore, friends on Wednesday the 4th of July, to the first and, most probably, the best Tea of the O. By order of com.

PARALYSIS CURABLE

Stricken ones to be Seen Everywhere—This Form of Living Death Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The most startling example of human helplessness is the paralysis. The victim excites your commiseration, but resists your pity.

He of the palsied hand stiffly pressing the benumbed side is to be seen everywhere we go.

The most convincing proof that this pitiable condition is the outcome of kidney disease is the fact that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure it.

Not generally recognized as a kidney disease, it succumbs to kidney treatment. Did you ever know of a cure? Just think a moment.

If you do it must have been the work of Dodd's Kidney Pills, for no other medicine ever yet cured.

The infant of the household was in its cradle. The head of the house was at home, peevish and fault-finding. At length he became unendurable.

"You've done nothing but made mistakes tonight," he growled.

"Yes," she answered, meekly, "I began by putting the wrong baby to bed."

What is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?

In appearance Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an oval, chocolate coated pill. In the condensed form it contains all of nature's most strengthening and invigorating tonic and restoratives and for this reason it is unapproached as a blood builder and nerve restorative. It cures all diseases caused by thin blood and exhausted nerves and makes pale, weak nervous men, women and children strong and healthy. 50 cents a box.

The copy of an old photograph taken a generation ago, of the north side of Queen Square, which forms the frontispiece of the June P. E. Island Magazine is quite interesting. The signboards, sidewalks, fences, etc., appear decidedly antique to the young folks of to-day. There are a lot of other interesting things in this month's magazine. At all the bookstores. Five cents a copy.

In Five Minutes It's Cooked!

Ralston Breakfast Food

SAVES TIME, TEMPER AND DIGESTION

Most cereals require a double boiler, and at least 30 minutes cooking, while Ralston Breakfast Food is prepared with ease and dispatch in a single boiler in five minutes.

The vigor and strength imparting properties of Ralston come from Glutroean Wheat, the whole berry of which is milled into Ralston Breakfast Food.

There's not another dish so delicious for breakfast that contains as much nutrition as Ralston Breakfast Food.

COL. HUGHES'S SERVICES

The 'Times' correspondent with Gen. Kitchener's column in Griqualand, has this to say of Colonel Hughes's services:

Though nearly a week's hot weather was needed before the tracks were once more fit for heavy transport, Major Orpen was despatched on May 27 with his Light Horse to seize Uplington. This force was preceded by Colonel Hughes is, accompanied by three scouts and two cyclists.

Although Col. Hughes is, among other things, a Member of Parliament and a professor of international law, he is better known in his own country as Sam Hughes, the railway man. The loan of this able officer is not the least among the service which Canada has rendered to the Mother Country, and it is to be hoped in the interests of the Empire that larger opportunities will be found for the qualities he has displayed throughout this expedition. One is often tempted to wonder whether our army might not make freer use of men whose experience has been gained in commercial organization.

The besetting sin of British officers has been that they mistake the forms of business for its substance, whereas a man trained in the great commercial race, with shareholders to face and no taxpayer behind him, quickly learns that red tape spells ruin. But Colonel Hughes is more than a business man, and has seen service before. He has a way of appearing where people least expect him, and this together with a certain gift of cross-examination, renders him invaluable as an intelligence officer.

Moving with his usual rapidity in search of arms and information, he found himself on March 30, a few miles from the point connecting the town of Uplington with the south bank of the river. There he learned that the main body of rebels had quitted the town, leaving the point intact. Whether they had dispersed, or whether they would return and dispute the passage was uncertain. In the latter event the crossing could have been effected only with heavy loss, for the river is completely commanded by the town which stands on the edge of a plateau one hundred feet above it. Acting on this information, Col. Hughes resolved to rush the ferry.

PICTURE OF LORD ROBERTS

How a Fine Picture May be Obtained.

Lord Roberts in his reports to the War Office has on more than one occasion alluded to the brilliant dashes of the Canadian troops. "Bobs" evidently thinks the Canadians are the right kind of men, for he keeps them right at the front with him and they are prominent factors in the successful march to Pretoria. The Canadian Boys seem to be in love with their great commander too, for every letter from the boys shows the confidence they have in him and their determination to fight under him. Lord Roberts' tributes to the Canadian soldiers have made him dear to the hearts of all Canadians, for there are few who have not some friend, relative, or acquaintance, fighting with him. Bobs would get a great welcome if he ever should visit Canada.

Our readers will be glad of the opportunity to secure a really handsome portrait of the great general, and we are glad to be able to present such an opportunity. The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal have had painted by one of the world's best artists a truly handsome picture, acknowledged by military authorities to be the most life-like portrait of Lord Roberts yet produced. It is 17x22 inches, on excellent paper. This picture should be in every Canadian home. In years to come it will be the pride of many a Canadian to say, "My father fought under that man!" Canadian children now growing up will never forget "Bobs," the pride of the nation. This picture is placed within the reach of all. They would sell at one dollar each in any store, but we have made exceptionally favourable terms with the Family Herald by which all our readers can secure it. We offer THE WEEKLY EXAMINER and The Family Herald and Weekly Star for the balance of 1900, including Lord Roberts' picture, for the small sum of eighty cents. To our present subscribers whose subscriptions for the year are paid we offer the Family Herald for the balance of 1900 and Lord Roberts' picture for only 60c. If after receiving the picture subscribers do not think it worth more than the money paid for paper and picture they have the right to demand a refund of the amount. The offer is open for a limited time only.

CARVELL BROS.
Ch'town May 14, 1900.

Extending his handful of men at long intervals, he rapidly pushed through the belt of woods that line the southern bank and seized the pont, which was worked across by some Bastards, who are to a man enthusiastic loyalists. One shot skipped on the water behind the pont, but the few rebels in the town, thinking the crossing had been captured by the advance party of a larger force, hastily retired, and five minutes later the British flag was floating over the residency, Major Orpen and his Light Horse arrived on April 2.

In the meantime Colonel Hughes administered the town with characteristic energy. Suspected houses were searched for arms. One cyclist, Private W. H. Hichens, was sent singlehanded to Kakamas, 70 miles west of Uplington, to arrest the Rev. Mr. Schroder, the rebel member for the district, a task which he successfully carried out. Corn was collected from up and down the irrigated banks of the river, so that General Settle arrived on April 4 to find the political organizer of the rebellion in jail and supplies for men and horses ready to hand. About the same time that Colonel Hughes reached Uplington Sir Charles Parsons entered Kenhardt.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

An old lady called at a store and asked for a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment; the clerk said "they were out, but could supply her with another just as good." The engaging smile that accompanied this information was frozen stiff when she replied:

Young Man, there is only one Liniment, and that is Johnson's.

Originated in 1810 by an old Family Physician. There is not a remedy in use which has the confidence of the public to a greater extent. Could a remedy have existed for nearly a century, except that it possess extraordinary merit?

NOT TOURIST TRADE But TRADE WITH TOURISTS

There is no doubt that the Tourists are coming to the Island this year—more than ever before—and if they are wise they will probably be pleased with their visit. If you are a merchant, if you are a hotel keeper, if you own a livery stable, or have a sofa water fountain you know how valuable their trade is. You want to get as much as possible of it this year. And to get as much as possible you must advertise for it.

We submit that the best medium for advertising to the Tourist Trade is the Prince Edward Island Magazine. Many copies of last year's July and August numbers were bought by them, and at least as many will be bought this year. The July number which is to be out shortly is to be an especially good number. It will have more reading matter than usual, and its circulation will be half as large again as the average number. Have your advertisement in this number. It will pay you.
