Grain

WINNIPEG, Feb. 28 - (CP) - Oats showed a firm undertone on the coarse grain futures market at the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today and a few shipping orders found offerings light.

Commercial demand for barley was limited and barley and rye prices were irregular. There was some local selling in rye but support was thin. Trading generally was dull.

Approximately 500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat were allocated for export to four countries. Japan took 355,000 bushels, Israel 100,000, the United Kingdom 75,000, and a small amount was sold to an unnamed South American country.

The price of class two wheat dropped a cent to $22.1. Closing quotations (basis lakehead):
