

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 14, 1888.

A Warning to Our Farmers.

The picture President Cleveland draws of the condition and prospects of the farmers of the States ought to evoke the pity of the farmers of Canada.

This picture is either true or untrue. Free Traders in Canada and elsewhere will be inclined to believe that it is true.

Dr. Tumblety was released on bail in London, ran away, and has arrived at New York.

Editorial Notes.

Ye editor must be content to remain in the back-ground while alive and while dead.

Dr. Anderson writes to the Patriot to correct the impression conveyed at the delivery of his lecture on "Sir Walter Scott in Poetry and Song."

And when I claim for him a place as a younger brother of Homer and Shakespeare, I do so, distinctly and expressly in my lecture, on the strength, not of his poetry alone, but of his poetry and prose writings together.

Everyone will, of course, accept the Doctor's explanation; but few will admit that great strength as a writer of prose can add to the merit of a poet, or entitle one whose poetry is below the level of that of Pope or Longfellow, to rank with Homer and Shakespeare.

As another result of the foolish speeches and editorials of the Unrestricted agitators we have the following from the New York Tribune:

Imperial Federation, independence, the maintenance of the existing system and annexation are the four courses open to Canada.

The leading government organ in the Dominion has abandoned federation and will not listen to any arguments in favor of independence.

Whatever we may think of the religious views of Archbishop O'Brien, we are all bound to admit that he is a keen observer and a careful speaker.

I admit that the development and the go-ahead-activeness of the Americans are wonderful. But taking everything into consideration, Canada is way ahead.

Germany is pushing her commercial and colonial projects in all directions.

Young men, think of those words!

Shipments at Summerside.

The Island Farmer publishes the following statement of the principal shipments at Summerside during the closing season.

A Useful Invention.

Trackmaster Debo, of the I. C. R., has invented and placed in the east end of the Moncton yard a three-throw switch, got up on a novel plan.

[Trackmaster Debo is known to many persons in Charlottetown, having resided and worked here for several years during the construction of the Island railway.]

Personal.

Dr. Tumblety was released on bail in London, ran away, and has arrived at New York.

Rev. Hugh O. Pentecost, who recently retired from the ministry, has taken out a working card with Typographical Society No. 103, of Newark, N. J., and will probably return to the case, at which he spent his early life.

On his recent tour to the Midlands, Mr. Gladstone stopped for three minutes at Wellington, and in that time, it is gravely recorded, he received two addresses, made a speech, ate lunch, and was "busily occupied during the remainder of his stay" in hand-shaking.

Alice Hastings, the wife of the actor, Roland Reed, died in New York on Sunday morning. She requested that her pet dog, Chic, be killed and buried with her in the same grave.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was appealed to for permission to kill the pet, and they acceded to the request on the ground that it would have died of a broken heart without its mistress, and to put it out of its pain would be a bit of good and not evil.

Miss Charlotte Stirling, of the Salvation Army, is "doing" 100 days in the Castle of Chillon for the crime of proselytizing a child. She was asked to attend the death-bed of a little girl who had been to one of her meetings.

A Second Wiggins!

"During all that time the thermometer registered all the way from 45 to 10 degrees below zero," &c., &c., (see Patriot last evening).

Sir,--Verily, the Patriot's Reporter must be very sensitive to climatic influences, if he be able to detect changes of temperature, to which even testing instruments are insensible! Try again.

When the first electric telegraph was established the speed of transmission was from four to five words a minute with the five needle instrument; in 1849 the average rate for newspaper messages was seventeen words a minute; the present pace of the electric telegraph between London and Dublin, where the Wheatstone instrument is employed, 463 words; and thus what regarded as miraculous sixty years ago has multiplied a hundred fold in half a century.

Germany is pushing her commercial and colonial projects in all directions.
