

He that climbs highest has the greatest fall.

A noisy man is always in the right.

By Carrier: Charlottetown, Summerside $15.00 per annum. Elsewhere to P. E. I. $8.00. Other Provinces and U. S. A. $12.00 per annum.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1952

12 PAGES

Morning Daily Founded 1887.
The Guardian, Five Cents.

CANADIANS FIGHT TOUGHEST BATTLE OF KOREAN WAR

Criticism Levelled At U. S. Tariff Wall

Chinese Force Allied Defenders Off Sniper Ridge In Night Attack

(By William C. Barnard)

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 28 (Wednesday)—(AP)—Chinese Communists hurled a surprise moonlight attack on Pinnpoint Hill and forced Allied defenders from that blood-soaked crest of Sniper Ridge early today.

Front reports said a reinforced Red battalion of 700 men attacked without customary artillery preparation an hour before midnight.

Heavy Allied artillery opened an intense barrage on Pinnpoint soon after the Reds seized it for the seventh time in 15 days.

AP correspondent John Randolph reported from the central front that Allied troops withdrew from Pinnpoint after almost two hours of violent battle.

While the struggle for the hills north of Kumhwa set the pace, smaller fights flared Tuesday at five other points along 100 miles of the 155-mile front.

On the eastern front 400 or more North Korean troops twice penetrated U. S. Eighth Army positions at Heartbreak Ridge. But Allied troops quickly sealed both breaches and hurled back the Reds. It was the second time in three days that Heartbreak Ridge was attacked.

Canadians Hold Firm

(A delayed dispatch by John Stackhouse, Reuters correspondent with the Commonwealth Division, today revealed that an unidentified Canadian company had held its positions against 1,000 storming Chinese on Little Gibraltar Hill until a counter-attack restored the Allied position.

The name of the swamped Canadian group was withheld by censors but was identified by Chinese Communist radio as Baker Company of the 1st Battalion, Royal Canadian Regiment.

(Fit survivors of the company—only a handful of them—drew new weapons Oct. 24 and returned to battle.)

Coming Events

*Dances at Gordon Lodge are cancelled until further notice.

*Feed wheat, $3.00 per cwt. McGuigan and Boyle.

*Masquerade Dances, St. Teresa's Hall, Wednesday, October 29th.

*Masquerade dance, Beaver Hall, Montague, Oct. 30, Messer's Orchestra.

*Masquerade Dance, Iona Hall, Thursday, October 30th. Prizes. Dancing 9 to 12.

*Don't miss ham and chicken supper and dance to good music in Wiltshire hall tonight.

*Dance, St. Charles Hall, every Thursday, 9.30 to 11 Chaisson's Orchestra.

*St. Andrew's Parish annual hot chicken supper, Wednesday, Nov. 5.

*Don't miss "The Blue Veil" starring Jane Wyman, Murray Harbour Friday and Saturday.

*Come to Hot Turkey Dinner in Crapaud Hall, October 29th. Sponsored by Crapaud United Church.

*Wiltshire Hall tonight for Chicken and Ham Supper and Bazaar, beginning at 5 o'clock.

*This is the night. Come with cars, trucks, horses, run, skip, or walk to St. Catherine's Hall for the Big Time.

*Hot Chicken Supper, plum pudding, games, etc., North Rustico, Wednesday, October 29th. Dance after.

*Masquerade Dance, Winsloe Station, Thursday, October 30th. Charlottetownians Orchestra. Prizes for best costumes.

*Masquerade Dance, Covehead-Stanhope Community Hall, Wednesday, November 5th. Prizes for best costumes. In aid of hall.

*Be Lucky! Enjoy yourself! Good music! Door prize! Costume! Prizes! Mount Stewart Legion Hall, Thursday, October 30th.

*Social evening and Bazaar, sale of hot dogs and hamburgers, New London Hall, Wednesday evening, 29th. Sponsored by Ladies Aid.

*Will be loading hogs at the following points each Thursday: Summerside until 1.30 p.m. and Kensington until 3.00 p.m. MacEwen and Casley.

Threats Of Reprisals Heard At Convention

GENEVA, Switzerland, Oct. 28—(Reuters)—United States' import restrictions on dairy products came under heavy fire today at the seventh session of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Five countries—Canada, New Zealand, Australia, Denmark and the Netherlands—threatened reprisals against the U. S. for what they called "discriminatory" import regulations in the Defence Products Act.

In reply, American delegate Raymond Vernon pledged to seek "complete elimination" of the restrictions, which protect U. S. dairy farmers from foreign competition.

H. Van Blankenstein, representing the Netherlands, asked for authorization to cut Dutch imports of U. S. flour next year to 57,000 metric tons.

He told the delegates that in the year since G. A. T. T. asked the U. S. to repeal the discriminatory provisions of the act, it has freed only the importing of cheese types which were not in competition with its products.

Canadian delegate C. Isbister called the Dutch request for reprisals "reasonable and justified." He said Canada has not decided on retaliatory measures against the U. S. at the present time, but "my government (reserves) all of its right... with respect to possible compensatory action in the future."

N. Z. Leasing Dollars

New Zealand delegate K. L. Press said his government feels it now is free "to institute retaliatory measures."

Press said that because of the U. S. law New Zealand is losing potential dollar earnings amounting to $100,000 a year.

J. A. Tonkin of Australia asked that a special meeting be called to review tariff and preference concessions agreed on by members in 1947.

"... I would again urge upon the U. S. Government the lifting of these restrictions so countries in balance-of-payment difficulties may be given the chance to earn some badly-needed dollars," he said.

True Bill Returned In Shooting Case

DORCHESTER, N. B., Oct. 28—(CP)—The New Brunswick Supreme Court today returned a true bill against Arthur Nason, 29, charged with manslaughter after he accidentally shot a boy picking apples.

Nason said at the inquest that he had mistaken eight-year-old Gary Robinson for a porcupine. The boy was up a tree at the time.

Airman Drawn Into Jet Intake

OTTAWA, Oct. 28—(CP)—An Air Force spokesman today said the death of an airman who was drawn into the intake of a jet aircraft, at Chatham, N. B., yesterday is the first such fatal mishap among R.C.A.F. personnel.

The spokesman, commenting on a report of the death of LAC Joseph S. Lafeyvre of Rouxville, Que., said at least one other member of the R.C.A.F. suffered injury in a similar mishap. He was seriously injured when sucked into the intake of an F-86 Sabre jet at the R.C.A.F. station at North Luffenham, England.

Mental Cases Join Rioters At Big Prison In Illinois

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 28—(AP)—Convicts in the psychiatric division, many of them dangerous mental cases, joined today in rioting at Menard State Prison where another 300 rebellious prisoners have been holding out since they seized seven prison officers as hostages late Monday.

The new uprising came shortly after 1 p. m. OST as 300 convicts in an exercise yard of the psychiatric division stormed the cell block kitchen.

Warden Jerome J. Munie said 10 of the psychiatric division insurgents, armed with butcher knives, barricaded themselves inside the kitchen after taking three guards captive.

Guards managed to return the others to their individual cell blocks.

Prison officials went ahead with plans to starve the rebel prisoners into submission, fearful that any other course would endanger the lives of the hostages. Plans to storm the cell block with 60 armed guards were abandoned when the convicts threatened to hurl the hostages from a 50-foot-high cell tower balcony.

No one was reported injured in the latest outbreak, although the convicts battled with the guards for a few moments.

Prisoners bottled up in the cell block, about two city blocks across the prison grounds from the scene of today's outbreak, had been without food or water since they seized six guards and the lieutenant in charge of their block about 5 p. m. OST Monday.

The prison houses a total of 1,860 prisoners including 850 in the psychiatric division.

Warden Munie, saying his chief concern was for the safety of the hostages, said he would make no concessions to the convicts except to feed them if they surrendered the hostages.

About 270 guards and 90 state policemen patrolled the prison. They had orders to shoot to kill in the event of a mass break for freedom over the prison walls surrounding the cell block buildings.

New Minister Discusses Problems With Veteran Parliamentary Assistant

OTTAWA, Oct. 28—(Special)—Fisheries Minister Sinclair today spent some time with J. Watson MacNaught, M.P. for Prince, and discussed fisheries matters with the special reference to fisheries on the eastern seaboard. The two were also together late today at the meeting of the National Liberal Federation.

Speaking to The Guardian, Mr. Sinclair said: "I'm delighted that as head of the department, I am so fortunate to have as parliamentary assistant, a man so familiar with Canada's fisheries policy and eastern fisheries problems as Watson MacNaught. My own personal experience is confined largely to the Pacific Coast, and Mr. MacNaught's knowledge and co-operation will be of the utmost value. I am discussing matters with him pertaining to Maritime fisheries and their operation."

"I am very anxious to see our eastern fisheries in operation, and will arrange to visit fishing stations, methods and processing in Prince Edward Island and the other east coast provinces at the earliest possible date conforming to the fishing seasons."

First Annual Meeting Of Polio Foundation Branch

There is hope for polio victims. I hope to live long enough to see a cure for it, in fact I think it will be a serum," Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, O.B.E., told the annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Chapter of the Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis at the Vocational School here last night.

Dr. MacMillan was referring to recent experiments in the United States where whole blood is being used to provide the necessary substance for a serum to combat polio. Polio, he said, is a very serious problem, adding that it was a dreadful disease.

Officers re-elected included President J. Lincoln Dewar, New Perth; Vice-President J. G. St. Clair Trainor, Charlottetown; Mrs. Fred Gates, City and Treasurer, W. M. Mellish, City. Mr. Dewar presided.

Elected directors were Mr. Elton Raynor, O'Leary; Mayor Henry Wedge, Summerside; Col. E. W. Johnston, Burlington; Mrs. E. E. Lorne Kelly, Mrs. R. Shaw, St. Catherine's; Messrs. Claude Smith, East Royalty; Earl Walsh, Georgetown; Melvin McQuaid, Souris; Mrs. Roy Smallman, City; Mrs. Lorne Noonan, City and Major Hodgson.

Addressing the meeting briefly, Dr. O. W. Curtis, Deputy Minister of Health, said that there had been 66 cases of polio in the Province since May 13. Two deaths had been reported. The heavy month was September when 39 cases were reported. Only three cases had been reported to date in October, he said.

(Continued on page 8 col. 5)

S'ide Law Student Admitted To N.S. Bar

HALIFAX, Oct. 28—(CP)—Twelve Dalhousie University law students were admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia today.

The group, one of the largest to be admitted at one time in the school's 69-year history, included: James R. Slaven, Sydney; Lowell A. Allen, Summerside; P. E. I.; Vaughan L. Baird, Winnipeg; Harold B. Wolfe, Toronto, and Donald B. Good, Parham, Ont.

Bevan Bows To Party Leader

LONDON, Oct. 28—(Reuters)—Labor rebel Aneurin Bevan today accepted a "shotgun" reconciliation with party leader Clement Attlee, parliamentary sources said.

Bevan's decision came at a session of his left-wing group which has agitated through the summer for a reduced defence program and more independence from United States foreign policy.

Last Thursday Attlee's moderate leadership demanded Bevan break up his rebel camp or face possible expulsion from the party. The wide party split had seriously shaken socialist hopes of overthrowing the Conservative Government.

A Bevan spokesman said the rebel position will be published tomorrow night in this week's edition of the magazine Tribune.

Quarters close to the Bevanites said that, although the group bowed to the ultimatum, they would insist on their rights as individual socialists to keep using left-wing views.

Bing Crosby's Wife In Critical Condition

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Oct. 28—(AP)—Dixie Crosby, wife of crooner Bing Crosby, was in a critical condition today and has slipped into a coma.

Larry Crosby, Bing's brother, said her condition is so serious that members of her family have been summoned here.

Mrs. Crosby, a former actress, underwent a serious abdominal operation three months ago. Larry said "she has been ill for several years."

Plan Long-Range Weather Forecasting

TORONTO, Oct. 28—(CP)—The Dominion Meteorological Service plans a long-range weather correlation and forecasting service by the spring of 1954.

A spokesman for the Weather Office here today said the new service will have headquarters in Montreal and will attempt to provide general forecasts as much as five days in advance. Forecasts now are usually given for 1-2 days ahead.

The Central Analysis Office, official designation of the proposed service, will work in conjunction with the long-range forecasting service of the United States to cover most of North America.

Identify Unit In Hill Battle

WEST SECTOR, Korea, Oct. 28—(Delayed)—(CP)—The Royal Canadian Regiment is defending Little Gibraltar.

(This delayed dispatch, cabled from the Korean front Wednesday, Oct. 29, is the first official indication from the Allied side that R. C. R. was the regiment involved in last week's battle for the Korean hill position.)

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming Chinese.

"The Canadians were swamped, but held on until a counter-attack restored the Allied position. A captured Chinese flag symbolized the men's heroism."

"The dispatch quoted Sgt.-Maj. (Continued on page 8 col. 4)

"The action, as described in dispatches by Boss last Friday, involved the defence by the United Nations forces of Little Gibraltar. The Canadian unit defended a spur of the hill, directly under enemy observation from three sides.

A Reuters dispatch dated Oct. 24 from John Stackhouse said that a handful of men, only fit survivors of a Canadian company which refused to bow to overwhelming odds, today (last Thursday) Canadian time drew new weapons, eager to get back at the Chinese Communists."

Stackhouse said the company held a position on Little Gibraltar against 1,000 storming