Authentic accounts leave no doubt that the suicide of Count Von Wimpffen, Austro-Hungarian Ambassador to France, was entirely due to insanity.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, is in Toronto. Sir Hector Langevin, Minister of Public Works, is in Montreal. Sir Charles is still in Halifax.

In the Revue des Deux Mondes it is said that all articles, on an average, are read and corrected at least fifteen times before publication, and still an error sometimes escapes notice.

The Senate officials on Saturday evening presented Mr. Lemoine, whose resignation as clerk of the Parliament has been accepted by the Government, with a handsome costly gold-headed ebony cane.

Somebody has been saying that the climate of Manitoba is so severe as to make the country unfit for the occupancy of human beings. The grumbling class used to say the same of Ontario. If some people had a climate manufactured especially to fit them they would still be unhappy.

The Duke of Wellington, when he returned to England after Waterloo, was asked by Lady Jersey, in the midst of a crowded drawing-room, to "give them an account of the battle," to which he replied:—"That is easily done, ma'am; they pummelled us and we pummelled them, and I suppose we pummelled the harder, as we gained the day."

England showed her wisdom when she asked the Khedive to place Arabi in her hands, that she might keep him safely. Napoleon once said, "With Antwerp I hold a loaded pistol pointed at England's heart," and with Arabi within convenient distance England holds a revolver at the breast of Tewfik Pasha. A hint at any time that Arabi contemplated returning to the country that he loved not wisely but too well would have the instantaneous effect of reducing the Khedive to submission.

The Standard says intimate friends of Gambetta state that he had been a confirmed hypochondriac. Weariness and disgust at the failure of his prospects may explain much that is experienced in the life just closed. Despatches from Madrid, Rome, Berlin, state that Gambetta's death has caused a profound sensation in those places. The conductors of the Republic Francaise, have received telegrams of condolence from parts of France. The family are anxious that the burial take place at Nice, but friends advise that it be at Paris in consequence of the high functions the deceased had filled. The authorities have thought it expedient to place seals on his papers. The physicians who attended Gambetta state that his death was due to pyocnico, caused by suppressed erysipelas. A clot of blood which formed in his heart suffocated him. A plaster cast of the face was taken.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhœa or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagnia, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the puepose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.
