Beautiful new styling

Pontiac for 1966 is a beautiful car. Very beautiful. Sleek and graceful, the Parisienne, Laurentian and Strato-Chief all share handsome new styling, giving them a wide, low look up front and a new sweeping elegance to every line. And the magnificent new Grande Parisienne, with crisp accents high-lighting its own distinctive styling, is truly worthy of its top-of-the-line position in this great Pontiac line-up.

Luxurious new interiors

All 1966 Pontiacs feature color-keyed interiors designed with your utmost comfort in mind, with beautiful, hard-wearing fabrics and elegant trim in a variety of patterns and designs. Available in the Grande Parisienne Sport Coupe are all-new Strato bucket or Strato bench seats designed to provide extra support for you right from the knees to the shoulders, providing new standards of comfort in a luxurious, beautifully designed interior you'll never take for granted.

Exhilarating new performance

There's big performance news waiting for you under Pontiac's hood! Standard in the Grande Parisiennes and all Pontiac V8s is the 195 horsepower engine. Standard in all other Pontiacs is an all-new 155 horsepower six. If you're a high performance buff, V8s with ratings of 275, 325, 390 and 425 horsepower are available. An all-new fully-synchronized 3-speed standard transmission makes Pontiac driving an even greater pleasure this year. A fully-synchronized 4-speed, Powerglide and Hydra-Matic transmissions are also available.

New comfort and quietness

An extravagance of sound proofing, coupled with Pontiac's traditionally high standard of comfort, means every minute you spend in your new Pontiac will be thoroughly enjoyable.
