Former S'side Woman Honored For Fine Work

Many friends in this Province will be interested to learn that additional honors have been bestowed upon Mrs. Philip Jean of Edmonton, Alberta, the former Irene Duncan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan of Summerside, for her petit point pictures recently exhibited in Montreal under the sponsorship of the National Branch of the Canadian Handicraft Guild. The technical judges recognized Mrs. Jean as one of Canada's outstanding craftsmen, remarking that her pictures were not only exquisite in their coloring but of the highest standard in workmanship.

Mrs. Jean, president of the Edmonton Branch, Canadian Handicrafts Guild, has been doing petit point for approximately fifteen years and has exhibited pieces all across Canada, in the United States and in England. She also conducts classes in her artistry. Mrs. Jean has been given two pages in a book on arts and crafts by Dr. Ivan Crowell, a former president of the Canadian Handicraft Guild. In one of the artist's pieces there are 3,600 stitches to the square inch. Her pictures have gorgeous colors with 500 ranges with from four to eight shades in each range. Although floral designs comprise the greater part of her work, many think her masterpieces are "Lake Louise" and "A Thatched Roof Cottage." Another outstanding piece of artistry was a picture of the late President Roosevelt while visiting in Edmonton.

This talented lady, within the past few years, has been associate chairman of the Edmonton Community Chest and president of the Victorian Order of Nurses. Her latest visit to her native province was in 1947.

Mrs. Jean's display was exhibited by the P.E.I. Arts and Crafts Guild in Charlottetown earlier this month. — S.

Oxford Crew Wins Race In Raging Blizzard

LONDON, March 30—(CP)—An under-rated Oxford crew, with a Canadian rowing No. 3, spotted Cambridge a quarter of a length but won by five feet Saturday in the 98th annual boat race decided in a gale-force blizzard.

Underdogs by as much as 5 to 1 less than a month ago, the Oxford eight overcame the miserable weather, rough water, a bad draw for lane and a poor start which saw Cambridge already ahead when the race started.

The Cambridge stake boat pushed the light blue shell forward and the Cambridge crew started the race fully a quarter of a length in front.

The Oxford boatload, with Christopher Milling of St. John's, Nfld., doing yeoman service, took out after the favorites.

But by the end of the first two miles of the 4 1-4 mile-mile course on the Thames River, Oxford had caught up and the two crews stayed almost even the rest of the way.

They were so close at one point, half a mile from home, the oars touched. Neither boat ever had as much as a full length ahead.

The official time was 20:23, 2 1-2 minutes off the record but exceptionally good under the conditions.

L. A. F. Stokes, Oxford captain, said before the race that Oxford was hoping for rough weather. Nobody thought he meant as rough as the crews found it today. The weather was so foul the boats could hardly be seen from the banks.

St. Mary's Juniors Eliminated From Cup Competition

OTTAWA, March 30 — (CP) — Eastview St. Charles, Ottawa and District champions, eliminated Halifax St. Mary's, Maritime junior champions, here Saturday night with a 4-2 win in the final game of their best-of-five Memorial Cup eastern quarter-final series.

St. Charles won the series 3-1 in games with one tie. They now advance into the eastern semi-finals against Montreal Junior Canadiens. The opening game of this best-of-three series will open here next Wednesday.

Eddie Long, Gerry Moore, Andy Provost and Ken Blondin sniped singles for the winners. Doug McPhee, high-scoring Halifax centre, and Paul Evans, got St. Mary's counters.

Eastview came from behind after Halifax exploded for a pair of goals in the opening period, evened the count in the second and hammered in the winner and insurance goal in the final frame. The fast, hard-hitting affair was the best game of the series.

Snow Postpones Big Football Game

LONDON, March 30—(Reuters) —Snowstorms Saturday caused the postponement of a Football Association cup semi-final—between Arsenal and Chelsea—for the first time in the history of the competition.

The other semi-final, between Blackburn and Newcastle, last year's cup winner, resulted in a scoreless tie at Sheffield, in the Midlands, which escaped the worst of the blizzards.

About 75,000 people who braved the storm to crowd a North London ground to watch the Arsenal-Chelsea battle, began to trek homewards when loudspeakers announced postponement of the match until next Saturday.

As neither Manchester United nor Arsenal played, the positions at the top of division one in the English League, remain unchanged. Each has 47 points.

"BREAKTHROUGH" IS ROUSING WAR DRAMA

—Unfolding upon the screen as a rousing war drama rarely before duplicated for its true depiction of our G.I. heroes, their loves, their battles and ability to laugh in the face of the constant dangers of combat, the heralded Warner Bros. war drama, "Breakthrough," begins its local engagement at the Capitol Theatre today.

"Breakthrough" follows a platoon of infantrymen from the period of early training, preliminaries in invasion tactics and finally through the big invasion itself. It's these stirring experiences of the G.I.'s in war, highlighting their bazooka and tank encounters, which form a vivid part of this great epic.

David Brian, memorable for his roles in "Flamingo Road" and "The Damned Don't Cry", was the overwhelming choice to portray hard-bitten Capt. Hale, a man of deep emotions well-hidden beneath a rugged exterior. Second in command, John Agar, hero of countless action fare, plays the sensitive lieutenant who proves his mettle during the bitter invasion. Frank Lovejoy, rising to immediate stardom after his characterization in "Three Secrets," rounds out the stellar trio as the battle-wise sergeant with an earnest respect for his captain.

Filmed with the cooperation of the Navy and Army on the beaches of Monterey and Fort Ord, California, much of the battle action is also shown via captured enemy films, thus lending the atmosphere of realism to the drama.

Beautiful Suzanne Dalbert supplies the romance in "Breakthrough," which also features Greg McClure, Edward Norris, William Campbell, Richard Monahan and Dick Wesson, the famous nightclub entertainer.

Bryan Foy produced the film for Warner Bros.
