Liz, Burton Involved In U.K. Soccer Storm

By JOHN FARROW

LONDON (AP)—Controversial screen stars Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton became involved in a soccer storm here—all because they have been invited to the Football Association Cup final May 29.

Sidney Needham, chairman of Leicester City, started it.

He sent the two stars complimentary tickets to the final between Leicester City and Manchester United at London's Wembley Stadium.

The game is the showpiece of the English season and traditionally is a 100,000 sellout months before being played. Thousands of fans who have followed the finalists throughout the season cannot get tickets.

FAN DISGUSTED

One angry letter, signed "a very disgusted supporter," arrived at the Leicester club headquarters.

It read: "I feel I must protest most strongly against the board's decision to offer complimentary tickets to Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor.

"I wonder if we are not reaching the stage where the VIP seats will be filled by glamorous stars and the football match becomes incidental."

A letter signed Mrs. A. Worth in Tuesday's London Daily Mirror read: "My blood boiled when I read that Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton have been invited by Leicester City to the Cup final.

"My husband and I have supported Leicester for years—but we have no chance of getting to Wembley. We'll have to make do with television."

An official of the Leicester club said: "Every year the chairman of each Cup final team invites a few personal friends. The invitations to Miss Taylor and Mr. Burton do not affect the allocation of tickets to the supporters."

QUIZ

You are South, neither side vulnerable. The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1♠	2♦	Pass	?

What would you now bid with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠Q74 ♥K6 ♦K82 ♣AQJ75
2. ♠85 ♥AJ97 ♦Q63 ♣AJ52
3. ♠— ♥KJ63 ♦A854 ♣KQ932
4. ♠J842 ♥KQ753 ♦J ♣J76
5. ♠9 ♥KQJ8742 ♦753 ♣A6

1. Three notrump. To bid less would show a lack of respect for partner's overcall. Granted that the spade stopper is not a sturdy one, standing by itself, there should still be no fears on that score. With West opening the bidding and North strong enough to overcall in the two level, it is next to impossible for East to have a high card in his hand. Our hand has 15 points and West and North between them probably have the remaining 25. The queen of spades is therefore sure to be a stopper.

Nine tricks should not be difficult to take at notrump. It would be improper to bid two notrump or three clubs, since either bid might be passed out.

2. Three diamonds. The best chance for game is in notrump, and the diamond raise is given in the hope that North has spade strength and will undertake three notrump. It would be wrong to bid two hearts or three clubs. Neither bid would be strength-showing, and, in most cases, would tend to deny diamond support. Furthermore, these bids would nearly always be based on suits five or six cards in length.

3. Two spades. A slam in diamonds is by no means impossible, despite West's opening bid, and the best way to investigate the possibility is by means of a cuebid. For practical purposes, partner needs only a good diamond suit and either the ace of hearts or ace of clubs to make twelve tricks.

The intention is to jump to five diamonds if North bids two notrump or three diamonds, his most likely rebids. Such a jump, in conjunction with the cuebid, would guarantee a spade void and would amount to a plea for North to bid a slam with a proper hand.

4. Pass. There is no need to rescue partner because of the singleton diamond. North is likely to have a six- card suit and will probably make two diamonds. A heart bid would be a shot in the dark.

5. Four hearts. You can't very well bid less with this layout. While you can't positively guarantee four hearts, the odds strongly favor making it. Also, it's best to tell North right away the kind of hand you have — great length in hearts and a probable game — so that he will know what to do if there is any further bidding.

New York Doctors Oppose Smoking

NEW YORK (AP)—The Medical Society of New York state took an official stand against cigarette smoking, linking it to lung cancer, heart trouble and other diseases. The society urged smokers to give up cigarettes and called on physicians to tell patients about the danger of heavy cigarette smoking.

Missing Man Found Safe

SHEET HARBOR, N.S. (CP) — Bruce McKenna, 50, of Dartmouth was found suffering from minor exposure on an island in Tangier Lake about 15 miles northwest of here Wednesday afternoon.

McKenna, believed earlier to have drowned, told RCMP his 12-foot boat had overturned in stick with it until it drifted to the island.

Another boat managed to get to the lake's shore during the squall.

but that he had been able to a high wind Tuesday afternoon

TAKE BOMB LESSONS

MONTREAL (CP) — Classes on handling live bombs start this week for policemen faced with the threat of more terrorist activity by an extreme element seeking Quebec independence through violence. The study course could take 40 weeks. Policemen would be taught how to recognize booby-trap bombs and the mechanics of dismantling one.

POLISH TYPE BEST

LACOMBE, Alta. (CP) — Agronomist L. J. Anderson of the federal experimental farm here says a six-year study shows Polish rapeseed seems preferable to the later maturing Argentine variety for growth in central Alberta. The seed produces oil for making margarine, salad oil and other products.

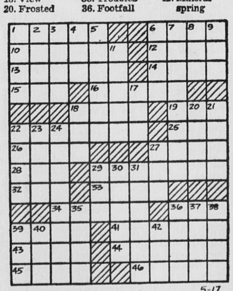
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
