TRIO PLAYS FOR QUEEN
A pleasant and humorous untanned feature of the formal Cante Dinner for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth last week was the dinner music heard throughout the evening. It was supplied by Al Blanchard at the piano and Kathleen McGuigan and Al McKearney on first and second violins. Later the trio was honored when presented to the Queen.

CCGS WOLFE DOCKS
The department of transport disembarking supply ship, Wolfe, docked up at the DOT wharf in Charlottetown over the Thanksgiving weekend, after a three-week voyage to the Arctic. The CCGS Wolfe was reported to have left Halifax July 15 for her Arctic voyage. She arrived in Charlottetown Sunday evening. She is a sister ship to the CCGS Montcalm.

FALSE ALARM
The Charlottetown fire department reported one call, a false alarm, over the Thanksgiving weekend. A spokesman said firemen were called to Eaton's of Canada on Kent Street, late Monday afternoon, when someone reported smoke coming from a chimney. The truck, a pumper and an aerial ladder truck, answered a call. It was unofficially reported that boilers were being blown in the Eaton's heating plant.
