

CHURCHES TOMORROW

PRESBYTERIAN

THE KIRK OF S. JAMES
Minister:
The Reverend T. H. E. Somers,
M.A., S.T.M.
Miss E. Lillian MacKenzie
Mrs. E. M.C.M.
Organist and Director of the Choir.

11 a.m. (Standard Time) — Divine Service and Sermon: "On Being a Christian in a World Like This!" Solo: "The Voice in the Wilderness—Print's Scott; Miss Barbara Rogers.
Visitors Cordially Welcome.
The Kirk is open daily for Prayer and Meditation.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner Prince and Fitzroy Streets
Dr. Arthur C. Vincent, Supply Pastor.
Organist and Choir Director—Raymond F. Muggford, A.B.C.O.

11 a.m. (City time) Worship Service:
"What Are You Going To Do With Life?"
Solo: "The Lord's My Shepherd." (Pearl Curran) — Mrs. N. D.
MacLean.
Activity Class for the young children, 8 p.m. (City time); Evening worship.
Sermon: "A History of Yourself —Who Writes It, Who Reads It."
Everyone Welcome.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

23 Kent Street
Rev. J. Dunbar, B.Th., Minister Miss Thelma Burns, Organist and Choir Director.

10 a.m. Bible School and Family Hour.
11 a.m. Morning Worship and Communion.
Speaker: Merrill Nicholson, minister, Church of Christ, Augusta, Georgia, formerly of Fredericton, N.E.I.
Solo: "Come Ye Blessed"—Scott, Mrs. John Carr.
8 p.m. Evening Worship. Speaker: Bartley Condon — Sermon topic:
"The Master of the Storms."

S. PAUL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH

The Parish Church
Established 1769 by Royal Foundation.

The Reverend Canon J. T. Ibbott, Rector.
Organist and Choir Master: Paul Cudmore, A. Mus. (McGill)

1:30 a.m. Holy Communion 11:00 a.m. Morning Prayer and Sermon (Broadcast CFXY), Special Organist R. Elliott Rock, Wichita, Kansas.

ZION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Cor. Prince and Grafton Sts.
The Reverend W. Harold Brown,
M.A., Minister
Mr. Frank Johnson, A.T.C.I., Organist and Choir Director

Teacher at Morning and Evening Services: The Rev'd. E. C.
Evans.
Morning Subject: Is It Springtime in the Realm of the Spirit?
The Hope of the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches.
Anthem: "A Prayer"—Handel.
Evening Subject: "Life Unlimited."
Music: Selected.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

S. PETER'S CATHEDRAL
Anglican
Rochford Square
The Reverend Canon G.E. Moffatt
M.A., B.D.
Rector

The Reverend W. G. Hogg Honorary Assistant Priest.
Organist and Choir Director
Miss Suzanne Branton, Lic. Music.

7:30 a.m. Matins.
8 a.m. Holy Eucharist.
11 a.m. Choral Eucharist.
7 p.m. Evening Song.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Minister:
Reverend A. Frank MacLean, B.A.
Assistant Minister:
Rev'd. G. Howard Christie,
B.A., B.D.

Organist and Choir Director
George A. Thompson, F.R.O.C.
(CHM), A.R.C.O.M.

Concluding Services of Dr. Dudley's Summer Ministry.
11 a.m. — Divine Worship, conducted by Rev'd W. E. Dudley, D.
D., LL.D.
Sermon: "Pilate's Question —
'What is Truth?'" — Dr. Dudley.
8:10: Selected — Mr. William Rogers.

8 p.m. — Divine Worship.
Sermon: "You can't Keep A Good Man Down." — Dr. Dudley.
Solo: Selected — Miss Mary Morrison.

Guest Organist today is Mrs.
Keith S. Rogers.
You are invited to worship God in Trinity Church.

The Salvation Army

Great George Street
"HOME OF EVANGELISM"
Since 1865
Sr. Major and W. Stanley Corps Officers.

9:30 a.m.—Directory Meeting.
10 a.m.—Sunday School 11 a.m. (Daylight Saving Time)
Holiness Meeting
6 p.m.—Salvation Meeting—
Young People
7 p.m. (Daylight Saving Time) —Open air meeting, Maritime Electric
7:30 p.m. (Daylight Saving Time) —Evangelistic Services.

United PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

37 Elm Avenue
Rev. Quincy Stairs, Pastor.
Phone 8678

10 a.m. Sunday School 11 a.m. Worship and Praise 8 p.m. Evangelistic Meeting You are invited to worship with us.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my father, George Gorvett who departed this life Aug. 19th, 1953.

We watched him slowly fade away,
We tried so hard to make him stay,
But God was watching from above,
And took him home to share his love.
Lovingly remembered by Dessie, Harry and family.

NOTICE

FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island in connection with the Free Church of Scotland will meet on Wednesday 25th inst., at 8 p.m. D.S.T. in the Church in Birchwood St., Charlottetown, for the induction of the Rev. J. H. Bishop, B.A., to the Central Charge (Charlottetown and Stanchell).
Rev. Prof. D. Mackenzie, M.A., Free Church of Scotland Deputy, will preach and preside. Prof. Mackenzie will give the charge to the Minister, and Rev.
W. MacLeod, J.P., M.A., Free Church Deputy, and Principal Clerk of the General Assembly, will give the charges to the congregation.

W. MacLeod, P.O.

PENTECOSTAL CHURCH SERVICES

At the Orange Hall, Hunter River, Sunday 7:30 P.M.
Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 8:00 P.M.

CHESTER ROBERTSON,
Minister.

The British and Foreign Bible Society

Strives to keep before everyone the inestimable value of the word of God and to place a copy of this in the hands of all. The business man stresses the vast resources of the country, the politician guards the liberty of the individual, the educationalist emphasizes the value of learning, the medical man protects the health of the community. Quietly and consistently the Bible Society reminds men that in a final analysis it is righteousness that exalteth a nation and it is Truth that makes men free.
Help the great cause of the Bible Society by a contribution, life membership or request through the Prince Edward Island Auxiliary with its Bible House at 100 Fitzroy Street, Charlottetown.

Prescriptions Post Paid

CITY & DISTRICT

COOK'S for Perfect Pictures.
ROY'S TAXI Dial 6560-6568.

"TOUR DOLLAR BUYS MORE—at the HUGHES DRUG STORE"

SPECIAL—First quality 54 gauge hose 9c. Sunter's Ladies' Wear.

BALANCE OF SUMMER STOCK clearing at bargain prices. Holmes and Bradley.

DAVENPORT SET — Rich Wine and Green Velour. Priced right.
Toombs Music Store.

NEW WILLIS PIANO — Canada's Best. Special cash price.
Toombs Music Store.

ISLAND GRILL, Queen Street Dial 3228. Serving full course dinners. Specializing Chinese dish.

ENROLL RED CROSS Bath House, Wednesday, at 9 o'clock.
Guides and Scouts qualifying will receive rescuer's badge.

ATTENTION! Children six to twelve years! Trinity United Church Vacation School will be held the week of August 23rd, opening at 9 a. m.

SCHOOL BOOKS. We carry a complete line of text books, scribblers, school bags, zipper binders, etc. Kemp's Stationery, 172½ Kent St.

NEW GLASGOW CHRISTIAN CHURCH — Services Sunday, August 22nd. New Glasgow Sunday School 10:00 a. m. Worship Service 11:00 a. m. Cavendish Baptist Church 7:30 p. m. Bryer R. Jones, Student-Minister.

MILTON—RUSTICO PARISH — Rector, Rev. A. E. Piercey. Services for Sunday, August 22nd, are:
St. John's, Milton 10:00 a. m. Sunday School 11:00 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon. Guest Preacher, Rev. E. O. Lancaster, Woodstock, Ont. Christ Church, Cherry Valley, Ont. 2:30 p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon. St. Marks, Rustico. 7:30 p. m.
Evening Prayer and Sermon. Guest Preacher, Rev. E. O. Lancaster, Woodstock, Ont. "Come and bring the whole family."

COUPLE ENTERTAINED — Cpl. and Mrs. Louis Longaphle of R.
C.A.F. Station Summerside, who are being transferred to Winnipeg, Man., were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Lawlor when their friends presented them with a gift set of lu-gare. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Proude also entertained at their home in honour of Cpl. and Mrs. Louis Longaphle.

FIRST VISIT IN 18 YEARS — Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stevens of West Medford, Mass., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Lyman Newton, Kingston. It is 18 years since they visited the Island. Mrs. Stevens is a sister of Mrs. Newton. They see quite an improvement in many things since their last visit. They also celebrate their 34th wedding anniversary while here. They intend back to Massachusetts the latter part of the week.

HONORED PRIOR TO WED-DING — Mrs. Archie Thomson of North Tryon, was hostess at her home on August 5, honoring Miss Vida Mackay of Albany at a miscellaneous shower. The reception room was decorated daintily with an arch of pink and white streamers, bells and mixed flowers.
Miss Sheila Moffat of Newcastle-on-Tyne, Eng., read the accompanying verses. The guest of honor received many beautiful gifts.
Miss Mackay was also honored last Thursday afternoon by her aunt, Mrs. J. George MacKay who held a tea for her in Albany.

PASS SWIMMING TESTS —
Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety Tests were conducted at Cross Roads on August 19, for the first time. The course was sponsored by the Women's Institutes with Mrs. Malcolm Reeves as Chairman. Miss Joan Murphy was the Instructor. Mr. Kent Ellis examined the class and presented those who were successful with Red Cross awards. The following candidates were successful: Beginners: David Reeves, Roger Balderson, Lowell Jenkins, Doreen Balderson, Marjorie Balderson, Mrs. Reta Balderson, Jean Mac-Kinnon. Intermediates: Beatrice Reeves. Seniors: Gail Regele.

ISLANDER NOW NOC AT MONCTON — Superintendent D.
O. Forrest of Fredericton, N. B., has announced the transfer of Corporal W. R. Bryanton of the

Thoughts For Our Time

By His Eminence Cardinal McGuigan (Copyright)

TRUE SCRIPTURAL CHARITY

Coming down from St. Jerome, Christian tradition tells a story about the last years of St. John the Evangelist. The Beloved Disciple, as is commonly known, lived to a venerable old age. At this time, enjoying the wisdom derived from long experience and especially from enlightenment from on high, the aged Apostle was able to discern the essential thing in the living of the Christian life.

Accordingly, St. John, we are told, used to preach to the people over and over again the same simple sermon: "My little children," he would say, "love one another."

After a period of time, the people, a little weary of the repetition, finally approached the old man to ask the reason for such emphasis on the same message.
St. John's reply is both interesting and instructive. "My little children," he repeated, "love one another. This is the Lord's precept and it alone suffices."

Love one another. St. John was only echoing the doctrine of his Divine Master. When the Pharisees came to Christ asking which is the greatest commandment, His answer was prompt and ready. He replied that we are to love God with our whole heart and mind and soul and our neighbor as ourselves.

It is to be noted that this is not a mere counsel. Christ did not merely advise charity as a means to be used if one wished to live a life a little better than the average. On the contrary, charity is a commandment—the first and the greatest; and in a way it sums up the whole Christian law.

From the Old Testament, we can see that the people before Christ did not have a full understanding of charity.

Charity was also something strange to the pagans of early Christian times. When the pagan Romans looked upon the early Christians they noticed something different about them. They observed such manifestations of charity that they were prompted to remark: "See how these Christians love one another."

Charity is the distinctive mark of the Christian. It is, as it were, the badge of the follower of Christ. "By this shall all men know that you are my disciples," said the Master, "if you have love one for another."

Today there is some confusion about the meaning of charity. Its meaning has been so emptied and watered down that it hardly resembles the meaning it has in the Gospels. In the popular mind, charity today is associated with such things as humanitarianism, philanthropy, community chests, orphanages and hostels for the poor. To be an object of charity according to this conception, carries with it a sense of shame.

This is not so with the Gospel meaning of charity which is something far above mere philanthropy; something deeper than the mere exterior act of contributing of the community chest.

True Christian charity is the love of God and of our neighbor, as they are seen through the eyes of faith. It is the love which corresponds to the knowledge we have by faith.

Hence Christian charity is the love of our fellow men as children of a common heavenly Father, as brothers in Christ and as living temples of the Holy Spirit.

But where can we point to such an example? Can the non-Christian world still say that the pagan Romans used to say: "See how these Christians love one another?"

Perhaps this is a matter on which all Christians need to examine their consciences. What we need is some of the wisdom enjoyed by the aged St. John, which will enable us to understand that,
in the practical order of everyday life, the primary and essential thing is the motivation of all our activity by charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No matter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brotherhood, in a purely secular society such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

Personals

Miss Alberta MacKinnlay of Albany, N. Y. is the guest this weekend of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Richards, Stanhope.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Forsythe and son, Richard, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Forsythe, 17 Park Terrace.

Mr. Thomas Gass, Trail, B.C., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Robert Gass, Hazelbrook, and other members of the family.

Mr. Scott MacPhail has returned to Toronto, after spending a two-week vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John MacPhail, Mt.
Albion.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald MacNeill returned Thursday from Wolfville, N.
S., where they attended the summer convocation of Acadia University where their son, Jim, received his B.Sc. degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton MacGrath and Mr. MacGrath's father, Mr.
James MacGrath, Lowell, Mass., are visiting at North Milton.
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Coles.

Miss Jean MacNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacNeill, has returned to her home in Lake Verde. Miss MacNeil has been a patient in the Polio Clinic, Charlottetown, for many months.

Mrs. John Walker, Kensington, had the misfortune to fall at her home hurting herself seriously. She was taken to the Prince County Hospital for x-rays which showed no bones broken, but a dislocated shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. John De Grace and son, have returned to their home in Lexington, Mass., after spending a pleasant holiday here. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. N. C. Molyneux, Southport, who will spend a month visiting her daughter.

On behalf of Orange Tea Committees, I wish to extend our many thanks to all those that helped, and made the tea such a success. We also thank Mr. Hart, manager, Bank of Nova Scotia, Victoria, and his assistant.

BASIL C. HOLM,
Secretary.

COMMERCIAL ENTER-PRISES REG'D.
Collections, Investigations
Miscellaneous Business Services.
5908 — DIAL — 9278 Charlottetown, P. E. I.

love of our fellow men as children of a common heavenly Father, as brothers in Christ and
as living temples of the Holy Spirit.

But where can we point to such
an example? Can the non-Christian world still say that the
pagan Romans used to say: "See
how these Christians love one another?"

Perhaps this is a matter on
which all Christians need to examine their consciences. What we need is some of the wisdom enjoyed by the aged St. John, which
will enable us to understand that,
in the practical order of every-
day life, the primary and essential
thing is the motivation of all our
activity by charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No mat-
ter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No matter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No matter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-

sees to be shown how effective the bond of Christian charity
can be.

Secular society by itself knows
nothing about such love. No matter how much one may talk of
fellowship, comradeship or brother-
hood, in a purely secular soci-
ety such as that of Communism
which makes no room for God,
there is by the very absence of
God, also no room for Christian
charity.

The world today, aspiring and
yearning for some stable bond of
fellowship and brotherhood, de-