Walk out in our Shoes

That's about the best advice we can give you if you need shoes. Why? Because good advice benefits a person, and this will benefit you if you heed it. In no other store in this city will you obtain better values than we are offering. In no other store will you be more carefully and correctly fitted, in no other store will you find longer wearing, more dependable shoes. Our goods will convince you of this fact if you buy and wear them.

BEER & GOFF PROVIDER 23,968.

RECORD 2 281. Provider will make the season of 1897, at Charlottetown opposite A. Horse & Co's. He will leave for Crapaud every second Friday afternoon by boat, beginning May 14th, leaving Crapaud Saturday evening for John Gillispie's, Appin Road, remaining to Charlottetown Monday by Kingston. Provider is a beautiful dark Chestnut, five years old, stands 17 hands high and weighs 150 pounds. He is a strong built horse, fine style and action, in disposition he is perfection. His colts are large and handsome. Last fall at the Provincial Exhibition at Charlottetown, in a field of 27 foals, he was the leading sire. Provider's colts took first, second and third prizes, a showing never equaled by any sire in this country. His sire Procop is one of the best Nutwood's best bred sires, and has proved himself a sire of trotters and handsome carriage horses. Lill, the dam of Provider, 2 281, is also the dam of D. 1, 218, who holds the latest record of any trotter in lower Canada. Lill, the dam of Provider and Dot was sired by Dan S. 1st, one of the greatest sires that ever lived, and a horse that has done more to keep on the name of P. E. Island drivers than any other sire. Terms for the season, $10.00, secured by note due Nov 1st. JOHN GILLISPIE in charge 100-dy 101-w lmo

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

C. C. C.—Meeting in Club Rooms to-night at 8.15.

SUPREME COURT.—The Easter term of the Supreme Court will meet to-morrow.

THE WEATHER.—Fresh easterly winds, fair in eastern portion, unsettled with rain in western portion.

JUBILEE MEDALS.—On Saturday evening Messrs. James Paton & Co. distributed about three hundred jubilee medals. The medals are very nice looking.

CELESTIAL KIN.—A first cousin of Pygus will be on exhibition at the Opera House this evening. His wings are clipped to prevent his flying away. See him.

MAGAZINES FOR MAY.—Massey's, Munsey's, Ladies Home Journal, Delineator, Portman, and all the other leading Magazines at Hazard & Moore's.

THE MAILS.—The mails were today transferred to the Steam Navigation Company's steamers. The usual special train will connect with the Northumberland at Summerside.

TO BE HANGED.—At the third roll of the drum the trap is to be sprung, but the ropes "cut" by a most timely arrival. See it by all means. In the Opera House this evening.

SCHOONERS IN PORT.—The schooners Brilliant and Hyacinthe have arrived in port. They will be loaded with produce for the Newfoundland market by Carvell Bros.

WORDS OF PRAISE.—The guard of honor at the closing of the Provincial Legislature on Saturday presented a splendid military appearance, and drew forth many words of praise from the onlookers. The band music also attracted attention.

POLICE COURT.—Before acting Stipendiary Magistrate Smallwood this forenoon, Thomas Meek's Scott Act case was further adjourned for one week. An insane woman named Margaret Hawkins was remanded in custody pending her removal to the Hospital for the Insane.

TENANT LEAGUE.—Tomorrow (Tuesday) evening the last opportunity to hear an account of the Tenant League for the season, will be given in the Market Hall. An inquiry for the missing funds will be made, the story of the posse's trip, alarm at Fort Fletcher, capturing the straw man and collapse of the whole enterprise.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—The Agriculturist reports that Mr. David Kirk, of the Mechanic's Manufacturing Company, Summerside, met with quite a serious accident on Thursday. He and others were at work tightening the stays of the saw stack, when the fall of the tackle gave way, and Mr. Kirk fell against a beam, breaking two of his ribs.

FIRST SAILING.—The schooners Jennie Armstrong, Grady, with a cargo of hay, oats and potatoes, and Merry May, McKay, with hay and turnips, sailed on Thursday morning for Miramichi ports. The schr. Restive, Grady, is ready for sea, with a cargo of hay and potatoes for North Sydney and will sail as soon as the ice permits.—Summerside Agriculturist.

THE CAMPANA.—The splendid steamship Campana made her first trip to this port on Saturday, arriving about six o'clock. She left on return to Montreal via Summerside about eleven o'clock yesterday forenoon. The many friends of Captain Baquet will hear with regret that he is not in command this season, he having been granted twelve months' leave of absence on account of ill health. His place as commander is taken by Captain Demers, who comes highly recommended.
