Millionaires Get Back In Maritime League; Meeting Last Night

SYDNEY, Sept. 23 (CP)—Sydney Millionaires went back into major hockey business tonight at the largest meeting of the Sydney club in the last two seasons.

A finance committee with a $5,000 objective was formed at the meeting after club president Art Lipton outlined the immediate financial needs for the season.

Following the meeting Sydney club officials were in touch with secretary-registrar Charlie Campbell of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association asking for protection for their players from last year's team. It was reported that following Sunday's Maritime Major Hockey League meeting in Gloucester Bay when Millionaires dropped out that all their owned players became "free agents."

Later in the night they were also in touch with some Maritime Major League club officials regarding the coming season.

Playing-coach Cliff Roach told the meeting that former coach Bill Dinning would not be returning, but he was scouting for material.

"Since I have been playing with Sydney we have had championship teams, and that's the way I want it this year," the playing-coach told

Dodgers Clinch N. L. Pennant; Yankees Move Step Closer To A.L. Flag

By The Associated Press

Brooklyn Dodgers clinched the 1952 National League pennant tonight while New York Yankees moved a step closer towards winning their fourth straight American League flag.

Little Johnny Rutherford hurled the Dodgers to a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia Phillies in the first game of a double-header. The victory gave Brooklyn 95 triumphs for the season and made it impossible for the second-place New York Giants to overhaul the flock. The Giants have 86 victories and only six games left.

Meanwhile, the Yanks moved 1-2 games ahead of the second-place Cleveland Indians without swinging a bat. The Indians were upset 13-1 by Chicago White Sox while the Yanks' game with the Boston Red Sox was rained out.

The Yanks can assure themselves of finishing in no worse than a tie for the pennant by winning three of their remaining six games. The Indians have only three games remaining. Both the Yanks and Indians have won 90 games but the Indians have lost three more. Any combination of four New York victories or Cleveland defeats will send the Yanks into the series against the Dodgers.

Brooklyn was forced to come from behind to nip the Phils. Gran Hamner cracked a grand-slam homer in the third inning to give the Phils a 4-1 lead.

The Dodgers got back into the game in the fourth on George Shuba's homer and sewed it up with three runs in the fifth against Karl Drews who previously had subdued the Dodgers four times. Pee Wee Reese singled home the first run and Duke Snider doubled home the tying and winning markers.

Brooklyn now has won nine pennants since 1890. This is their first flag since 1949.

At Cleveland, Joe Dobson, a former Indian, permitted only six hits in posting his 14th victory of the season.

Mike Garcia seeking his 23rd victory, was slammed for five runs in the first inning. Ed Robinson featured the uprising with a two-run single. The Sox clubbed Ted Wilks for two more in the fifth on Rocky Krasnic's two-out single and shoved three more across the plate in the seventh on Sherm Lollar's two-run homer and Tom Wright's single.

Philadelphia Athletics shaded Washington Senators 4-3 in the major's only other day game. A doubleheader between Boston and the Giants was rained out.

Philadelphia's triumph was a costly one as the A's lost the services of their ace pitcher, Bobby Shantz. Shantz suffered a broken

Boston Bruins Have Two Good Forward Lines

HERSHEY, Pa., Sept. 23 (CP)—Right now Lynn Patrick, coach of Boston Bruins, appears to have two forward lines pretty well set for the National Hockey League opening.

The Bruins and Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League worked through a scrimmage today.

Two combinations appear to be clicking. Captain Milt Schmidt, Real Chevrefils and Leo Labine make up one; Dave Creighton, Johnny Plerson and Jack McIntyre the other.

But the Bruins still need a good defence.

One of the newcomers to the Hershey camp is Frank Toyota, believed to be the only Japanese hockey player on the continent. He played with Kitchener (Ont.) Greenshirts last year.

Charlottetown Tennis Club Annual Meeting

At the annual meeting of the Charlottetown Lawn Tennis Club, held last evening, Paul Kays was re-elected as president. Also re-elected were the secretary-treasurer, Joan Weir, and the following chairmen of the grounds committees: Ned Wran; tournament, Ivan Dowling; entertainment, Elizabeth Willett. Patsy Barrett was elected to the office of vice president, Wanda MacMillan to that of chairman of the membership committee, and J. Johnston as chairman of the ways and means committee.

A vote of thanks was extended to Lillian Duchemin for acting for a number of years as chairman of the committee and regret was expressed at her decision to resign. A successor was not definitely decided upon. Additional members of the executive were elected as follows: Hazel Hunter, Margaret Dumont, A.H. Anderson and Charles Willett.

Reports of the chairmen of committees were read, and a financial report was presented showing a small deficit.

It was decided that two junior members should be added to the executive, as a means of encouraging interest among junior players.

The ladies' membership fee for second and following years was reduced and the fee for intermediate lady members was abolished. Decision on the fee for associate lady members was left to the discretion of the membership committee. It was decided not to allow partial membership to Charlottetown residents.

Votes of thanks were moved to the Lieutenant Governor for the use of lights, to Maj. L.E. Welner and Brig. W.W. Reid for furnishings lent for the club house, and it was decided to ask Judge Mark R. MacGuigan to continue as honorary president of the club.

The Fight — Round By Round

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23 — Jersey Joe Walcott, the oldest heavyweight champion to defend his crown, was a 9-to-5 underdog tonight as he faced undefeated, 23-year-old Marciano in a 15-round title fight in Municipal Stadium before about 50,000 fans.

The 28-year-old champion from Camden, N. J., outweighed the power-punching challenger from Brockton, Mass., 166 to 164.

The weather was cool—perfect for the big fight.

The referee was Charles Daggert, a veteran ring official, and the judges were Pete Tomasco and Zach Clayton.

The first round started with each leading with a light jab. Rocky moved in close and Walcott pumped some light blows to his body.

A left hook to the jaw sent Rocky down for the count of four. Walcott moved in again but Rocky held on. Jersey Joe missed a hard right and Marciano replied with a hard left to the body.

Joe landed another smashing left hook to Marciano's jaw and the challenger held on. The crowd cheered as Rocky came back with a wild left which glanced off Walcott's jaw and a short right which was partially blocked. Walcott speared at Marciano as he turned to his own corner at the end of the first round.

Scores Kayo Victory Over Jersey Joe With Spectacular Blow

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23 (AP)—Young Rocky Marciano knocked out old Jersey Joe Walcott with a spectacular right hand shot to the jaw in 43 seconds of the 13th round tonight to win the heavyweight championship in a bloody brawl.

The unbeaten Brockton, Mass., blockbuster got off the deck from the first knockdown of his 43-bout career in the first round to touch off a wild ringside scene. Marciano supporters vaulted the press section to crash into the ring in a frantic demonstration for the first fighter ever to win the heavyweight title with a perfect record.

At least 150 wild-eyed Marciano fans resisted attempts of the police to clear the ring for several minutes after the bout ended.

Just when it seemed that the title dreams of the 28-year-old kid from the shoe mills was due to disappear before the boxing skill and sturdy heart of the 38-year-old champion, he let loose his right hand bomb that changed night into day.

It was like New Year's eve in Times Square as the good natured Marciano partisans tried to hoist the new champion to their shoulders.

Bleeding from a cut between the eyes and a gash atop his head, Marciano threw everything he had in one desperation right that crowned a new king to follow in the line of John L. Sullivan, Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis.

The Rock's crushing right crumpled Walcott with stunning suddenness. Jersey Joe's eyes went blank as he sunk to the canvas from the delayed action effect of the punch.

Down went the old Pappy Guy

Tough Challenger

It seemed Walcott couldn't miss his swarthy short-armed target with the jarring left hook that won the championship from Ezzard Charles in July of 1951. The hook almost ended matters in the first round.

When Walcott's left thudded on the Rock's chin in the first he dropped for a four count, the first time he ever had been knocked off his feet.

The crowd, estimated at more than 50,000, expected a quick ending. But Marciano came up swinging only to run into another hook that wobbled him at the bell.

Any doubt about Marciano's ability to take it was removed by this exhibition. Old Jersey Joe, often trading punches freely with his challenger, gave everything in a bid to save the crown.

When he resorted to boxing in the eighth, ninth and 10th, he made Marciano look like a novice who winged wild punches that cut only the cool Municipal Stadium air.

Both men fought freely after the bell in the third, fourth and ninth rounds as referee Charlie Daggert tried to pry them apart.

Two stinging left hooks by Marciano shook Walcott in the sixth when both suffered bad cuts. Blood streamed from Jersey Joe's left eye and there was a smear down
