SAINT JOHN'S DAY. Yesterday, being St. John's Day was celebrated with the usual Masonic honors by the members of St. John's Lodge in this city. In the morning they marched in procession to St. Paul's Church, where they preached the Reverend Archdeacon Read, a worthy and able and eloquent sermon appropriate to the occasion. Brother Earle, assisted in the singing by the ladies of the choir, as the audience was retiring at the close of the services, played a March dedicated to St. John's Lodge, now joined by the Archdeacon the procession was formed, and marched down Prince Street, through Water Street and up Queen Street to St. John's Hall, which was then dedicated in presence of a large number of lady visitors, the preacher of the day acting as chaplain. The officers wearing collars and jewels, and the members of the Lodge in Masonic regalia, turned out in good force and presented a highly creditable appearance. The weather was everything that could be desired for such a demonstration.

At six p. m., the brethren assembled at the Lodge Room for the purpose of installing a new Master and members of the Lodge. A list of the Officers appointed:— Bro. H. E. Starbird, W. M., (re-elected) J. G. J. Weldon, S. W., John Cameron, J. W., Donald McRae, Treas., P. S. Macgowan, Secretary, A. A. Baldwin, S. D., John Newson, S. S., Alex. McDougall, I. S., Robert Young, Marshall, Thomas Johnston, I. G., N. P. Stramborg, Organist, John Hobbs, Tyler.

After the installation ceremonies were concluded, the brethren proceeded to the Pavilion Hotel, and sat down with several guests on a sumptuous dinner provided for the occasion. The usual toasts were proposed by the Chairman, W. M., H. E. Starbird, as follows:— The Queen and the Craft. The Prince and Princess of Wales, and the other members of the Royal Family. The Right Hon. the Earl of Zetland, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of England. The Right Hon. the Earl of Dalhousie, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Scotland. The Hon. Alex. Keith, Prov. Grand Master for Nova Scotia. Bro. James B. Chester Peters, Prov. Grand Master for New Brunswick. The Hon. J. A. Macdonald, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the Province of Ontario. The Hon. Alex. Keith, Prov. Grand Master for Nova Scotia. Mrs. Dwyer and the fair daughters of Prince Edward Island. Our Sister Lodges of Prince Edward Island. The Army and Navy. The Bench and the Bar.

These toasts having been drunk with suitable honors, volunter toasts, speeches and songs followed, and at a late hour the brethren parted in harmony and good fellowship, only regretting that such social gatherings were not of more frequent occurrence.—Com. to Tat.

The Archdeacon Albert, conqueror of Custozza, is about to marry the Princess Frederica, eldest daughter of the ex-King of Hanover. His Highness is fifty and the bride nineteen. The Archdeacon has already been married, on her former husband's death, to a woman who was the Archdeacon's mistress, who was recently burnt to death when betrothed to Prince Humbert.

TRADE IN ENGLAND.—Messrs. Gibbs, Bright & Co., in their Liverpool report of the 27th Dec. say:—The Bank rate remains at 2 1/2 per cent. Flour, 17s. 6d. per ton, but there is very little doing. To New Orleans, 9s. to 10s. per ton. Coal to Havana, 10s. per ton. Lumber—Very little doing. One cargo of heavy port deals is being sold at 27 1/2 per cent. Two or three cargoes of St. John's spruce are being yarded on importers account.

The Rev. P. X. LaFrance, late Parish Priest at Carleton Place, Ontario, N. B., died on the 25th inst, at Barabois, in the above named Province. Father LaFrance, was a zealous priest and as a Christian gentleman was loved and respected by all whom the daily occurrence of life brought him in contact. He was a man who was always found in a generous warm-hearted friend. The St. John Freeman is recording the death of the learned priest, and furnishes a lengthy obituary, eulogistic of his benevolent disposition, his liberal character and his blameless life.—Halifax Express.

A Shooting Match took place on the Model Farm on the afternoon of Saturday last, and was witnessed by a large number of gentlemen. The match was between three men of Capt. Holman's Company of Mounted Rifles, and an equal number of Capt. Wright's (Royalty) Company. The ranges selected for the contest were 200 and 300 yards, five shots at each range. Notwithstanding the cold, the shooting was uniform, only some half dozen shots having missed the target. At the close of the match, the following were declared victors, they being correct in points more than their opponents. The following is the score made by the different competitors:— Mounted Rifles. Royalty Rifles. Alexander Stewart, 23. Donald Ferguson, 31. John T. Reid, 23. William Connors, 22. Wallace Reid, 17. Thomas Henderson, 21.

A FORCED LOAN.—A Canadian of French extraction went over to visit the Exhibition in Paris, and on his return, he was relatively received into a French family for a month. One night he entered the bedroom of his host, and locked a lock with consummate address, and extracted securities payable to bearer worth 25,000 fr., with their counterparts. After the act he retired to rest, and the following morning took leave of his host, and returned to his own country, whence he addressed a note to this effect to his victims:— "It is I who have taken your securities, your diamonds, jewels, and plate. But it is no robbery; it is a forced loan. With its produce I shall do a great business in Canada. If I succeed, I will repay you with interest; if I fail, it will be a loss to you and me."

Two CATFISH.—It is impossible to be too cautious. The Glasgow Citizen tells how a London lawyer came up to the banks of Clyde some months ago, and ferreted out what he supposed, with a rare regard to the position of his adjutant, was an "old pro" man, and told him that he believed there was an immense fortune lying to his credit in India if he would only give the "necessary instructions" for obtaining it. Fearful that if he moved in the matter he would get nothing for his pains but a bill of costs, the cunning Scot refused to give the required permission. He had, however, a son in the Fusilier Guards, and if he chose to angle for the money he would make over his own claims to him. The requisite deed was therefore drawn up, and a few days afterwards the son—a private soldier—accepted the shadowy gift, and gave the "necessary instructions" to the lawyer, at once set out for India, and last week returned to put the lucky Guardian into a fortune amounting to between £700,000 and £1,000,000.
