EIGHT DIE IN SPRINGHILL

Seven Victims Of Fire To Share Single Coffin

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (CP) Seven members of one family killed when fire destroyed their home at nearby Springhill Junction Saturday are to be buried in a single coffin here this afternoon. An eighth victim, a neighbor, was also to be buried this morning.

RCMP and firemen Saturday completed the grim task of removing the charred remains of the eight persons—six of them children—from the ruins of a single-story house. An RCMP spokesman said they were buried beyond recognition.

Dr. H. A. Myers of Amherst, who examined the bodies, explained the identities of the children and adults. The victims were Layton Chisholm, 36, his four children, Heather, 11; Margaret, 10; Crystal, 8; Thomas, 3; Robert, 2; and Richard, six months. Barney Francis, 45, of Springhill Junction, a friend of Mr. Chisholm, was the eighth victim.
