OBITUARY

(Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.)

MRS. JOHN RAYNER

One of the most loved and respected citizens of Cascumpec, Mrs. John Rayner, passed away to her Eternal Home, in the Community Hospital, O'Leary, on the night of April 27th.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Freda Ashley, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lowden Ashley and was in her 82nd year. Her gentle, kind and cheerful disposition endeared her to all who knew her. She was a faithful member of the United Church and, when her health permitted, was never absent from a church service, a prayer meeting or a meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society. For a number of years she served as Community Friendship Secretary of the local auxiliary.

She suffered a lingering illness which she bore with courage, patience and a strong Christian faith. Her courage and cheerfulness, the result of her faith in God, were outstanding. Last fall when she was hospitalized in Halifax, her nurse there wrote to her minister in Alberton to tell her what an unusual patient Mrs. Rayner was. She said in part, "It is usually the nurse's job to cheer up the patient but in her case the opposite was true, for I was helped and cheered every time I came into her room."

The following quotations from her book of meditations was written there in 1958 in the early stages of her illness and shows how bravely she faced the future with her hand in the hand of God.

I WILL NOT FEAR

The things that lie ahead are not so terrible
As human dread would have us think they are,
For I have suffered pain and
found it bearable
In death's dark valley I have seen a star.
And now I face the future without trembling
Since God has proved to be my strengthening;
And I can say with no trace of dissembling
I will not fear the changes time shall bring.

She leaves to mourn their loss her devoted husband and one son, Winston, also one sister, Mrs. Russell Byonyman (Glady Alberton, Cascumpec; John Rhodes, Cascumpec; John, Charlottetown; Alvin, Fred and Harold, Brooklyn near Alberton; Rev. Elmer E. Ashley, St. Catherines, Ont.

The funeral service, which was largely attended was held in Cascumpec United Church on Wednesday afternoon, May 1st. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. David MacDonald, assisted by Rev. Percy Leard of Toronto who gave a suitable address based on the fourth chapter of I. John.

Mr. Lowell Huestis presided at the organ. The hymns sung were "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me," "Sweet Bye and Bye," and "The Lord's My Shepherd." Mr. Albert Huestis, Summerside, gave a very fine rendition of the solo "Until Then" which was a favourite of the deceased. Interment was in the church cemetery with Rev. Earl Leard officiating.

Pallbearers were Charles Ashley, Milton Ashley, Winfred Bridge, Dereinn Huestis, Gordon Huestis and John Locke. Flower bearers were Harold Arsenault, Robert Arsenault, Lee Dennis, Heber Gamble, Horace Gamble, Charles Gordon, Ted Hudson, Kenneth Leard, Lester Lewis, Ray Murray, Rusell MacNevin, John MacDonald, Herbert Pridham, James Thomas and Henry Wallace.

Following are the names of those who gave floral Tributes:

OBITUARY

Inserted by her family as a tribute to the deceased.

MRS. CATHERINE TRAINOR

On the morning of May 8th, 1963, at the Sacred Heart Home, Mrs. Catherine Trainor passed peacefully away at the age of 80.

Mrs. Trainor was born in Vernon River parish, the daughter of Philip Curley and Margaret Fraught. In 1903 she married Frank Trainor, Donagh who predeceased her in 1953.

By her friendliness and willingness to assist in sickness and trouble she endeared herself to all. Katie as she was familiarly called, gave generously of time and energy to anyone in need. She was active and alert almost to the end, being confined to bed for only six weeks before God called her to her Eternal rest.

The large concourse of neighbours and friends who gathered for Mass and burial bore testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

She leaves to mourn their loss two daughters and two sons, Lena, Mrs. J.J. Beagan, Donagh, Mary, Mrs. William Trainor, Johnston's River, Eugene, Donagh, and Vincent, Donagh with whom she resided; also two brothers, Patrick Curley, Charlottetown and Lou, Lowell, Mass.

Her funeral was held Friday morning from her late residence to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. pastor Fr. Butler who also officiated at the service at the grave. Rev. Vincent Murnaghan was present in the sanctuary.

The pallbearers were Harold Beagan, John Beagan, Earl Trainor, Basil Trainor, Clair Trainor and Ivan Trainor. Interment took place in church cemetery.

May her soul rest in peace.
