By THE CANADIAN PRESS
The surging Hamilton Tiger-Cats closed out their regular Eastern Football Conference season Sunday with a 21-14 rout of the Montreal Alouettes.

The contest between the Eastern Conference champion Cats and third-place Montreal had no effect on standings. The Cats have a 10-3 record while the Alouettes had six wins and eight losses.

In Saturday's action the Ottawa Rough Riders rebounded from three straight losses to swamp the Toronto Argonauts 36-0.

The 16,146 Montreal fans saw quarterback Bernie Faloney throw touchdown passes to Tommy Grant and Willie Bercia as Hamilton assumed the lead and never trailed. Don Sutherland kicked two conversions, Maxward field goal, and the Tic defence added two-point safety touch.

GAVE THEM CONFIDENCE
The outcome, however, did serve to provide the rejuvenated Riders with some much-needed confidence among the players and reported dissatisfaction among Ottawa brass and Coach Frank Clark.

The Riders never looked more ferocious and their enthusiasm, coupled with Argo's frustration, brought tempo to a breaking point early in the third quarter.

Stewart, on one of Ottawa's razor-sharp passes, was obviously caught for a big loss but the little Ottawa halfback managed to get a partially blocked pass away.

Although the play had been ruled an incomplete pass, players from both sides continued to jostle each other in an attempt to recover it along the Ottawa sidelines.

Then, when several punts were thrown, the Ottawa bench cleared. When Harry Ross was ejected, Jim Lee and Ron Brewer of the Argos and Ottawa's Billy Joe Booth from the game for their part in the melee.

Lions Beat Winnipeg; Nail Down First Place

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
British Columbia Lions nailed down first place in the last game of the Western Football Conference Sunday, with a 26-8 victory over Winnipeg B.C. Bombers before 29,614 fans.

It was their second consecutive title in a row and means 14 days of rest and a bye into the conference finals while Calgary Stampeders and Saskatchewan Roughriders fight for the other berth.

Bombers' missed dead last. The game was their 13th loss in a row.

Lions finished the schedule with 25 points on 11 victories, three ties and two losses. It was just one point better than the Stampeders, whose victory over Lions last Wednesday — their 13th in 15 games — won them temporary possession of first place.

B.C. decided to play the first game of the finals at either Calgary or Regina Nov. 14, returning to Vancouver for the second and, if necessary, third games of the best-of-three series.

Lions put Sunday's game away in two minutes of the second quarter when quarterback Joe Kapp threw a pass of 39 yards to Willie Fleming, setting up a touchdown for the Lions run by Bob Swift, and another pass to end Mack Burton that won 43 yards for a second touchdown.

Windsor Players Given Suspension

MIDDLETON, N.S. (CP)—The secretary of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association said Sunday night nine players of Windsor Maple Leafs in the Maritime Senior Hockey League have been suspended indefinitely for "leaving the club without releases."

The Leafs, winners of the Nova Scotia Senior League last season, asked for the suspensions Oct. 28 after the players left the team to join two Quebec senior clubs.

M.A.H.A. secretary Hanson Dowell said here he had received applications from the nine players for transfers to the Quebec branch of the C.A.B.A., but permission could not be granted until Windsor agreed to their release.

All the players were with the Maple Leafs last year, when the team swept through the N.S.H.L. playoffs and advanced to the eastern semi-finals of the Allan Cup. The league has since changed its name.

Although they out-bid Cape Breton 8-7, the Bulldogs again faltered defensively, committing six errors.

Combines Fred Dutcher was the only player on the winning team to collect more than one hit. He had two singles.

Bulldogs' Stu Young had a triple and single and brother John Young had a double and single.

Prave Racing Fans Treated To Fine Show

About 150 hardy harness racing fans braved the rain on Saturday afternoon at the Charlotteville Driving Park and were rewarded with a pretty fair program.

A few novices even got into the action Saturday, making it a thoroughly nice evening.

However, the pacers and trotters didn't seem to mix well as they gave the bare customer a mighty lousy show.

On the eighth dash Shadydale Merit grabbed fast verdicts on the eighth dash.

The Sheik and Mary Leah did indeed in races three and seven, and Kim Sue and Helen's Dream took turns at leading the parade in the fourth and eighth events.

Top pay of the afternoon was $38.10, the quinnella combination of The Sheik and Mary Leah.

The first double, Gay Druein and Shadydale Merit, paid $16.30, the trifecta in Gay Druein, Vernon River Gal, $5.00, and the second double, Shadydale Merit and Mary Leah, $6.10.

Win pay was returned on a ticket on the Sheik in third event, $12.90.
