

Well Known Souris Resident, John Bartlett, Dies At 100

SOUBIS — One of the town's better known residents, John Bartlett, died in hospital here Saturday at the age of 100.

Many stories are told about Mr. Bartlett and it is believed he came to the province from Newfoundland in the early 1890's when he was 40 years old.

At Annapolis he took up residence with John 'Red Jack' Steinar and his wife and when they died he inherited the property. He later sold it and moved to Souris.

Body Recovered By Draining Pond

SOUBIS — The body of 12-year-old Frank Dixon of Montague, N.B., was recovered from the muddy bottom of Dixon's Pond, East Baltic, early yesterday afternoon.

Player's Cut Is $13,000

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Gary Player's victory in the PGA golf tournament over the week-end netted him $13,000 but he still remains fifth in total money won this year.

The young lad and his 40-year-old uncle, John Dixon of East Baltic, were drowned Monday night when their small outboard motor boat overturned while fishing.

Drugging was discontinued shortly after noon yesterday and the body was located by draining the pond. This was done by two bulldozers, which broke holes in the dam.

Fitness Festival To Be Discussed

A meeting of the Atlantic provinces physical education directors will probably be held this week to plan for the area's fitness festival at the Canadian National Exhibition, David Boswell, P.E.I. physical education director said yesterday.

During the morning two skin divers tried to locate the body. They were "Doc" Richard of Souris, and John White of Montague.

In addition to the earlier list of survivors is a sister, Jean, 8. Dr. G. S. A. Inman, coroner, has announced no inquest will be held.
