Address and Presentation

On the evening of January 21, a large number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacKinnon to celebrate with them their 40th wedding anniversary. The bride and groom of 40 years were escorted to their seats of honour by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacKinnon, brother and sister-in-law of the couple.

Mr. John N. MacFadyen acted as chairman. He explained the purpose of the gathering and also made fitting remarks about this couple's hospitality.

Mrs. Arvin Corney read an appropriate address, while Miss Joyce MacDonald presented them with a well filled purse.

The groom fittingly replied. The bride also thanked their friends for remembering them at this time.

After singing "For they are Jolly Good Fellows" the bride and groom were both bounced.

Two large and beautifully decorated wedding cakes centred the table and were cut by the bride. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the district.

Several harmonica selections were rendered by Messrs. Orvin Corney and Waldron MacKinnon, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon MacKinnon at the piano. A step dance by Mr. Gordon MacKinnon was also enjoyed.

Producers Explain Coffee Price High Due to Below-Normal Crop

By Steven V. David
NEW YORK (AP) — Consumers grumble, the government investigates and Latin Americans explain—and still the price of coffee in the United States remains sky-high.

What goes on? There have been explanations and statements from growers, importers, processors and interested bystanders. The important facts are these:

Coffee consumption is high—it has held steady in the United States and has been increasing in Europe. At the same time, producing countries say the crop that will be harvested in July will be below normal because of frosts in Brazil and too much rain in Colombia and Venezuela.

Officials of the New York coffee exchange, testifying before a Senate sub-committee investigating soaring prices, gave these statistics:

Brazil's 1953-54 coffee crop was estimated last July 1 at 16,900,000 bags of 132 pounds each. Since the frost, the estimate has been trimmed to 14,000,000 bags.

For the 1954-55 crop, the long-range estimate was 17,300,000 bags. This has been cut to 12,700,000. Green coffee prices started to climb shortly after the frost reports came in. Roasters, faced with the prospect of replacing their current stocks with green coffee bought at much higher prices, began raising their wholesale price tags. By and large, they averaged the cost of stocks on hand with the cost of coffee being bought at high prices for delivery in the future.

As a result, coffee is selling in most U. S. stores at above $1 a pound. In some places it's up to $1.09 or so.

a lot of money out of the rise in coffee, are investigating the situation. Charges by some congressmen that speculation in coffee futures is to blame have led to Senate passage of a bill to bring coffee trading under federal supervision.

There is evidence that the consumer is doing something about the problem, too—by buying less coffee.

Dunn and Bradstreet's survey of retail trade notes that in the week ended Feb. 3 "coffee sales dipped again as growing price resistance was noted. Sales of tea were substantially higher than in 1953 and above the preceding week."

Joseph G. Vaskas, chief tea buyer for the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., predicts that U. S. consumption of tea may double or triple in the next 10 years. Vaskas observes that while the price of coffee in the home now is about three cents a cup, the average price of tea is less than a penny a cup.

1 1/2 Cents A Cup
Several makers of instant coffee report that consumers are drinking more and more of their product, which they saw is economical because there's no waste.

In many cities, restaurants have raised their prices for a cup of coffee to 15 cents. On the other hand, a leading food company contends a restaurant can serve a cup of coffee at a cost of 3 1/2 cents, including ingredients and overhead.

The Union News Co., which operates several hundred restaurants, put up signs recently urging its patrons to drink tea. Since then, officials say, coffee sales have declined and there has been a compensating increase in orders for tea, milk and hot chocolate.

"SOUTH SEA WOMAN" AT CAPITOL THEATRE, SUMMERSIDE

—An adventure comedy set in the South Pacific is the newest vehicle for Burt Lancaster and Virginia Mayo as they star in Warner Bros.' "South Sea Woman," at the Capitol Theatre. Chuck Connors is cast in a top supporting role in the story of two Marines and a beautiful blonde who are marooned at the outbreak of the war on a tropical island.

Lancaster plays a Marine whose sense of duty to his country is strong, but who still manages to become involved in a number of romantic adventures. He is shown as a fast man with a quip or a kiss and takes part in many broad comedy scenes and some rugged action sequences.

When Lancaster and Connors rescue Virginia Mayo from the clutches of a notorious night club owner in Shanghai, they find that they have taken her out of the frying pan and dropped themselves and Miss Mayo into the fire. After the boat in which they escape sinks, they are all cast upon a tropical island where romance and adventure are mixed as the two Marines fight each other for the affection of the lovely showgirl, and then fight together against the traitorous Vichy French who inhabit the island.

Albany and Vicinity

—The big storm of February 12, has again blocked the byroad and back roads are again being cleaned out. The main Trans-Continental Highway did not catch much of the drifts and were opened up early Saturday morning. The temperature in this Section was 14 below and at the old Tryon Woolen Mills the glass went to 15 below.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sharky of North Tryon, are glad to know they are improved in health and feeling much better after being confined to their home with an attack of the flu which has been going the rounds around here.

Mr. James Costain of North Tryon, who is now living in Charlottetown was a visitor to North Tryon the past few days.

Friends of Mr. Walter Gamble of North Tryon, are glad to see him out around again after being on the sick list for the past two weeks. Mr. Gamble is the manager of the Amalgamated Creameries feed warehouse at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. William Matheson of Rose Valley, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wynan Waddell of Tryon, have moved to Charlottetown for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lefurgy of North Tryon, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sawler, Cape Traverse, on February 11.

Friends of Mr. James Warren will be glad to know that he is up and around again after his recent accident which caused him the loss of a thumb and an injured hand. He was a patient in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside for some time.

Mr. Walter Bell of Tryon and Mr. Hedley Miller of Victoria, who have been fishing smelt on the Tryon River, report a good smelt season but prices were not too high throughout the season.

Mr. Dan Matheson and Mr. John Matheson of Emerald, were recent business visitors to Carleton and Albany. Mr. Dannie Matheson built the flue and did the masonry work on the new up to date School built in the Carleton settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Delaney of North Tryon, were recent business visitors to Summerside on February 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Harper and family of Seven Mile Bay, were recent guests at the home of Mr. Sheldon Dixon, North Tryon.

Mrs. Charles Roberts of North Tryon, is starting out on a new poultry industry in this Island. Mrs. Roberts has purchased a 2,000-egg capacity turkey incubator which she intends to hatch goose eggs in. Mrs. Roberts has had real success under the old nature methods but is going to try her luck with the new modern way. A building is being fixed up in up-to-date style with electric light and all modern poultry equipment. All are hoping that she has good luck in her new adventure.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dawson of Tryon, will be sorry to learn that they are confined to their home through illness. The latest report is that their condition is somewhat improved. Mrs. Dawson has been ill for some time having recently returned home from the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

One of the best articles on Prince Edward Island, the Million Acre Farm appeared in The Star Weekly, Toronto, February 13. By Harold Hilliard, it is a well written article and a good boost for Prince Edward Island and shows some good photos of the Islands farming and fishing industries.

Mr. Dean Johnson of North Tryon, has started a welding plant to accommodate the farmers and motorists of these parts. Mr. Johnson took a course in the Charlottetown Trade Course and made a specialty of welding.

Mr. Earl Mayhew, Tryon, who has been off duty as truck driver for Crossman and Bradshaw, Albany has returned to his former position and is now on the road daily.

Report Geese Slaughter Stories Are "Distorted"

OTTAWA, (CP) — The United States has informed Canada that charges in an American publication of large-scale slaughter of Canada geese in southern Illinois are "distorted" a Senate committee was told Thursday.

W. W. Mair, chief of the Canadian wildlife service, said the Canadian government took up the matter with the U. S. fish and wildlife service after publication of an article in the January issue of Argosy, an American magazine. Mr. Mair appeared before the Senate tourist committee.

He said the U. S. service and the Illinois wildlife service have informed Canada that the kill of Canada geese at a reserve near Cairo, Ill., was between 25,000 and 30,000 and not 100,000 as claimed in the Argosy article.

That size of kill in one season was not exceptional.

Golden Anniversary Marked at Darnley

—Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Hynes of Darnley, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Feb. 9 when their family, friends and neighbors united to show honor to this popular couple.

Fifty years ago Susanna White of Emerald, was married in St. Mary's Church, Indian River, to Jeremiah Hynes of Darnley, where their happy wedded life was spent. The Hynes' home was well known for its hospitality and their welcome mat drew friends from far and near.

The jubilee festivities began with a jubilee Mass celebrated at Indian River by their pastor, Rev. Louis Callaghan. This was followed at noon by a family dinner when a toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Father Callaghan. An address from their grandchildren was read by Mr. Reggie McLellan of Summerside. The grandchildren's gift was a set of dinnerware. The inclemency of the weather prevented any further festivities that day and on Feb. 11 the neighbors and friends gathered in large numbers to pay honor to a couple whose friendship has stood the test of time.

Mr. Frank McNutt, M. L. A., was master of ceremonies. Mr. Charles Lockhart read an address expressing the sentiments of all present. The address was accompanied by the presentation of two sitting chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were the recipients of several other nice gifts and numerous messages of congratulation including a beautiful bouquet of rums presented by their great-granddaughter, Mary Gills. Mr. and Mrs. Hynes warmly thanked their friends for their demonstration of good will. The M. C. called on Rev. Louis Callaghan who spoke briefly. Music and dancing followed, music being furnished by Messrs. Eddie Matthews and Billy Woodside. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

Their wide circle of friends unite in wishing them many more years of wedded bliss and hope to be with them to celebrate their diamond jubilee.—K.
