MORE HERRING

LOWESTOFF, England (CP) — Catches by herring drifters off the east coast are reported more than four times as big as in 1953.
Hales, was then installed in office and the retiring Moderator, Rev. J. D. MacKay, was warmly thanked for his services in the chair. The next stated meeting of the Presbytery is to be held on March 1st in The Kirk Hall of S. James' Church, Charlottetown.

Recent Death Of City Man

The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on October 31, 1954, of James Herrell. The late Mr. Herrell was born in Charlottetown, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Herrell, 48 Weymouth street and is survived by a sister, Mrs. A. J. Murphy of this city. Mr. Herrell was a veteran of the First World War after which he was employed by the CNR until his retirement. His passing is mourned by his many friends.
Funeral services took place on Tuesday, November 2, from Saint Dunstan's Basilica. Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Justin McDonald. Service at the grave were conducted by the Canadian Legion and the last post was sounded by bugler Wm. Chaisson. Pallbearers were: Messrs. William Grimes, Peter Trainor, Charlie MacDonald, Robert Downe, Vincent Grimes and Art King.

High School Jr. Red Cross Council

The second monthly meeting of the High School Junior Red Cross Council was held Nov. 3 at Red Cross House with 12 members present. Business was dispensed with because of the visit of a special speaker, Dr. Muriel Uprichard, National Director of Junior Red Cross. Ruth Brun introduced the speaker.
The group then listened with great interest to Dr. Uprichard's account of what other High School Red Cross groups do across Canada. Vincent DeCoste thanked the speaker, and the hope was expressed that the National Director might pay another visit soon to Prince Edward Island.

Card Of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Murphy of this city wish to thank their friends, sisters and nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital for their sympathy and kindness during their recent sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Frank Newsome, Rose Valley, who passed away November 4th, 1950.

To-day brings back sad memories. Of a loved one gone to rest, And those who think of her to-day Are the ones that loved her best.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Homer J. James who passed away November 4th, 1952.

To a Father so good and kind No one on earth like him we find For all of us he done his best, God grant him eternal rest.

Ever Remembered by Clara and Earl.

Valleyfield W.M.S. Hold Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Valleyfield W.M.S. Auxiliary was held at the manse with Mrs. Sadie MacKinnon presiding. Mrs. Alex Martin was devotional leader for the evening and had as her theme "The influence of a Christian leader." The meeting opened with the singing of "All Hail The Power Of Jesus' Name" followed by a prayer by the Rev. A. C. Fraser.

Scripture readings were given by Mrs. MacKinnon and Mrs. Gillis, followed by prayer by Mrs. Bruce Mrs. Martin gave an interesting reading on the experiences of a missionary in India. The devotional part of the meeting closed with the benediction.

Nineteen members answered roll call with a verse from scripture. Correspondence was received by the temperance secretary and the Christian stewardship secretary. Squares for the Afghan were prepared in and thank offering envelopes were distributed. A committee was appointed to arrange for special music for this service. The treasurer gave her report for the previous meeting and received her offering. New leaders and committees were appointed for the next meeting. Miss Jean MacKenzie presented a chapter from the study book and the meeting closed with The Lord's prayer, after which lunch was served by Mrs. Fraser assisted by the committee in charge.

TO BE HANGED

LINCOLN, England (Reuters)—A 28-year-old legless man, John Docherty, was sentenced to be hanged here Wednesday for murdering Miss Vybil How, 24, after she had broken off their engagement. Docherty who was carried into the dock by prison officers stabbed the girl when she gave him back his engagement ring. He then threw himself under a train.
