

Trinity Church
Is Site Of Convention

The 23rd national convention of the Canadian National Organization of the International Order of the King's Sons and Daughters opened yesterday at Trinity United Church.

Over 100 delegates from the four branch provinces; British Columbia, Ontario, New Brunswick and P.E.I. attended the opening session of the convention under the chairmanship of Dr. P. Belyas of British Columbia.

A business session was held this morning for the various reports and during the afternoon the delegates visited the confederation chamber and returned to Trinity for more business sessions which included the president's report.

Last night there was a banquet at the church and today the convention will continue.

The special guest of the convention is international president, Mrs. W. H. Nichol of New Hampshire.

Stress Young Couples
At P.E.I. Canadian Club

The 1963-64 season of the Canadian Club of P.E.I. ended yesterday with a dinner in the Charlottetown Hotel.

During the proceedings the nominating committee presented its proposed slate of officers which was accepted by the members.

Replacing W. J. Hancock as president of the organization is Hon. F. W. Hyndman, the former Lieutenant Governor. Honorary president is Lieutenant Governor W. J. Macdonald.

Almost 100 members were added to the rolls of the Club during the past year, which brought the total for the year to 325 members, with the emphasis on "young married couples," according to the president's report. Mr. Hancock advocated a continuing trend along these lines.

Next year's selection of speakers was also approved at the meeting.

The list of other officers for the year 1964-65 is as follows: Vice-president: Queens, Col. G. E. Full; Kings, Senator E. S. Inman; Prince, Fred Davison; Ron, secretary-treasurer, Ross C. Merriman; executive, T. D. DeHolis, Mrs. Keith Kennedy; chairman, Mr. J. M. Logan, Judge C. M. Macdonald; 1st. Vice-president, St. Clair Trahan and A. M. Wilson.

Strawberry Festival
Plans Near Completion

MONTAGUE - The program for the Regional Strawberry Festival to be held in the Montague area July 15, 16 and 17, is fast nearing completion with a few wrinkles still to be ironed out. It was learned at a meeting of the committee executive which will include racing of outboards, inboards, snipe, sailing craft and other smaller craft as well as the lobster boat races by fishermen of the area. A swim from Georgetown to the Lower Montague which is now being organized with the water safety committee of the Red Cross in Charlottetown. This event will be an open event. Other swimming competitions will be for Kings County only with perhaps a couple of open events.
