CHAMPIONS RECEIVED AWARD

Royals Down Evinrudes By Same Score As Opener

The Evinrudes came to life after that and fought the Parkdale club on even terms, outscoring them two goals to one. They fired their first tally in the initial period which ended 3-1 for Royals.
Ev White shot the Cape's first goal on a pass from G. Cutcliffe.
Cape Traverse scored the only goal of the second period, which was stopped for about fifteen minutes after Frankie Roper, the Royal goaler, sustained a shoulder injury in a wild scramble in front of his cage. He retired to the dressing room with Drs. Gallant and Cameron in attendance, but he was able to return and finish the game.
The Evinrudes tried hard to tie the score in the final period. The puck did cross the Royal goal line on one occasion, and the goal judge turned on the light, but he admitted to the referees that the puck went over after the whistle had blown.
Buck Whitlock, repeating his performance of the night before, snatched the insurance goal with about six minutes left in the game.
It took the Royals only 34 seconds to open the scoring. Kip Ready poking Flannagan's rebound over the goal-line at 7:40. Whitlock fed Flannagan a forward pass and Alfie scored with the Royals playing a man short. Gerald Noonan got the third from a scramble in front of the net.
The Royals were two men short with Reeves and Josey cooling their heels when the Evinrudes got their second counter. Gord Cutcliffe gave Ev White a short pass from the right of the net to just outside the crease. There was no further scoring until Whitlock came up with his game-clinching marker.
Referees Don Whelan and Ron Babineau handed out 19 penalties in a hard bumping game. Two of them were majors to Junior MacLeod and Hook Walsh for fighting. The Royals collected ten and the Evinrudes nine.
