"columns" which were two pages long? Not only was this column two pages long but it also carried the author's photograph. Not even "Jock Talk", which is by far the most widely read column in your paper, has ever run over a page long or had a real photo of Mickey.

I also feel that you have one lousy sense of timing. The issue of the SUN in question was supposedly for the Election candidates. On Wednesday you informed all candidates that they could write a short article (maximum 150 words) on why they were running in the elections and/or why they thought they should be elected. These candidates were limited to 150 words and then you allowed Emmanuel (who was running for Senate) to have TWO pages. Now, Mr. Green, do you consider this fair to the rest of the candidates?

To the Editor:

I was amazed that the President of this University, Dr. Baker, was able to find time out of his busy schedule to send a letter to the editor warning the university community against the 'theft' or 'borrowing' of shopping carts. Furthermore, he is even willing to make additional time available to give evidence against members of the University that we have been warned, should it become necessary.

It is this type of leadership that has made the University what it is today, and we should thank the President that he is able to put aside all the more pressing problems of 'running' the University to let us know his stake in this most serious controversy that engulfs us all.

Sincerely,
A Concerned Reader.

Mr. Editor,

Concern was raised in your editorial regarding the number of acclamations which were the result of a controversial ruling by the electoral office. To this I can only state that the whole question surrounding the five o' clock ruling only became an issue after an unfortunate situation occurred. Clearly stated on the nomination form was the point that if the Nominee himself could not make the meeting, then the possibility was available for him/her to send a representative. When this did not occur, the submitted nomination was to be disqualified. It was a specific ruling and it was clearly laid down - I have no argument on this account.

However, allow me to add a few points of interest as one representative who received Acclamation. I believe I am safe in saying that everyone was disappointed by what happened. We all looked forward to running in the election.

Yet, we are in by acclamation and the situation now takes on a new light for all concerned.

As far as my own position on the matter, I see my responsibility as very clear. After an examination of the Constitution with a member of the Senate late last week, my decision was made.

With all due respect to all Council members - whether "in" by acclamation or election - and to the electoral officer; I feel it my responsibility to resign my position as Arts Representative for the Student Council 78-79, in the interest of contesting this position in the up-coming by-election.

To those who nominated me for the General Election I thank you for your confidence and ask you for your support in the by-election.

Thank you

Dear Editor,

I feel it would serve no useful purpose to further explain my actions that resulted in your editorial of Feb. 16. Everyone is entitled to an opinion just as there are two sides to a sheet of fly paper. Let us remember that it makes a big difference to the fly which side he chooses.

campus comment

by Marsha Gaudet

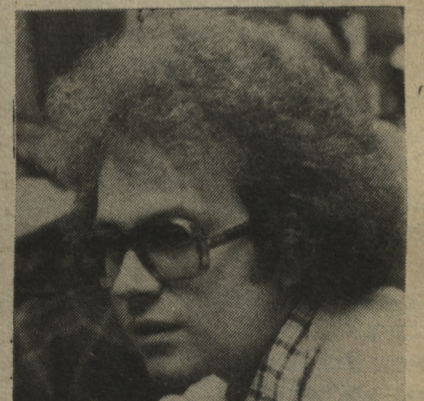

How much exposure has the Executive of the UPEI Student Union had? We thought it would be interesting to see if the students of this campus know who the members of the Executive are. Can you tell the Sun the members of the Student Union Executive?

MARION MACQUARRIE, SENIOR
"No, I'm sorry. They just don't stand out in my mind right now. I'm thinking about March break and that's all!"

CAROL O'HANLEY, FRESHMAN
"No, I'm sorry I can't."

BRIAN MCKENNA, SENIOR

"I'm sorry, I don't know them. Possibly it's because they haven't had enough exposure (in the SUN.)"
