Ottawa Girl Wins At Norwegian Ski Festival

OPPDAL, Norway, (CP)—Fifteen-year-old Anne Heggveit of Ottawa was a sensational winner of the ladies' giant slalom race at the Holmenkollen ski festival here Sunday.

Anne whizzed down the 1,300-metre, 46-grade course in two minutes, 7.5 seconds to win over 36 top girl skiers of seven countries.

She was three seconds ahead of Norway's top woman skier, Norg-hild Niskin, whose time was 2:10.5. Lucille Wheeler, 18, of St. Jovite, Que., finished 12th in 2:14.

Anne, a high school student who has won several senior and junior competitions in the Ottawa district and who was Canadian junior champion last year, showed the daring of a champion as she sped down the course.

She competed against skiers from Austria, Norway, the United States, Iceland, Sweden and Britain.

The youngest skier ever to win a Holmenkollen ski race in the festival's 51-year history, Anne said she was overjoyed.

"The course was fine but it wasn't too easy," she remarked. "But I liked it and my skis were very well waxed."

Anne's remarkable victory here will set her up as one of the favorites for the Alpine world championships at Are, Sweden later this month. And if she continues to develop, as is likely since she's only 15, she may give Canadians something to cheer about in the 1956 winter Olympics at Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy.

Anne is the daughter of Harold Heggveit, Norwegian-Canadian who was a Canadian entry in the 1932 Olympic Games at Lake Placid, N.Y. He is her coach.

Her uncle, Bud Clark, now president of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association, was a member of Canada's team at the 1936 Games in Germany.

Legion Auxiliary Branch Formed At Souris

A branch of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion was organized Friday evening. Mrs. John Jarvis was chairman until the new president took over.

Members of the executive of the Montague branch were present and helped in the organization work.

Officers elected were: president, Mrs. Foch MacDonald; vice-president, Mrs. William Pierce; secretary, Mrs. George Webster; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph A. Cheverle.

A membership committee was named, including Mrs. Nell McIntosh and Mrs. Frank Praught.

The new Auxiliary branch is expected to assist the Legion members in the big project being undertaken—the building of a hall. Land has been purchased in the centre of town, next to the Post Office, and it is hoped construction can be undertaken during the coming summer.

Officers from Montague at the meeting included: Mrs. Archie Hildey, president; Mrs. Charles Aitken, secretary; Mrs. Thomas Clair, treasurer; Mrs. Byron Stewart, Mrs. Atwood MacDonald and Miss Florrie Beaton, members of the membership committee.

Bloom's Suspension Cut To Six Games; Needham Recalled

GLACE BAY, N. S., (CP)—President C. Roy MacLean of the Maritime Major Hockey League has announced that Halifax defenceman Carroll Bloom's suspension has been reduced to six games.

That leaves Bloom with only four games to serve. He had been suspended 11 games and fined $100 for his part of a stick-swinging duel with Glace Bay defenceman Bill Needham in Glace Bay last week.

His fine must be paid by Feb. 28, instead of March 7. Mr. MacLean said Bloom had a good penalty record and was "not the instigator of the affair."

Needham was suspended four games and fined $50. He was recalled by Valleyfield of the Quebec Hockey League Saturday, after sitting out only one game. His fine and suspension still stands in the MMHL.
