CHRIST AT THE WELL.

BY CHAS. W. BAIRD.

So let the fevered twelve depart.
And leave their Lord to other cares.
There is a humble woman's heart
More ready for his work than theirs.
Yes, daughter of a faithless race—
They sell the erring slave of lust—
Come, for his wise, impartial grace,
Commits his worship to thy trust.

Still at a long-forsaken shrine
The formal Jew in darkness bends;
Still these new days of truth doth shine
But dimly on the Saviour's friends:
For gorgeous rites and golden dreams
Alike their wandering thoughts amuse,
Too lazy, in their narrow schemes,
His light and easy yoke to choose.

But she, whose weary soul hath known
The burden of unpardoned sin,
Without a Saviour to atone,
Without the hope of heaven to win—
She hath no lingering will to leave,
No clinging pride to cast away;
She can but listen and believe,
Repent, and worship, and obey.

The unhallowed altars of her sires
On yonder towering mount are built;
But even her clouded mind requires
Some surer refuge for her guilt.
The courts of Salem's holy place
Are crowded with their worshippers;
But she, of foul Samaria's race,
May not pollute their rites with hers.

O, blessed faith! whose terms demand
No titled claims of long descent,
But welcome all in every land,
Who seek its blessings, and repent.
O, blessed worship! that creates
A holier fane than priest hath trod,
Where'er a true heart consecrates
Its first affection to its God.

Then let the favoured twelve return
With silent wonder to the Lord;
The lessons they have yet to learn,
Within that woman's soul are stored.
And from her contrite heart shall rise,
In burning love and glowing praise,
A purer flame of sacrifice
Than all the priests of Salem raise.

EATING A DUTCHMAN.

A YANKEE TRICK.

A Yankee pedlar travelling through York State, some twenty years since, " put up" at the house of a Dutch tavern keeper, for the night, at the close of one fine summer day. At that time, the peculiar prejudices of the Dutch people of that section, were strongly shown in their jealousy of the " tamt Yankees." Our landlord was one who seemed to take particular delight in annoying any descendant of the pilgrims who chanced to fall in his way, and it may be supposed he did not neglect any opportunity that presented during the stay of the Yankee pedlar to quiz him, or make him the butt of sly jokes.

Our Yankee friend was not exactly green, though he kept a very close mouth concerning the country, by which time he had matured a plan for giving the Dutchman an explanation of the old adage, " What is sauce for the goose, is sauce for the gander."

The morning sun had dispelled the mists of the night. Jonathan had hitched his horse to his cart, and brought them up before the door, ready for a start, after he should have finished his breakfast. The breakfast passed, and Jonathan having settled his bill, felt himself at liberty to meet the Dutchman half-way in any shape he chose to approach, and as a signal for a more perfect understanding of his readiness, he let into him in this sort:

" No use, Dutchman, before I go, I have one thing, the last of a large assortment, that I want to sell you. I know you are a very prudent, economical sort of a man, and one would answer for your whole family, and you could let your neighbors use it after you had got done with it."

" What in dunder is it?" asks Sourkrout.

" Wall, you see, now," says Jonathan, " when I laid in my stock, I bought a prime lot o' measles, and I've sold 'em all cout, except one, and I kinder thought, seein' how you was a very savin' sort of a man, I could let you have that one measle, a-cause you could make it go raound!" and Jonathan had the laugh all to himself.

The Dutchman began to bluster as soon as he got the idea " through his woul," and thinking he could do as he chose with the apparently green Yankee, he commenced bullying.

" Look-a-here mister, none o' yer tricks upon travellers," says Jonathan, " or dedn't think you can scare a Yankee, no how. Why, rot your old cabbage garden, I' ve known a Yankee to eat such a Dutchman as you are before breakfast!"

" A Yankee eat a Dutchman! Tat's a tamt likely story. I'll pet fife tollar you can't eat me!"

" I'll take that bet," says the Yankee; " call in your neighbour to see fair play."

The neighbors were called in, and the preliminaries arranged in which it was agreed, that the Dutchman should take off his boots, wash his feet, and lay down upon the table, whereupon the stakes were put up.

The Dutchman was " laid out," and Jonathan proceeded very deliberately to untie his heel, and unbuiton his shirt collar preparatory to his cannibal feast.

Approaching the table where lay the wondering Dutchman, Jonathan took up one of his feet, and brought it to his mouth, and made a very significant demonstration with his teeth on the Dutchman's big toe, which elicited a roar and a kick.

" Oh! mine God! Shtop piting—dat hurts!"

" Never mind ; you don't expect I am going to swallow you. That wasn't the bet; I bet I could eat you !" and he made another bite.

Old Sourkrout soon perceived that the Yankee had tricked him, and he must either be eaten, or lose his five dollars. He chose the latter alternative ; the money was paid to the Yankee, who left with high honors, having vindicated the fame of Yankeedom, and sustained its high reputation for the production of wooden nutmegs and Yankee Tricks. The old Dutchman has learned to respect the superior sagacity of Yankee pedlers and from that day, since, has always treated them with due deference, and never fails to look remarkably silly, if anybody says anything about " eating raw Dutchmen" in his presence.

A NEW FEATURE IN SCIENCE.—We learn from the Boston Courier that the new ship Sunbeam, of 2500 tons, was launched at Williamsburg, L. I., on Wednesday last. She is to be propelled by the newly invented caloric engine, which is at present creating much interest in all scientific and commercial circles in the United States. If the experiment should prove successful, it will open a new era in steam, and be a complete revolution in the present mode of applying that power. According to the new principle, instead of using water to produce steam, heated air is made to answer the purpose, and thus far, it is said, the experiment has proved completely successful. We shall wait with much interest for the result of the trial trip of the Ericsson.

A PICKPOCKET KILLED.—A gentleman from the South while viewing the sights at the New York State Fair, at Utica, on Friday last, discovered that some one was putting over his pocket, in which was the sum of $4,000. He waited until his pocket was cut open, and then drew a bowie knife and plunged it into the heart of the robber, killing him instantly, after which he gave himself up to the authorities.—Boston Times.

" You should never let the young men kiss you," said a venerable uncle to his pretty niece. " I know it, uncle," returned she, penitently, " and yet I try to cultivate a spirit of forgiveness, seeing that when one has kissed, there is no undoing it."

JUDSON'S
CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF

CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, FOR THE CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Asthma, Liver Complaints, and CONSUMPTION.

DO NOT NEGLECT IT.

Consumption can be and has been cured,
in thousands of cases, by this only certain remedy,
JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly Cure Consumption.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and friends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wonderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of persons have been deceived repeatedly in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deleterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates. Consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-sweats, &c. &c.

COUGHS AND COLDS, CONSUMPTION.
THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, [we will show them to any person, calling at our office.] This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John St. New York.

CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.

The changes of weather and season, with the change of use and feed, have a very great effect upon the blood and sinuous fluids of horses. It is these changes they require an assistant in nature to throw off any disorder of the fluids of the body that may have been imbibed, and which, if not attended to, will result in the Yellow water, Hide bound, Swelled legs, Hair fall off, and other complaints. They have been used by Farmers, livery-men, stage proprietors and others with the most marked and decided success.

Caution—None can be genuine unless you find the name of J. Carlton Comstock, on the Wrapper of each article.

COMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

This is the most extraordinary remedy for Worms ever used; it effectually eradicates Worms from both Adults and Children. It cannot harm the most delicate infant or strongest Adult, and never fails to completely root out and destroy all kinds of Worms. The cost, 25 cents per bottle, puts it within reach of all, and all parents who are without it, are wantonly exposing the lives of their children to those fell destroyers of youth, " Worms." Look for the name of Comstock & Brother, proprietors, on the Wrapper of each bottle.

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT HURT THE SKIN.

This dye is unequalled as to the beautiful and bright turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIRS a dark brown, and by repeating a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble keep his hair any fashionable or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin will not colour it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will soon be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no colouring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. COMSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

USE Dr. LABZETTE'S ACOUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deafness. Also, all those disagreeable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, which are symptoms of approaching deafness. Many persons who have been dead to sounds, fifteen or twenty years, and were subject to use ear trumpets, have after using one or two bottles, thrown aside these trumpets, being made perfectly well. It has cured cases of ten, fifteen, and even thirty years standing of deafness.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7 Presco Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY:

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our as le list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particula rs of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speak much in favor of your astonishing Pills.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st of March, 1851, by Major J. Welch.

Margaret M'Cann, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, has been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of 18 months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period, she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredibly short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I can desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to Mr. Thomas Clark, of Sidney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time extremely afflicted with a complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this distressing and whole state of affairs, every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in the use of them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.
