Weak, Tired, Nervous

Women, who seem to be all worn out, will find in purified blood, made rich and healthy by Hood's Sarsaparilla, permanent relief and strength. The following is from a well known nurse:

"I have suffered for years with female complaints and kidney troubles and I have had a great deal of medical advice during that time, but have received little or no benefit. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and I began to use it, together with Hood's Pills. I have realized more benefit from these medicines than from anything else I have ever taken. From my personal experience I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be a most complete blood purifier." Mrs. C. CROOKS, 71 Cumberland St., Toronto, Ontario.

The child that cannot digest milk can digest Cod-liver Oil as it is prepared in Scott's Emulsion. Careful scientific tests have proven it to be more easily digested than milk, butter, or any other fat. That is the reason why puny, sickly children, and thin, emaciated and anemic persons grow fleshy so rapidly on Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites when their ordinary food does not nourish them.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

VICTORIA, July 15.—Australian papers received by the Mowera announce that the Premier of Victoria has called the agent-general of that colony as follows, with regard to the Pacific cable scheme: "Impress upon the Imperial Government the extreme necessity of the Pacific cable project and urge an early meeting of the joint commission of representatives of Imperial Government, of Canada and the Australian colonies to arrange a definite project, subject to the approval of the government," interests as stated by Sanford Fleming in his letter of January last, to the Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce. Secure all possible information as to construction and laying of the cable, and endeavor to secure the co-operation of the other agent-generals.

In reply to this the Premier received a cablegram from Agent-General Gilles, stating the views of the other agent-generals and requesting instructions to co-operate with him in urging the construction of the cable.

When the opportunity occurs to escape from death only lunatics would refuse to do it. But there are many consumptive people lying on death beds who can escape the threatened doom if they will take Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. Some are not aware of such a preparation, and if they die it will be the result of ignorance. Those who know that Miller's Emulsion makes new blood, and enables the consumptive to get strength to overcome the disease are self-destroyers if they still neglect to obtain the life-giving remedy. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrophulous and all Lung Affections. In Big Bottles 50c and $1 at all Drug Stores.

MONTREAL, July 15.—The Banque du Peuple, owing to difficulties with the cashier, Bousquet, who has impaired its confidence, suspended payment for 90 days. This is allowed by the Canadian banking act in which to adjust a bank's affairs and if at the end of that period the bank is not prepared to proceed with business, liquidation would then be in order. President Grenier said tonight the bank hopes to resume at the expiration of 90 days.

When the news became known tonight a large number of the depositors surrounded the bank and there was considerable excitement, and a big run is expected tomorrow. The depositors will likely be paid in full, as the directors are personally responsible. The assets are placed at nine millions and the liabilities at seven millions. The bank has several branches in the province. The Government inspector will hold an investigation.

BRITAIN'S NEW PREMIER.

Lord Salisbury's Third Call to Office as Prime Minister. The Head of the Cecil Family.

Lord Salisbury's summons from Queen Victoria to form a new Ministry to succeed that of Lord Rosebery, marked him for the third time Prime Minister of Great Britain. He succeeded Gladstone in June, 1885, but was turned out of office in February, 1888. Gladstone had a very brief season of power, for the factor now known as the Liberal Unionists deserted him, and Salisbury became Premier again in August. Salisbury's second Ministry lasted until March, 1894. Lord Rosebery succeeded him, but has not yet been called to office. It was probably with relief that his leader resigned office on June 22.

Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Cecil, Marquis of Salisbury, the head of the old historic family of Cecil, Queen Elizabeth's Lord Burghley, belonged to the family. One of the Cecil characteristics is his love of power, and Lord Salisbury possesses it. He was a younger son, and began life as a colonist in North the Southern Cross. Then his elder brother, the Duke of Devonshire, was elected. He assumed the title of Lord Cranborne, took a prominent part in Parliament as a debater, became a member of several cabinets, and was one of the Lords on the death of his father, and when Disraeli died became leader of the Conservatives. He is strong and dominant in character, and no king at the tricker in his nature.

It has been noted that the first settlers in heavily wooded sections of the country have generally been healthy, despite their privations. The reason for this is that trees and plants of all kinds possess the power of absorbing poisonous air from decaying vegetation, besides which the exhalations from evergreens and the smoke from burning resinous woods are noted for the relief they give to those suffering from pulmonary diseases.

New heavily-wooded countries, as is readily noted, are the great health resorts, and they continue so for some years, as only a small portion of the forest can be cleared away each year. After the forest is removed and the sun and light admitted, the soil fills rapidly with vegetable mold, which decomposes more rapidly than it can be absorbed by the scant vegetation. As a result the atmosphere is rendered impure and malaria becomes a common complaint. In view of these facts, people are beginning to understand the value of trees as disease-absorbing and health-giving agents. Naturally, this leads to the question as to what trees are best for protection against disease.

On Long Island and in New Jersey there are localities surrounded and hemmed in with pitch pines, which are famed for their curative qualities in consumption, and the pines are thus indicated as valuable surroundings in pulmonary complaints. It would seem reasonable to suppose that we have seen the largest leaves and the most of them would be the best for this purpose, as such trees would undoubtedly have the most absorbing power. We have seen the eucalyptus tree mentioned of special value as a purifier of the atmosphere.

There are no laundries on board ship; they take up too much room. So the chief steward lays in thousands of pillow slips, sheets and towels. These come on board tied up in bales of a dozen each, and are stored in the linen locker, a cubbyhole of a p. a. c. on the main deck, the contents of the pipes from the engine room run through it and keep it hot.

There is no danger of linen getting mildewed there. The great quantity has been used with the same atmosphere, and is kept thoroughly dry. Where there are clean napkins every day, frequent changes of tablecloths and an everlasting replenishing of towel racks, the demands upon the linen locker are not very pretentious.

A liner like the New York puts to sea with about 9,000 serviettes, 1,000 towels, 6,000 or 7,000 sheets, 8,000 pillow slips, about 1,000 table cloths. Most of these find their way to the soiled linen locker in the course of the voyage. When the vessel arrives they are carted off to a laundry.—Tit-Bits.

Dr. Patton on the Bible.

A few ultra conservative Presbyterians are started and alarmed at a recent sermon by Dr. Patton, who has always been looked upon as one of the most able of all the conservative leaders in the church. In speaking of the Bible he said: "The great question
