We have been shocked to hear of the sudden death by an apoplectic stroke, of F. P. Norton, Esqr., of Georgetown. Mr. Norton was known and highly esteemed in this City, in Georgetown and King's County generally, and his untimely death will be very much regretted by his large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Our readers will observe that Messrs. Beer & Sons have on hand a choice lot of New Turnip Seed, which is warranted to grow; also some very superior Red Clover and a small quantity of the new and popular Alsike Clover Seed. Parties wishing good seed would do well to give them a call.

☞ There was an attempt on Saturday night last to set fire to Stables on Pownal Street, in rear of the buildings of the late James Harris. There is no doubt but that it was the work of an incendiary. Fortunately the fire was discovered in time to prevent any mischief.

Mr. George Millner of this City has invented a Grain Sowing Machine, which, on trial, has proved more nearly successful than first trials of new inventions generally do. What small defects were apparent can be easily remedied. The inventor feels quite confident that he can make his machine superior to anything of the kind now in use. We hope that our talented fellow townsman will succeed beyond his most sanguine expectations, and that he will make money, as well as gain fame, by his ingenious invention.

OBITUARY.

Died, at Port Hill, deeply and sincerely regretted, on Wednesday morning, the 27th ult., after an illness of sixteen days, endured with unfeigned submission to the will of her Heavenly Father, DAMARIS, the beloved wife of the Hon. James Yeo, M. L. C., in the 71st year of her age. The deceased was followed to her last resting-place within the precincts of the E[illegible] Churchyard, on Friday, the 29th, by a very large number of relatives, connections, friends, and neighbors, who "sorrow not for her as others which have no hope," for they are assured by the testimony of her life that she "Sleeps in Jesus," in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life. "Ever forward in every good word and prepared unto every good work," she was an "epistle of Christ known and read of all men." Particularly noted for her gentleness and meekness, she was "clothed with humility," while "from her tongue was the law of kindness." Obeying with alacrity the apostolic injunction, "look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others." The falling tear of the widow and orphan abundantly claim that the asseveration of the afflicted Patriarch was fully applicable to her. "When the ear heard me it blessed me; and when the eye saw me it gave witness to me; because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless and him that had none to help him; the blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy."—Com. to Pat.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

"THE NORTH STAR."

THE SUBSCRIBER, under most favorable circumstances, purposes, on the 1st of JULY, to establish in P. E. Island, a FIRST-CLASS WEEKLY JOURNAL, entitled 'THE NORTH STAR,' which, while maintaining a thoroughly independent position in Politics, will specially advocate Commercial relations between the British North American Colonies and the United States. The Journal will contain the latest possible intelligence appropriately condensed; and the Editors will endeavor to furnish their readers with literary selections, poetry, &c., from the best sources. It will contain reports of markets, fishing intelligence, arrivals and clearances, and such general information as will be of interest to the Merchant, the Fisherman, and the Agriculturalist.

As the circulation of the "NORTH STAR" will, on this account, be necessarily large, the journal itself must afford one of the best mediums for Advertisers. A Graduate of QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY, IRELAND, a Verbatim Short-hand Writer, has been engaged, with other numerous Contributors; so the public may rest assured that neither expense nor ability will be wanting to make the "NORTH STAR" one of the brightest luminaries of the journalistic constellation, and a guide to the haven of political truths.
