Great Miler Herb Elliott Ends Spectacular Career

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

Herb Elliott, one of the great milers of all time, said a few weeks ago in England that "there are more things in life than just chasing around in circles."

What he meant was that he was finished with track after a spectacular career that saw him whip the best in the world in the mile and 1,500 metres. His final fadeout had been inglorious — last in a half-mile race for Cambridge University in June.

It didn't bother Elliott. He had told meet organizers he was out of condition and that he would finish last. "They just laughed, but I still came last, though I ran as well as I could on the day," he said.

Elliott won't even be a spectator at the Nov. 22-Dec. 1 British Empire Games in Perth, Australia. If he could make it, he undoubtedly would have a few words of advice for Bruce Kidd, young Canadian middle distance star who, in many respects, is similar to hustling Herb.

Both are studious young men. Elliott is studying at Cambridge where he is to take examinations for a science degree next June. Kidd, 18-year-old freshman at the University of Toronto and a student in political science, has ambitions to become a Rhodes scholar.

Elliott reached the top before he called it quits.

He won both the mile and half - mile in the 1958 B.E. Games at Cardiff — the only man to accomplish this in the 28-year history of the games. He cracked the world mile record in 3:54.5 the same year and it stood until earlier this year when Peter Snell of New Zealand clipped a tenth of a second off it.

He went to the 1960 Olympics in Rome "because the prospect of running in the Olympic Games stimulated and excited me," he said. He ran the race of his life, established a world and Olympic record of 3:35.6 for the 1,500 metres and outclassed the field in a memorable race.

SEE GREAT FUTURE

That was to be his last great triumph.

Now, great things are predicted for Kidd. North American and British track experts predict he'll be a world beater in the future over distances from three miles to 10,000 metres but the brush-cut youngster has his sights set for the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo.

He isn't looking beyond those games, although it is a generally-accepted principle in track circles that distance men don't reach their peak until they reach their late 20s. Kidd will be just 20 at Tokyo, but he has advanced much faster than the average runner and could be a dangerous threat in Japan.

Whatever he does, it is likely he'll just run for the fun of it after 1964.

Like Elliott, it is conceivable that his new interests—study—will crowd out his need to run faster than any man over a long distance and to "chase around in circles."

TOP COMPETITORS

A Kings County track and field meet, sponsored by the Royal Canadian Legion, was staged at Souris yesterday and top competitors, were (l to r) Ruth Annear of Montague and Ronald Cheverie of Souris. Miss Annear finished up with 15 points and Cheverie garnered 24.

Cubs Defeat Phillies 5-2

CHICAGO (AP)—Ernie Banks hit home runs No. 25 and 26 in successive times at bat today as Chicago Cubs defeated Philadelphia 5-2 in a National League game.

Starter Bob Buhl, with Dave Gerard's hitless relief help in the final 2 1-3 innings, won his seventh game of the season.

Banks' first homer followed George Altman's leadoff double in the second. The Chicago first baseman stroked his second off loser Dennis Bennett with one out and the bases empty in the fourth. The Cubs tagged Jack Hamilton, Bennett's successor, for their final two runs in the eighth.

Griffith, Moyer Clash Aug. 18

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Emile Griffith, world welterweight boxing champion, will meet Denny Moyer of Portland Ore., in a non-title match here Aug. 18, the Tacoma Athletic Commission announced Wednesday.

Griffith and Moyer have met twice, each gaining a decision in 1960. Moyer is ranked fourth in the NBA welterweight list.

Hockey Player Banned For Life From Fastball

RED DEER, Alta. (CP)—Life suspension from fastball for Pat Hannigan of the National Hockey League New York Rangers was voted Wednesday by the Red Deer Men's Fastball Association.

The unanimous vote followed a Monday night game in which umpire Bill Scott suffered a broken nose in a disturbance.

ASKS FOR ASSISTANCE

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—A local committee has appealed to the 15 NATO nations to contribute five tons of steel each for construction of a giant, electrical cross atop nearby Mount Faito. The committee said the cross would serve as a symbol of world peace and the defence of Christian civilization. Similar appeals for building materials were also sent to industries in Italy and abroad.

Finally Gets Tenth

A month is a long time between victories but when Milwaukee hurler, Bob Shaw, finally nails one he does it in fine style. Indeed some are even suggesting that his recent triumph was the greatest of his career.

The tempermental 29-year-old right hander is usually getting himself in and out of trouble. This recent engagement he took no such chances.

His victims were the pennant-conscious San Francisco Giants who are battling the Los Angeles Dodgers and Pittsburgh Pirates for the National League pennant. This great array of sluggers was held to just two hits by the man who came from the Chicago White Sox of the American League. The fellow who spoiled the no-hitter was the leadoff batter, Chuck Hiller. At that, opinion was divided on the legitimacy of Hiller's third inning hit. It was felt that either Shaw or second baseman Bolling should have gobbled up the ball. Shaw, himself, felt that if Hiller had been denied that hit in the third, he wouldn't have obtained one in the ninth. He believed catcher Crandall and himself would have handled the leadoff man in different fashion.

Now taming the Giants with two hits is a mighty chore and it stamps Mr. Shaw as a most formadible moundsman. He was complete master of fellows like Mays, Cepeda, Davenport, McCovey and Alou.

Shaw's last triumph was exactly a month ago. That one was over the Mets by a score of 7-1. After that he ran into a barrage of tough luck. He was beaten by the Giants 4-2 because he failed to cover first base; bowed to the Dodgers after holding them to three hits in six innings; to the Cardinals when he was knocked out by a five-run bombardment in the sixth; to the Cubs 2-1 on a misjudged fly in the tenth and then to the Cards 3-0 after allowing four hits in seven innings.

He Deserved It

AFTER that streek of misfortune Shaw richly deserved the luck to start running his way. He has ten triumphs now and still believes he has a fair chance of reaching the coveted 20 goal. With a bit of luck going his way, he could have 14 to his credit at this moment.

In 1959 when he toiled with the Pale Hose, he had his best season and at that he was forced to number a world series decision over the Los Angeles Dodgers to get his yearly win total of 19.

He surely must be considered a successful transplanted American leaguer.

Nova Scotia Open

ENTERIES for the Nova Scotia Open will close tonight.

The competition is to be played over the Amherst course on Saturday and Sunday July 28 and 29 and will attract the Maritime Provinces' outstanding golfers.

Both amateures and porfessionals will be competing to the two-day event. 18 holes of medal play on opening day and another 18 the following morning. The top 20 competitors will play an additional 18 holes in the afternoon to decide the winner.

If Cec "Bubby" Dowling has completed his job at the Canadian Open by then, he will be taking in the Amherst competition.

Shamrocks And Pistons

THAT Shamrocks-Pistons series in The City Softball League semi-finals, 'B' section, should be worth watching.

The Irish finished ahead of the Pistons in regular league play but that doesn't count for too much right now. The past is history and both Shamrocks and Pistons are thinking only of the future.

The Irish will miss the services of their regular third baseman, Bud Holmes, who is at present away on course. Bub looked after third in fine style for Vern Blanchard's crew and they missed him dearly in the final game with the National Park All-Stars.

Just who will fill the spot we don't know but Holmes's absence is a tough blow to the Irish hopes. If they can manage to survive these semi-finals, Holmes would be back for the league championship round.

By the way, the Irish and Pistons begin their best-of-seven feud this evening.

Barry's Lions Even Series; Art Ballem In Hero's Role

Veteran pitcher Art Ballem played the hero's role at the Old Diamond last evening as Barry's Lions squared their best of seven semi-final series with National All-Stars for the City Softball League at 1 -all, nipping the Park 3-2 in eight innings.

Ballem was the winning pitcher and knocked in the deciding run with a single in the bottom of the eighth.

With the score deadlocked at 2-all going into the bottom of the final stanza, the first sticker, Earl Murphy got to first as the result of an error. Gary Gallant then bunted down the first baseline and Park first sacker Joe Caswell had to run in for it and he elected to make the play at second in an effort to cut off Murphy but he was late on the throw, thus leaving two runners on the basepaths. Pinchhitter Murchison struck out and then came Ballem's important hit to drive in Murphy for the victory.

SCATTERS HITS

Ballem gave up nine hits over the eight inning route but he had them well spread with the Park managing to get more than one hit in only one inning, the fourth. No runs were scored in this frame however. Ballem also walked three and fanned three.

Frank Bradley started for the Park and toiled for six and one-third innings before giving way to fastballer John Hughes, who was charged with the loss. Bradley limited the Parkdale team to only three hits during his tour on the hill and Hughes gave up only one, the clincher.

Errors proved the deciding factor in the Park defeat. They committed five errors and two of the miscues figured in two of the runs.

The Lions scored once in the first, once in the third and one in the eighth.

Both Park runs came in the fifth inning to deadlock the score at 2-all. The leadoff batter, Hubie Morrison, got to first on an error, Red Mitchell drew a walk, the next batter popped and then John Hughes stepped to the plate and belted one into left center field to drive in the two runners. Hughes died on third with the next two batters flying out.

Hughes was top sticker of the game with a single and a triple in three trips. Angie Carroll, Bill Monteith, Earl Murphy and Art Ballem garnered the Parkdale hits, all singles.

Bud Lund officiated behind the plate last evening with Frank Bell and Carl 'Snowball' McCallum assisting him on the bases.

This evening's City Softball League action sees BIS Shamrocks and Canadian Tire Pistons tangle in the first game of their best of seven semi-final series. Game time is 6.30.

Heart Attack Proves Fatal For Summerside Driver

A fatality took place at Summerside Raceway last night when Ensor Bowness, driving Scottish Light in the ninth and final race was seen to sway and fall off the sulky in front of the grandstand in the first half mile. He was rushed to hospital and passed away shortly afterwards.

Mr. Bowness was driving a horse involved in a collision in the previous race. The veteran owner-driver was up behind Rio Grande in the eighth race when James L.S., Star Abbott and Rio Grande collided and did not finish, but no serious injuries to either horses or drivers were apparent at the time. Mr. Bowness is reported to have suffered a heart seizure in the final race.

Philip's Queen was driven to a new record in the second dash of the D-Trot and Pace. Her new mark is 2:12.3. The biggest pay of the night was the daily double in the first and second dashes, featuring Windale Prince and Gary Lee Clegg as the winners.

The winning tickets paid 49.60. The exactor in the eighth race paid $11.90, the quinella in the third race, $7.00, and the daily double double in the sixth and seventh races, $5.80.

Canadian Title Ruled Vacant

QUEBEC (CP) — The Canadian Boxing Federation Wednesday declared the Canadian junior welterweight title vacant.

Gene Letourneau, federation commissioner, said Lennie Sparks of Halifax has been judged unfit to continue as title-holder since he has not defended the title since Oct. 6, 1959, and is judged unable to make the 140-pound limit by the Halifax Boxing Commission.

He said the federation is prepared to sponsor any fight between two of the three main contenders: Fernand Simard of Quebec, Tironne Gardiner of Sydney, N.S. and Les Sprague of Halifax.

Minor Leaguer Hurls No-Hitter

A no-hitter by nine year old Andy MacKenna featured yesterday's Minor League action at Memorial Field. McKenna tossed the masterpiece as the Giants downed Tigers 3-0. The young portsider had a perfect record in strikeouts too, fanning 15 stickers over the five inning route.

Donnie MacLean blasted a two-run homer and a single for the only two hits off loser Philip Claybourne.

In other minor league action the Twins drubbed the Red Sox 10-3. Sput MacDonald was star of this game, pitching a one-hitter and batting .1000 with four hits in four appearances.

Bantam action saw the Cards nip the Angels. Barry LeClair picked up the win while Allan Doucette absorbed the loss. Smelt Gillis and Harvey Cormier each two hits for the losers while LeClair belted a homer.

In Midget action the Cubs downed the Senators 13-6. Joe Gallant hurled the win while Keith Doyle took the loss. Les Affleck banged out three hits while Jack MacEachern and Keith Doyle each had two hits.

Here are the top stickers in the Little League with at least ten appearances at the plate:—

Races Scheduled For Ch'town Track

A sizzling eight-dash harness racing program is in store for Charlottetown Driving Park patrons tonight.

Two single dashes open the attractive program followed by three double trips.

That's a real honey of an event which has Stan Mayhew's Highley's Way on the rail in dash three. Joe Hennessey appears to have found this fellow's number and each time out the trotter looks better. He will need to be in top form tonight when opposed by Elector, Hey You, Wing Victory, Lea Cyclonic, Tommy Shanter and Freddy's Dream.

Dashes five and eight have eight smooth going pacers. In the first mile Claude O'Brien drew the rail with Rankine MacLaine's Just Gary. The seven others all have high ambitions to grab the best summary in these two dashes. They are Jean Clegg, Jolly Abb, Irv Averill, Sky Prince, Homestretch Lady, Edgwood Hal and Here Am I. That's a mighty rugged group.

Given a break by the weatherman, one of the largest crowds of the season should be on hand for this mid-week harness racing attraction.

The mutuel workers are most likely to be kept on the hop tonight and some more double figure payoffs are almost a certainty.

First dash goes at 8 o'clock sharp.

CROWDED LAND

On a dry land area of 13,000 square miles, population of The Netherlands is expected to total 18,000,000 by the year 2000.

SPORT ECHOES

By Norman Macdonald
Summerside Bureau of The Guardian

Interesting Valley Highlights

About the most noteworthy sports event since we wrote this colum last was the marathon staged by Jupiter Pluvius, who covered most of July with a wet blanket that smothered out a lot of sports events. Two highlights from the Annapolis Valley of interest to Summerside fans were the hitting of three home runs in one game by Moe Cannon playing for Hantsport (Moe played for Halifax last year but Hantsport acquired his services this spring) and the warm words of praise by Valley sports writers for "Turk" Muttart's play in the hockey school at Kentville.

We received a letter from Dr. L. King Grady, a former Summerside resident, now practising dentistry in Vancouver. King's sports enthusiasm right now is directed at lacrosse which he says he heard us call "Canada's national game" in a broadcast. He sent some interesting clippings including some pictures regarding this game. Also sent his regards to John "The Realm" McNeill, who spent an enjoyable vacation on the Pacific Coast with King last year.

Flyers On Win Streak

In spite of the rain the RCAF softballers managed to get in enough games while we were away to put together a winning streak that brought them to a tie with MacKenzies who seem to have lost some of their early session vim, vigor, and vitality. Save-Easies have taken up permanent residence in the league cellar but have been making it close for the other two teams lately, and may give them quite a run in the play-offs. The best they can do now is the semi-finals, but they could have a say in who is to perch on the top roost, MacKenzies or RCAF.

Peter Schmidt, Toronto fighter, was fired from his job on a milk route for taking time off to fight Joey Durelle recently. The fight was a gory one and ended in a draw. Television fight fans, if that species is not extinct, will remember seeing Schmidt fighting at Palace Pier in Toronto some years ago. Schmidt never did depend entirely on fighting for a living, but did very well delivering punches to his opponents' anatomies and milk to his customers.

A Rugged Golf Course

Golfers, if you're planning to go around the Cabot Trail in Cape Breton, take time out to play the golf course at Ingonish. You don't have to hit a hole in one to get a major thrill on that course. The scenery will make your game worthwhile. It's a pleasure just to see a white golf ball dropping out of the sky against a green background of mountain covered with spruce. We started at noon with three other fellows and finished the 18 holes at 6.20 p.m. You have to walk a quarter of a mile from the twelfth green to the thirteenth tee, and on a number of occasions the glands of a mountain goat would certainly help. You can't play only nine holes there without a helicopter. The ninth hole is over three miles from the clubhouse, and the only way to get back is over the fairways. It was a bit gruelling, but a wonderful experience.

Whitlock's Stars Whip Rovers 9-1

Buck Whitlock's Stars grabbed sole possession of second place in The City Baseball League standings last evening when they drubbed Johnny Squarebriggs's Rovers 9-1 at Memorial Field

It was strictly no contest after the first inning when Stars struck for four runs. After that they coasted to their victory, the sixth in ten outings.

Donnie MacLean was once again the winning moundsman holding Rovers to five scattered base hits. He struck out three and didn't issue a single base on balls. MacLean had great support from his teamates who played errorless ball behind the veteran righthander.

Len Ellsworth was the losing hurler, yielding eight safeties to the Stars' sluggers. He had horrible support from his mates who made nine miscues behind him. Time and time again routine outs were bobbled and runs kept piling up as a result. Len fanned seven and walked four.

Just about the busiest player on either team was Jamie Kennedy playing second for the Whitlock gang. Jamie had eight assists as he played a stellar game at second.

Emmet Ellsworth and John 'Beaver' Arsenault led the winners at bat with half of the eight hits. Emmet had two singles in four at bats and 'Beaver' had the same for three official trips.

Bobby Rice, cleanup man for the Rovers, led the losers with two singles in four trips.

This evening City Baseball League action resumes with Dodgers entertaining Flyers at 3.15. The Dodgers are leading the league at present and Flyers occupy the cellar. Game time is 6.15.
