Inherited.
"Mabel seems to take a deep interest in yachting, doesn't she?"
"Yes, she is quite carried away with it."
"And she knows all those nautical terms too."
"Well, why shouldn't she? Her father started in life as a deckhand, you know."

An Inadvertence.
"That," said the artist proudly, "is what I consider my masterpiece. And I flatter myself," he added, after a pause, "that I am at least a good judge of pictures."
"Yes," answered the thoughtless girl. "Isn't it funny that good critics are so seldom good performers?"—Washington Star.

You Know the Sort.
"I don't like Spiffins," said Bellefield to Bloomfield. "I don't like that sort of a chap."
"What kind of a chap is Spiffins?"
"The kind that predicts an event after it has occurred."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

The Cheerful Idiot.
"The old time jolly tar is no more," said the sentimental boarder. "The sailor has given way to the fireman."
"Well, he is a sort of coal tar anyway," said the cheerful idiot.—Indianapolis Journal.

The Trouble.
"Some doctors says that incurable patients should be helped to die."
"Well, that would be all right if the doctors drew the line at the incurable ones only."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cause and Effect.
Short—Your friend Graspit evidently knows the value of money.
Long—How much did you try to touch him for?—Chicago Record.

Something New in Comedy.
"Has your new comedy any novel features?"
"Yes; it's a funny comedy."—Detroit Free Press.

Secrets.
Many a family closet does
A skeleton contain;
Many a less lurks beneath
Great prospective gain;
Many a bland smile covers
Hearts black as coal;
Many a gay bit of ribbon
Conceals an ugly mole;
Many a cheerful countenance
Adorns a man forlorn;
Many a patent leather shoe
Hides an aching corn.

Good Grounds For Alarm.
The man who is blown up by a hidden mine of explosives may have seen things that should have aroused his suspicions, but heedlessly put them aside as of no moment. It is the same with the sickness that ends in death. Insidious disorders of the digestion and bilious spells are passed by as of no moment. In themselves these complaints may not be dangerous, but if neglected their cumulative effect is terrible.

Miss Heavytop—I'm afraid I'm giving you a lot of bother, but then it's only my first lesson!
Exhausted Instructor (sotto voce)—I only hope it won't be my last—Punch.

The man who is blown up by a hidden mine of explosives may have seen things that should have aroused his suspicions, but heedlessly put them aside as of no moment. It is the same with the sickness that ends in death. Insidious disorders of the digestion and bilious spells are passed by as of no moment. In themselves these complaints may not be dangerous, but if neglected their cumulative effect is terrible.

The man who neglects the little disorders that are the signs of approaching ill-health is walking over a hidden mine that may cause his death. The explosion will come in the guise of consumption or some other deadly disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all disorders of the stomach and liver. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis, weak lungs, catarrh and diseases of the air passages. It acts directly on the diseased tissues, driving out all impurities and disease-germs. It is the great flesh-builder, blood-maker and nerve-tonic. There is nothing in the medicine store "just as good."

"Have been in poor health for about seven years," writes Mrs. I. Albert Eakins, of No. 128 Main Street, Dallas, Texas. "Every summer I'd have a bilious attack lasting two weeks, besides headaches all my life, general debility and an inactive liver. I suffered with my bladder and kidneys for five years at least. I could not stand on my feet long at a time until I commenced your treatment. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' They have helped me wonderfully. I had a disagreeable drain and irregular periods. I thought I should go insane sometime. I worried about everything; had the blues all the time and did not care to live. Now I am well."
Constipation is a little illness that if neglected builds a big one. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe.

Bacon—I see a Texas man has sent some good live bees to Aguinaldo.
Egbert—Why, isn't the fellow running fast enough already?

Crimmonbeak—And of course they were broken, even then.

Patience—Don't you think Polly is spoiling her husband?
Patrice—Yes; he had a lovely disposition before she married him.—Yonkers Statesman.

His Trifling Disabilities.
"They wouldn't let Bill in the army just kaze one arm wuz shorter than t'other, an he'd lost his left ear an couldn't hear out o' the right one, an he wuz bowlegged on one side an knockkneed on t'other, though the cap'n said his gin'rul health wuz amaz-in good! A Jury of Women

W. Chase, America's greatest physician. This great kidney cure is sold by all dealers at 25 cents a box, and has proved most effectual as a remedy for the many ills to which woman is subject.

"The window glass trust charges for panes," added the cross eyed boarder.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

What She Meant.
"She said she was afraid I was going to kiss her," he said.
"She meant that she was afraid you weren't," replied her dearest friend.—Chicago Post.

The Wedding State.
"He is wedded to his art."
"Perhaps that accounts for her coolness toward him."

Cause For Anger.

"Here, I say, I do feel indignant! What, ho—here's that girl been and called that thing a duck!"
And off he went full peg and called a special meeting of the Royal Quack-ological society to see if something couldn't be done.—Ally Sloper.

Skates made of gold are popular in St. Petersburg. One lady had her skates enriched with diamonds. Skates set with pearls and precious stones have also been in fashion.

IN THE WEE SMA' HOURS.

The Story of a Bell and a Very Angry Householder.

It was a tousled and sleepy looking head that popped hurriedly through the second story window. There was a frown on the face and an angry flush in the half closed eyes.

"Who in thunder's there?" was shouted by this forbidding looking presence, totally unmindful of nature's beauty at 5 in the morning. "Who's there, I say?" it repeated in louder and more threatening tones.

There was no answer.
"What do you mean coming around here this time of night and ringing my bell like this? I never heard of such infernal impudence. Get out in the yard where I can see you and talk to you. Say, I'll be down there in about two minutes if you don't tell me what you want."

"Anything the matter, dear?" yawned the sleepy wife.

"I should say there was. Didn't you hear the bell? Rang for five minutes straight. Whoever it is must be either drunk or crazy. Where's my revolver?"

"Don't you think for a minute of going down there with a revolver. It would be terrible if you'd shoot some one. I'll go."

"Indeed you won't."
"Then we'll both go."

Just as they faced the window a curtain shot up at the next house, a dozen feet away, and the pretty young girl who was to take an early train appeared winding one of those round, nickel, loud ticking clocks.

"Why," she laughed, "did the alarm bell disturb you?"
He crawled into bed saying intense things, and the more his wife shook in the effort to restrain her mirth the more he said.

TORONTO TO THE FRONT

Splendid Showing made by Dodd's Kidney Pills in Queen City.

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—It is interesting to note that this city, the headquarters of Dodd's Kidney Pills in Canada, and the place where they were first discovered, keeps well in the front as regards the number of those cured in the towns and cities of Ontario. As Dodd's Kidney Pills have since made friends all over the civilized world, this fact is of wide and significant interest, showing that Dodd's Kidney Pills retain their hold on public esteem purely on their tried merits.
Alexander Brown, 119 Elizabeth Street, says:—"I have been troubled with Rheumatism for three years, also with pains in my back. I have tried several remedies, but could not get any relief. I have used two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and am now a well man."

When a man does you a favor behind your back he is apt to let you know of it immediately.
