

What is Expected of the New Ministry.

To rearrange Easter.
To revolutionize the spelling of the English language.
To regulate and control the passion for athleticism, and to settle a uniform code of laws for athletic sports.
To grapple with the multiform miseries, vexations and difficulties which now beset the relations between master and mistress and domestic servants.
To satisfy all the parties concerned in the great question of store vs. shops.
To put down intoxication.
To lighten the labors of rural post-men by authorizing the treasury to supply them with bicycles out of the public funds.
To reduce the national debt (after a while) to an inconsiderable amount.
To abolish the income tax.
To bring down the price of butchers' meat, fish, poultry and other articles of daily consumption.
To encourage the manufacture of Irish poplin.
To reduce the estimates several millions yearly.
To subsidize the coffee taverns.
To perfect electric lighting.
To throw open Lincoln's Inn Fields.
To stay the erection of a certain statue in Westminster Abbey.
To prevent trichinosis in pork.
To appoint a commission of inquiry into artists' pigments.
To free St. Paul's, and open the national gallery all the year round.
To make deceased wives' sisters happy.

Besides such simple affairs as extension of the county franchise, redistribution of seats, government of London, local taxation, foreign affairs, finance, ballot laws, bankruptcy laws, burial laws, game laws, liquor laws and the pacification and contentment of Ireland.—London Punch.

King George of Greece is said to have won golden opinions during his stay at Paris, by his simplicity, affability and readiness of access. He went about a great deal and took pleasure in surprising his old friends early in the morning. He is also said to be the first monarch who has allowed himself to be interviewed by newspaper correspondents. The correspondent of the New York Herald claims to have had the honor of first initiating His Majesty into the advantages of the custard.

Thirty-six years ago a Connecticut deacon violently objected because it was proposed that a violin should be used in his church. Twenty-three years ago he said that no one but the devil could have suggested a melodeon. Nine years ago he said that he would never go to that church again if the contralto and tenor singers were paid $100 apiece by the year. Last week he was in New York inquiring for a boy who could pump an organ while his daughter, fresh from school, played a hymn to the tune "When Johnny comes marching home."—New York Herald.

GILES & Co.—Gents: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment, with the very best results. I have found it as an application in Inflammation of the Lungs (Pneumonia), or Pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly. In case of irregularity of the heart's actions, depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. After being made acquainted with the combination of your Liniment and seeing its action in so large number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend to both the public and the profession. Yours truly, Robert S. Newton, M. D., 137 West 47th Street. Giles' Pills cure Dyspepsia.

Remedy for Hard Times.
Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple pure remedies. Hop Bitters that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.
