

Charlottetown Juveniles Dominate Summerside

Canadian Team Leads World Cup

VANCOUVER (CP) — Canada's Ron Northcott scored his fifth straight victory Wednesday and prepared to clash with Dr. Joe Zbancnik of the United States in the international curling championship.

The Americans prepared for a showdown with Canada—the champions every year but last, with a 15-3 workout against Nils Weidemann of Norway. Northcott downed Switzerland's Paul Kundert 11-8.

Canada (5-0) and the U.S. (4-1) were to meet in the high-light match of the seventh round.

In the other sixth round games Wednesday, Scotland's Chuck Hay belted wireless Jean Sulpic of France 16-8. Sweden's Lars Dracke had a bye.

After the seventh round the top four nations enter a knockout playoff today. Canada and the U.S. already are assured of berths in the semi-finals. The Swedes, the Scots and the Swiss battled for the other two positions.

Earlier Wednesday, Northcott's Calgary rink won 11-5 over Norway in the fifth round, France lost 15-6 to Sweden, the U.S. beat Switzerland 13-5.

Bud Ormsvold of Superior, Wis., ended a streak of six straight championships by Canada in 1965 when he won the tournament by defeating Terry Braunstein of Winnipeg.

Norway met Switzerland and Sweden met Scotland in other seventh round action. France had the bye.

The top four rinks will decide the championship today in a straight knockout playoff.

The Canadians — Northcott, George Fink, Bernie Sparkes, and Fred Storey — are the only curlers to have already clinched a playoff berth. They can do no worse than tie for second if they lose their two remaining games.

Weidemann gave the Canadians their stiffest test despite the 11-5 score. Northcott previously rolled over France 23-1; Sweden 16-4 and Scotland 16-9.

Northcott scored a three on the eighth end to extend his lead to 6-1 against the Norwegians and then added a four in the 11th end to make the score 11-2. Weidemann came back with a three of his own in the final end to make it 11-5. It was the first three of the tournament to be scored against Canada.

HOWE GETS WINNER Red Wings Drop Rangers; Macpo Spiel Begins In Summerside

NEW YORK (CP) — Gordie Howe's 29th goal of the season, early in the final period, gave Detroit Red Wings a 2-1 victory over New York Rangers Wednesday night and moved the Wings to within a point of third place in the National Hockey League standings.

The winning goal came on a wrist shot by rookie defenceman Bert Marshall, which deflected off Howe's leg into the New York goal behind Cesare Maniago at 7:27 of the final period.

Dean Prentice also drew an assist on the goal, which gave Detroit its fourth victory in five games. The Wings now have 70 points, one less than idle Toronto Maple Leafs. The Leafs, however, have three games in hand on the Red Wings.

Maniago held the Rangers close as he made 38 saves in the game. Hank Bassen, who substituted for vacationing Roger Crozier in the Detroit goal, was called upon to make only 25.

TOOK INITIAL LEAD The Rangers jumped ahead late in the opening period when defenceman Jim Neilson rifled home a 15-foot shot for his fourth goal of the season. Don Marshall of the Rangers had just missed on a close-in try when the rebound slithered out to Neilson, who made no mistake on the rebound.

Detroit defenceman Bob Wall, playing in his eighth NHL game this season, tied the score midway through the second period. He beat Maniago on a screened shot after taking a double-relay from Howe and Alex Delvecchio.

The Rangers had held a manpower advantage for six minutes early in the second period, but the New York powerplay sputtered and never really got rolling.

It was New York's fourth consecutive defeat.

SDHS Pucksters Show Good Form

By CHRIS ANNETT

It would be indeed interesting to have been timing the line of Billy Weatherbie, Alan Flood and Gary Cudmore at the Charlottetown Forum the other evening, as Saint Dunstan's High School took their first game in the local Junior playoffs. This trio accounted for every one of the SDHS tallies and took almost a double shift every time out, playing well over half the game for the Saints.

Gary Cudmore played by far his best game of the year and Weatherbie, despite the fact that he did not put the puck in the net was the backbone of the SDHS attack. On three separate occasions he made the play that led to goals and did a terrific job in getting the puck out of the SDHS zone.

As far as this observer is concerned desire was the big factor in the game. The Saints needed to win and wanted to win more than the Weishmen and when the going got a bit pressure-packed in the third period they hung right in there and came up with the crucial goals. The lead changed hands throughout the game like a hot potato with the PWC club taking the early lead only to see it evaporate in the third period.

Unlike the second game the checking was more of the poke check form and there were not really too many hard knocks seen throughout the contest. This undoubtedly aided the Saints in the game, for it appeared in the second match as if the knocks they had taken at the first of the tilt slowed them down considerably near the end. The first period of the contest was not at all like a regular SDHS-PWC contest in that it was so void of shots on net and precision passing plays. Close checking paid dividends for the Saints as on at least two occasions they got goals after stealing the puck and then settling on the passing play that characterized their efforts.

FROM YOUNG TO OLD

From the youngsters we go to the oldtimers and they are to give their show at the Charlottetown Forum this evening following a figure skating performance. It is reported that a lot of the old timers are taking the game more than seriously and Norm 'Hawk' Larter, who coaches all year is one classic example. With over 100 stitches in his mouth (as a result of a head on collision with a truck Tuesday evening) the Hawk plans to don the old blades and do his best against the invaders from Summerside.

Old Timer's games are always a panic to be at for it generally turns out that while the spirit is willing the flesh is weak. Plays that come easily to a boy now require a bit more exertion and muscles begin to get a bit weary near the end of the game. Plays for the shifting of lines at approximately 35 second intervals have been rumored and as the refereeing will not be the strictest there should be some laughs. The old flashes of form will show through at times though and the rivalry between the two centers will be far from forgotten.

Plan to be on hand and take in the ice show for it is for the best cause in the world, aiding crippled children. Perhaps some day a boy, now crippled, will be able to don skates after having been rehabilitated with funds that came through sales of tickets to this ice show.

goals and in ruger six 'trys' However it was hockey that the men were playing and Sandy's Royals managed to put the puck past Gerald Smith 18 times as they romped and frolicked to an 18-1 triumph over the Summerside Pope Motor Aces and take a 3-2 lead in the series for the P.E.I. Intermediate 'A' series.

Dick Carroll led the attack with five goals while Peardon and Lawlor had a hat trick apiece and Apps-Arsenault a brace. Singletons went to Mike MacKinnon, Alan Gillis, Alf Flanagan, Vince Mulligan and Bud MacIntyre. Willie Gallant tallied for Summerside.

FAST FIRST Both teams missed breakaway opportunities in the first 50 seconds of play as the game opened up with little delay. However at the 2:30 mark Alf Flanagan slid a perfect pass across the goal crease and Mike MacKinnon was right on the spot to bang the puck in the corner. The Royals were enjoying a man advantage. At the six minute mark the Royals were playing two men short but they soon turned a blocked pass by Vince Mulligan into a breakaway and goal by Stan Peardon to take the lead 2-0.

Don Frizell was the big attraction for the next few minutes as he literally robbed the Aces of two or three goals with incredible saves. However, the Royals, still taking advantage of every opportunity thrown the mark to 4-0 at the 16 minute mark as Dick Carroll deflected in a low shot and seconds later, Stan Peardon cruising in the goalmouth deflected another shot between Smith's legs.

No sooner had the cheers for this effort died down than did Peardon and Lawlor combine on another pretty passing play and between Carroll and Gillis kept more than a bit of pep in the fans that remained.

Summerside scored their first of the game as the third period began but the Royals kept pumping the goals in at an alarming rate. Willie Gallant apparently aroused their anger and in quick succession Apps-Arsenault, Dick Carroll, Dick Carroll again and Apps-Arsenault banged in tallies, all within eight minutes. Then with less than a minute left to play the Royals exploded for two more goals and the final score of the complete rout was 18-1 for the Royals.

SECOND SAME The second period followed the same pattern as the Aces were unable to pierce Frizell's armor and the Royals banged home five more goals. However two tussles livened the action for the packed house. Dave Lawlor dug the puck out from a maze of players and spun around to backhand it past Smith, Peardon hit on another backhand before leaving the game with an injury. Gillis deflected a Flanagan pass Lawlor flipped in a looper from just in front of the net and slapped in a pass to round out the scoring. A bout between Flanagan and Driscoll and then one later between Carroll and Gillis kept the fans that remained.

The Royals out shot the Aces 58-24.

Old Timers Ready Hawk Larter Playing

Everyone is ready, everyone from figure skating star Sally Radford to bread chewing Buck Whitlock will be anxiously awaiting the curtain to go up in the big Rotary Club Easter Seal Ice Show which begins tonight at the Charlottetown Forum at 7:30.

The Old Timers game wouldn't be complete without the colorful "Milton Miner" Norm "Hawk" Larter who will dress despite having been sewed up for over a 100 stitches inside his mouth as the result of a car accident Tuesday evening. In talking to "Hawk" yesterday, he said "another night's sleep under my belt, and I'll be all right". The loquacious "Hawk" went on to say, "Our guys are in good shape, Murray (Carmichael) and Bill (Lewell) are skating like teen-agers, and I think we'll take those fellows". In closing "Hawk" said, "I feel wonderful now, see you at the game".
