Western Presbytery Holds Y.P.U. Rally
 —The Twelfth Western Presbytery Young People's Rally of the United Church was held in the West Devon United Church on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 21st, beginning at 2.30 p.m.
 The opening worship was taken by the Glenwood Young Peoples Union. Taking part were Yvonne Betts, Norma Gorrill and Marjorie McIsaac. The president, James Burleigh of Ellerslie presided. The minutes were read by Miss Jean Millar of Ellerslie and were adopted as read. The theme of the Rally was "Worship, Study and Action".
 The following committees were appointed: Nomination, Rev. J. M. Sheen, Rev. W. G. Dickson, Mrs. Roy Oulton, Miss Jean Millar and Henry Wallace; resolutions, Rev. R. H. Baxter, Miss Lila Mountain and Mrs. J. A. Grigg; press, Rev. W. G. Dickson.

 The president gave a report of his year's work, and was thanked for his untiring efforts in the realm of young people's work. A welcome to the visiting delegates was extended by Miss Ruby Cornish, president of the West Devon Y. P. U. and was responded to by Rev. R. H. Baxter of Bideford.
 The following gave reports of their local Unions: Bideford, Jas. Burleigh; Bloomfield, Lila Craswell; Brae, Mrs. Roy Oulton; Campbellton, Rev. J. M. Sheen; Cascumpec, Henry Wallace; Montrose-Alma, Wanda Barbour; O'Leary, Olive Jelly; West Devon, Norma Grigg; and Glenwood, Rev. W. G. Dickson. A fine sing-song was led by Rev. J. M. Sheen.

 A very fine explanation of the new features in young people's work was given by Miss Jean Millar by means of a Flip Chart. It was most interesting and instructive. Miss Millar also answered questions asked by the young people.
 Supper was served by members of the West Devon Y. P. U. and Ladies' Aid in the Women's Institute Hall in West Devon.
 The evening session opened with a fine worship service conducted by members of the Cascumpec Young People. Rev. J. M. Sheen presented the slate of the new officers which was adopted as read: Hon. president, Rev. A. R. Wallis, Alberton; past president, Henry Clark; president, James Burleigh, Ellerslie (re-elected); vice-president, Miss Eva J. MacLennan; O'Leary; secretary-treasurer, Miss Jean Millar of Ellerslie (re-elected).

 The following conveners were appointed: Faith and Evangelism, Wanda Barbour, Alma; Stewardship and Training, Henry Wallace, Cascumpec; Citizenship and Community Life, Olive Jelly, O'Leary; Missions and World Outreach, Norma Gorrill, Glenwood; Recreation and Culture, Donald Hardy, Montrose; Boys' Work, Rev. W. G. Dickson, O'Leary; Girls' Work, Mrs. Roy Oulton, Brae; Leadership Training, Rev. A. R. Wallis, Alberton.
 The Resolutions Committee was presented by Rev. R. H. Baxter. A fine address was given by Rev. Mr. Wallis on the theme "Worship, Study and Action". It was a timely challenge for the young people. An impressive candle-lighting installation service for the new officers was conducted by Rev. J. M. Sheen of Ellerslie, after which the Benediction was pronounced by Rev. A. R. Wallis, A.Z.

Northam Notes
 The legion of friends of Mrs. Peter McDonald will regret to learn that she is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.
 The many friends of Mr. Burns McAusland will regret to hear that he is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.
 Congratulations and best wishes are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Paynter upon their recent marriage.
 The regular meeting of the Tyne Valley Presbyterian Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Stewart on Thursday evening, November 15.
 Mr. Oliver MacKay, Mr. Alfred Colwill and Mr. Shelton MacKay, motored to Halifax, N. S., on Saturday, November 17, where they visited friends and relatives.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dan McArthur spent Sunday, November 11 with Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLeod, Victoria West.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Platts and Miss Emily MacLean motored to Charlottetown on Thursday evening, November 15, where they attended the hockey match at the Charlottetown Forum.
 Sincere and heartfelt sympathy is being extended to Mrs. R. C. Hayes and family upon the sudden death of the late Mr. R. C. Hayes.
 A very successful goose supper was held in the King George Hall, Port Hill, on Wednesday evening, November 7, sponsored by the W. A. of St. James Anglican Church. The ladies were commended for the excellent food and service and a very substantial sum was realized.
 Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Maynard, whose marriage took place on Saturday evening, November 10, in the Lot 14 Presbyterian Church. Rev. George Cunningham officiated. The bride was formerly Miss Lucy MacArthur of Birch Hill.
 The funeral of the late Clifford Hayes, Tyne Valley, was held Monday afternoon, November 19. After a short service at the home, the remains were forwarded to Bideford United Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Baxter. Interment was in the church cemetery. The very large crowd and the many floral tributes testified to the high esteem of the late Mr. Hayes.
 A very pretty wedding was performed in the St. James Anglican Church on Wednesday afternoon, November 14, when Miss Christie Maynard became the bride of Mr. Leigh Newcombe, Port Hill. The attendants were Miss Delores Newcombe and Mr. Easton Ramsay. The officiating clergymen was Rev. L. A. Dignan. The happy young couple left immediately on a honeymoon trip to Halifax and other points, and on their return will reside at Port Hill.

Miss Freda Myers presided and opened with a short devotional period, consisting of the singing of "Take Time To Be Holy", the Scripture lesson in Romans 5, and prayer by Miss Betty Gay. After the guests were welcomed, games and contests were greatly enjoyed and lunch was served by the committee in charge. Mr. George Campbell, on behalf of the Bedeque Group, expressed appreciation for the hospitality extended. A sing-song brought the evening to a close.
 —PRESBYTERIAN Y. W. G.—The Young Women's Guild of the Summerside Presbyterian Church held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Emmett Ranahan on Monday evening, Nov. 19. The president, Mrs. Henry Bishop, opened with "The Lord's Prayer" in unison. After routine business a gratifying report of the recent supper was submitted. Plans were made to hold a social evening in December. A nominating committee was appointed to bring in a new slate of officers with Mrs. David Larkin as convener. A program committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Mark Gaudet, Jr. and Miss Anna MacKenzie. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. B. D. Coffin and Mrs. Charles Clark.
