Minstrel Show At Montague Attended By Large Audiences

Yeo's Theatre, Montague, was filled to capacity Wednesday and Thursday evenings by an appreciative and enthusiastic audience who witnessed the premiere and repeat performance of the Trinity Minstrels.

This show was presented by the Men's Association of Trinity United Church, Montague, and was organized and directed by Mr. Ivor Phillips. Mr. Charles Fraser capably acted as interlocutor and the following program was carried out, interspersed with hilarious comedy which included the names of many local personalities.

"Introduction," Bud Ings and Ivor Phillips: Chorus- "My Old Kentucky Home" Double tap dance Florence MacDonald and Ralph Fraser; solo and encore- "Old Man River", "Lucky Ole' Sun", by Ivor Phillips; a skit, With Calvin Hilchey the victim of a tooth ache, Bud Ings as the efficient doctor and Doug Coffin and Lorne Wigginton as his assistants; Chorus— "Ole 'Black Joe", with solo parts by Howard Vickerson and Colin Landry; Solo-and encore — "My Curly Headed Baby", "Sleep Kentucky Babe" by Gwyn Phillips; Chorus— "De Camptown Races", remarks by Charles Fraser.

The program following intermission included: chorus "Oh Suzannah, chorus — "Swannee River", with solo and tap by Florence MacDonald as a charming pickaninny; solo- "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Had" by Bud Ings and his guitar, encores "Love Me Tender" and "Singing The Blues"; group of songs by chorus "Home on The Range", "Carry Me Back To Ole Virginny", "Hear Dem Bells", "Dinah" and "Uncle Ned"; solo— "Climb Up Children Climb", by Hartley Ings, encore "Gentle Annie", piano accompanist, Mrs. Fred Saunders; chorus— "In the Evening by the Moonlight".

"Now Is The Hour", with words to suit the occasion, brought a memorable performance to a close.

Much credit is due to Mr. Phillips and Mrs. D.M. MacDonald who was piano accompanist. Also contributing to the outstanding success of the show were the end men, Doug Coffin, Bud Ings, Ivor Phillips and Lorne Wigginton.

A novel feature was introduced when patrons were greeted at the door by Arnold Wightman and Roy Gillis in costume.

Mrs. Cyrus Shaw was make-up artist. Others taking part in the choruses were D.M. MacDonald, Jack Annear, Cal Smith, Everett Moore and Cyrus Shaw. Alan Mosher and Harold Bulpitt acted as ushers.
