THE WORLD'S DEBT TO CONGREGATIONALISM.

This Church Gave to the World a Beecher —Hear Also What the Rev. S. Nicholls, a Prominent Toronto Congregational Minister, Has to Say on an Important Subject.

Henry Ward Beecher believed man's religious faith was colored largely by the condition of his health. He had said from the pulpit that no man could hold right views on religion when his stomach was out of order. It is quite certain that no preacher can preach with effect if his head is stuffed up with cold, or if he is a sufferer from catarrh. It is not surprising, therefore, that we find the leading clergymen of Canada speaking so highly of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, for cold in the head or catarrh. They know the necessity better than anyone else of being relieved of this trouble. Rev. S. Nicholls, of Olivet Congregational Church, Toronto, is one who has used this medicine, and over his own testimony has borne testimony to its beneficial character.

One short puff of the breath through the Blower supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves in ten minutes, and permanently cures catarrh, hay fever, colds, headache, sore throat, tonsilitis and deafness. Sixty cents. Sample with blower sent for 10c. in stamps or silver. S. G. Detchon, 44 Church Street, Toronto.

For sale by Dr. S. W. Dodd.

LAST APPEAL.—We have been requested to again draw the attention of the readers of this paper to the fact that the Salvation Army throughout the Dominion is now about the close of its self-denial week. Every member is actively engaged in bringing about a decisive victory as far as financial results are concerned. To this end special collections are being taken up in their open air and indoor meetings; collectors are calling from door to door, leaving daintily printed pamphlets and appeals; friends and soldiers are armed with collecting cards; hundreds of neat little sacks have been distributed throughout the country, especially in Ontario. By all these methods the Army expects to raise the sinews of war. The public should understand that the Army has opened two more food and shelter depots for poor men during the last twelve months, and other like institutions will be opened. Donations can be given to the local officers or collectors, or sent to Commandant Booth, Salvation Temple, Toronto. Do not forget our friend Captain Newell, of the city corps, in her undertaking.

XMAS TREE.—A Xmas Tree will be lit up at 4.30 on 12th December in St Paul's Schoolroom. All children are sure to find it interesting.

"Eudora" is the name of the new black dress frbric put upon the market by the Priestley's, whose famous dress goods are a household word all over the world. It is like their much esteemed Henrietta cloth; indeed, it has all their merits, and a few things which they lack. It is made in black only, it is a perfect dust shedder; has extra weight and width; and, fitting easily and draping gracefully it gives a distinction to the wearer which all of Priestley's goods confer. This is their excellence, which sets them apart from all other goods. Wrapped on "The Varnished Board" and Priestley's name stamped on every five yards. 3 6

UNION EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

FRIDAY EVENING.

A very large audience gathered last night to hear the evangelists. Besides the evangelists the Revs. G. M. Campbell, D. Sutherland, W. J. Kirby, E. C. Corey and Mr. Matthew Stevenson were on the platform. The Rev. G. M. Campbell engaged in prayer, after which Mr. Crossley sang "Saviour more than life to me," to Handel's, "Angels ever bright and fair" tune. It was charmingly rendered. Announcements were made for every night up to Thursday next, when they farewell to the city. God's blessing is coming, said Mr. Hunter. One of the leading citizens called on me to-day and decided to live a Christian life. The subject of Mr. Hunter's address was Rom. xii., and many a grand idea was given as he commented along. I beseech you by the mercies of God, and how many they are. Those olive branches adorning your home and the thousand daily supplies of temporal things, not only the necessaries of life, but the luxuries also. A reasonable service. Yes, nothing more reasonable than to become a Christian. God never asks anything unreasonable of us. Present your bodies. Yes, yes, some people take far more care of their animals than their bodies. A living, not a dead, sacrifice. That did well enough for the old dispensation. But God asks for a living, holy, acceptable, sacrifice now. Be not conformen to this world in dress. Some people are always riding this hobby. "They strain at a gnat and swallow a camel." Dress respectably so that your dress will not be specially noticeable. Dress like other people, not "with rings on your fingers and bells on your toes"; not with a thousand dollars worth of jewelry about you, while the poor are starving around you. Not conformed to this world, in pleasures, riches, habits, fashions; but be transformed by conversion into a pure life, happy life, heavenly life. "Members one of another." How we are linked together. I don't believe in being shut up in a monastery away from the world. We need each other. The merchant needs the farmer, and we need each other. How different we are. No two step, speak, walk, act or look alike. God never repeats Himself. What a wonderful God we have got. Here are the gifts of Preaching—the highest calling in the world I would rather be an humble preacher than the Premier of Canada, or the highest officer of the state. 2. Ministering. 3. Teaching. 4. Exhortation. "In honor preferring one another." How hard to do this. Yet let us tell a person we like them, if we do. Some day one of these preachers will die, or if we were to die, you would have some good things to say about us. Tell these ministers you love them now, don't wait till they die. Erect a monument to some while you live. You have not said you love your wife since the first six months after marriage. I have heard of one man in town who does not act kindly towards his wife and family at home—always grumbling and growling. Go home and behave yourself.

An old lady was taken suddenly ill, and it was thought she was dead. Her son, looking upon pallid face, said she was always a good mother. To the astonishment of those who thought she was dead, she opened her eyes and said, "John, why did you not tell me that before?" "Not slothful in business." I like to see a man as full of enthusiasm for God as for his business. "Given to hospitality." Be sure and entertain strangers. You may be enterlaining angels unawares. Entertain the ministers that the children may get acquainted with them. As much as possible live peaceably with all 'men'—you see it is not 'women.' You can live peaceably with a woman; but some men you cannot. I would like them to get to heaven, but I want them to be a million miles away, and only to see them once in a million years.

"Abhor that which is evil." Is the theatre an evil. Here he quoted from Tetullian, St. Augustine, Plato, Theodosian, Macaulay, Allison, Wilberforce, Cromwell, Channing, Cuyler, Spurgeon, and Cook to show it was an evil. From the testimony of actors themselves he quoted from Macready, Booth, Sheridan, Mrs. Scott Siddons. He was opposed because 1. Plays were immoral. 2. Hindrances to many becoming Christians. 3. A bad example to the young.

Mr. Crossley sang "The Handwriting upon the Wall," very affectingly.

He spoke on card playing and took for his text Acts xvi: 30, and dealt with the question 1. What shall we do with cards? Many people make great blunders about games by jumbling all together, chess, checkers; curling, football, cards, all put in the same category. In some games there is required a great deal of skill, whereas in cards is involved the element of chance and cheating. With proper environments games of skill are all right, but with cards no matter what the environment, it is always wrong. "Nations" was condemned as having the same necessary element with cards and was often called Presbyterian or Methodist whist. "Don't ease your conscience by playing nations instead of cards, and whip the devil round a post. Another blunder made is to think you cannot spend an evening without these games of chance. It is a sign of intelligence to be able to entertain by conversation and not resort to games. Another blunder made is that while card-playing is wrong for church members it is all right for others. Others claim there is no harm in cards. The following ten reasons were given to prove card-playing wrong:

1. Gives a wrong idea of life. It makes prosperity depend on luck or chance instead of real worth.
2. It seems so innocent, and thus it betrays so many into a life of gambling. Its seeming innocence is its greatest danger.
3. It has a bad name. Croquet, chess have not this bad name you hide the cards from any respectable person who catches you playing.
4. It is a questionable game. You hardly ever hear people ask if there is any harm in other games, but always asking is there any harm in cards.
5. It destroys a person's influence for good if a Christian.
6. You cannot make it a matter of prayer. Such a thing was never heard for anyone in your presence to ask a blessing before beginning the game. Why not?
7.—Because it leads so many to ruin. Other games do not. As well ask me to go to the churchyard and play a game of skulls as a game of cards.
8. You cannot play cards without gambling. I will risk my reputation as a logician on that statement. Persons will always put up some prize to encourage the game along.
9. Because it has made so many Christians backslide.
10. Because it hinders so many from coming to the Saviour. How many of you would have been saved before now if it had not been for the cards or the theatre?

Ask no longer is there any harm in cards; but the question of the text, "What must I do to be saved?

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY.

You cannot be too often reminded that a neglected cold is the source of more serious and sometimes fatal disease.

If when suffering from a chill you would take a few drops of Dr. Manning's German Remedy in a little hot water the coming cold would be broken up at once and all serious results averted.

So simple a remedy should not be disregarded. Dr. Manning's German Remedy, as thousands testify, is also a marvellous pain reliever. Whether it be cramp in the stomach, the twinges of rheumatism, a bruise or sprain, or the pangs of neuralgia, this remedy affords relief and cure. No family should be without it, and the number of families that regard it as a household necessity is steadily increasing as its merits become more widely known.

There are so many mishaps, of almost daily occurence, when such a remedy would be of the greatest value for instant use, that a bottle of Dr. Manning's German remedy should be always at hand. It is sold by all druggists and dealers at fifty cents per bottle and is manufactured only by the Hawker Medicine Co. (Ltd), St. John, N. B., and New York City.

The New York World has compiled a list of 197 American heiresses who have married foreigners of title or rank during the last twenty-five years. It gives the amount of money which everyone of these heiresses possessed, and foots it up at $161,153,000, to which must be added the millions which Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt brings to the young Duke of Marlborough.

Heart Disease of Five Years' Standing Absolutely Cured by Dr Agnews' Cure for the Heart—The great Life-Saving Remedy Gives Relief in Thirty Minutes

Thomas Petry, Esq., Aylmer, Que.: "I have been troubled for about five years with severe heart complaint. At times the pain was so severe that I was unable to attend to business. The slightest exertion proved very fatiguing, and necessitated taking rest. I tried Dr. Agnew's cure for the heart, and obtained immediate relief. I have now taken four bottles of the remedy and am entirely free from every symptom of heart disease. I hope this statement may induce others troubled as I was to give this most valuable remedy a trial."
