SPORTS FRONT

Those Sky Divers

THERE'S A NEW sport on the march in Prince Edward Island. It's skydiving, and promoted this summer by the Island Centennial Committee.

The Committee has hired two New Brunswick lads to put on a series of sky diving exhibitions in different communities across the province. When not involved with their exhibitions, the N.B. boys, Dick Freeman, 33, Fredericton, and Dave Kierstead, 23, Lancaster, have been making as an extra dollar by teaching the sport to Islanders.

The last time we were talking with the boys the Charlottetown Sky Diving Club had 13 members and two of the 12, Frank Eustace and LeRoy Arsenault, had made their initial jumps from 3,000 ft. More enrollments were anticipated and other Islanders are preparing for their first 'leap'.

The Charlottetown Club is run in co-operation with the Island Flying Service, Eric Campbell, manager. The latest move by the two UNB students has been to organize a Summerside Club. Last weekend practice jumps were made by Freeman and Kierstead at Mount Pleasant in connection with the Summerside Club.

Their first official performance of the summer will be Friday at the Charlottetown Driving Park. They will make six jumps in the afternoon as part of the Parkdale-Sherwood Centennial program.

Here's the typical performance routine: Two jumps from 3,500 ft., with a delay of 12 seconds before opening the parachutes at a height of 2,200 ft. Two jumps from 5,500 ft., with a 20 second delay which will include forward rolls and turns by the divers, and a parachute opening at the usual 2,200 ft. The final two jumps are usually from a height of 7,500 ft., which allows for a parachute opening delay of 30 seconds. This time they will have smoke bombs on their heels and pass batons until they reach the chute opening level of 2,200 ft.

How It All Began

FREEMAN WAS the first of the two to become interested in skydiving. He was in Kingston, Ont., in the summer of 1960 and joined a club. Back at the University of New Brunswick in 1961 Freeman, Kierstead, and others from the university organized a club in Fredericton. The club now has about 30 members.

The following summer, recognized as capable instructors, Freeman and Kierstead organized clubs in Oromocto, Saint John and Gagetown. After a time the Oromocto and Gagetown Clubs combined.

This year's Charlottetown Club was their fifth, and if the one in Summerside is successful, that will be six in three years. We expect Kierstead and Freeman will be remembered as the pioneers of skydiving in the Maritime provinces.

France Led The Way

WE WEREN'T SURPRISED when the boys told us a Frenchman was the first person to take up skydiving. No offence meant, but after all, everyone knows what those Frenchmen are like.

After the Frenchman made his first leap, about 15 years ago, the sport slowly spread to other areas of continental Europe, England and North America.

It has reached such importance that every two years world championships are held. Freeman and Kierstead were spectators at the last world championships, held in Orange, Mass., in 1962. Canada placed fifth and set a world's mark in accuracy leaping.

Later this month another world championships will be staged in West Germany. The boys say this time the big rivalry will be among the Soviet Union, U.S.A. and Czechoslovakia. One of Canada's representatives by the way, will be Marianne Kirkland of Bathurst, N.B.

Safety in skydiving, said the boys, is the same as in any other sport.—If you follow the rules it's a lot of fun, but if you break the rules, disaster is possible.

If you're interested in the sport, drop the boys a note at Box 304, Charlottetown, or telephone them at 894-7045.

A FINE CATCH

Ten year old Blair Crosby of 49 Upper Hillsboro Street proudly displays the four and a half pound rainbow trout his uncle, Neil MacDonald of 11 Kings Square caught in the Johnston's River area yesterday. Blair goes fishing with his uncle very often and is justly proud about such a fine catch.

Softball's Iron Man

Pete Devana seems to be the iron man of the Prince County Softball League. After pitching against R.C.A.F. Eagles on Sunday, a game which he lost 4-2 but was not out-pitched, he toed the slab again on Monday against the then league leaders, the Coastal Movers, and won 8-3. Devana kept getting stronger as the game progressed. His opponent, George Kinch, back after a 5-game suspension, was very sharp in the first three innings but seemed to lose some of his zip in the later frames. The 5-game lay-off may have taken the edge off his form.

Reg. Magee, Enman Drug baseman, led his team with the willow, cracking out a home run and single. Magee, a newcomer to Prince County softball, is proving to be a valuable addition to the red clad softballers. A few games ago Magee was at bat, and a pitch which looked a bit low was called a strike by the umpire. Magee said nothing, but rolled up his pants so that his knees showed and continued batting. A not too subtle hint that the umpire had made an error. We expected the official to say: "Taint funny, Magee" and throw him out of the ball game, but nothing happened.

Problem Looks Solved

We were glad to hear that the billeting problem for the Eastern Canadian track meet to be held in Summerside July 24-25 was showing definite promise of being solved. 210 athletes out of 300 have been assured room and board, and no doubt the full complement will be looked after. When the ladies, led by Nancy Knowles, got on the phones the count went from 90 to 210 in a very short time. You've all heard the old saw about the three fastest ways of spreading the news, telephone, telegraph, and tell-a-woman. Reversing the last, when a woman tells you, you'd better try to do something about it, brother, or think up a good excuse in a hurry!

To Tell The Truth

Why call this team recently organized in Summerside "Old Timers"? Very few of them are. Out of 22 players listed, we'd say 6 of them are real old timers. The rest are, or should be, in the prime of their playing days. First thing you know fans will be calling them "two-timers" for misleading the public about their ages.

S'side Old Timers Top Mt. Stewart

SUMMERSIDE — The Warren Texaco Old Timers pushed across a single run in the seventh inning to edge the visiting Mount Stewart Huskies 5-4 in an exhibition baseball game here yesterday. Paul Schurman doubled sharply to right and eventually came home on an infield ground out for the game winning run.

The Huskies, from the strong Kings County league jumped on starter Dee LeFurgey for a 3-1 lead after the first inning. The Old Timers picked at the lead until they tied the score three all in the fifth frame on back to back doubles by Grant Grady and Paul Schurman.

In the sixth inning the Old Timers picked up another run off losing pitcher Art Coffin to go ahead as Don Schurman doubled home Pete Green who singled.

Frank Cody promptly tied the score again with a sharply hit pinch hit home run in the seventh inning, before Paul Schurman's winning tally.

Dee Lefrugey hurled four innings for the Old Timers and fanned two and walked three batters before he gave way to Don Schurman. Schurman over the remainder of the game struck out four and walked one. Art Coffin went the distance for Mount Stewart giving up six hits and allowing three walks.

Grant Gray and Paul Schurman led the Old Timers nine hit attack with a single and a double apiece. In addition to Cody's homer, Derby Affleck belied a double and a single for Mount Stewart. Shortstop Hank Landry and catcher Paul Schurman, who caught the whole game played outstanding ball.

JIM POULTON

Local Fighter Obtains Draw

Charlottetown lightweight, Jimmy Poulton 142 battled to a draw with Sailor Fowler, Stadacona, 147 in a battle staged in the Halifax Forum on Tuesday night. Poulton turned in a good account of himself as he slugged it out with his heavier opponent. It was a fast movin', bout and was close all the way, as both fighters threw everything they had, before a crowd of 2,700 people.

Buddy Daye captured the Canadian junior lightweight title by virtue of a split decision over Jack Carter in a 12 round bruising battle.

Veteran Isaac Logart gave Len Sparks a boxing lesson and gained a unanimous decision in the ten round main event. Sparks did land some good punches and generally gave a good account of himself. Logart,fighting out of New York weighed 156 and a half. Sparks came in at 154. There was no serious damage and the only sign of damage was blood that trickled from Sparks' nose as early as the third round.
