Boy Scout Jim Wright, 16, of Saskatoon, Sask., cycled 2,300 miles to attend the American Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., this summer.

Water rescue practices paid off for the 5th Lakeshore Sea Scout Troop this summer when a 12-foot sloop capsized in Lake Ontario.

At the request of boys on the Eskasoni Indian Reservation in Nova Scotia, the Maritimes' first all-Indian Boy Scout Troop has been formed there.

Cobourg, Ontario, Wolf Cubs and Boy Scouts are learning "safety through skill" Provincial Constable Hugh Woodbridge is instructing the lads in the common sense avoidance of accidents through carelessness in swimming, highway travel and every day life.

Adults smiled when Boy Scouts started building a sandbag dyke at Hot Springs during the recent floods in British Columbia. Later they turned to and helped the Scouts strengthen the dyke when they found it was really holding back the water.

"But for the alertness of those Scouts, the boy might easily have bled to death," said the doctor attending Keith Sharman, Whitby, Ont., who severely gashed his foot while swimming. Scouts Bill Burnside and Bill Edwards stopped the bleeding with a tourniquet made from a growing vine, carried the injured boy on a stretcher made from their coats and two saplings. Keith is going to join the Boy Scouts.

Sets New Records

DETROIT, Aug. 2 (AP) — The automobile industry wound up the biggest seven months in its history both in production and sales.

Authoritative estimates put production from Jan. 1 through July 31 at approximately 4,500,000 cars and trucks. Indicated sales over the same period come close to 3,700,000.

Despite the uncertainties of the war situation, the industry's August production may come close to the record the factories set in June of this year with a total output of 853,967 vehicles.

Automotive News estimates that for the week ended July 29 the total of cars and trucks produced in Canada was 9,440. The total produced in Canada from Jan. 1 to July 29 was estimated at 225,097.

A. Y. P. A. Hold Conference

Wolfville, Aug. — The fifteen annual Anglican Young People's Association conference of the Diocese of Nova Scotia ended here after a two-day session at Acadia University.

Theme of this year's conference was "Let Your Light Shine" and guest speakers included Archbishop G. F. Kingston, Primate of all Canada; Rt. Rev. R. H. Waterman, Co-adjutor Bishop of Nova Scotia; Mrs. G. F. Butler, chairman of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, and Miss Mona Johnson, writer of the Open Casement, Diocesan Times.

Delegates from Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia registered yesterday afternoon and took part in A. Y. P. A. devotions shortly after. A civic welcome was extended to the delegates by Eric Belmont, mayor of Wolfville, and last night the annual business meeting was held.

This morning, service of Holy Communion was led by Archbishop Kingston, and throughout the day, deacons and convener reports were heard. A final business session was held in the afternoon.

After supper, an installation service was held with Rev. Frank Fry Wolfville, as preacher. Members of the conference committee were Eric Poirior, Alice Roberts, Allan Fralic, and Wilfred Morgan. House Mother was Mrs. J. G. Mulise while Rev. Frank Fry acted as chaplain.

Talented Performances At Children's Dance Revue

Under the direction of Miss Joyce Cantwell, assisted by Miss Lorraine Weatherbie and Mr. Alex McLean, accompanist, the children's dance revue of 1950 was successfully staged at the Whelan Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, July 25, before a large and appreciative audience.

Each act having its own gay costumes augmented by colorful lighting effects and tapping feet, displayed the adroitness of the children as the programme unfolded.

Specialties were capably rendered by Mrs. Yvonne Murray and Mr. Alec McLean. Mrs. Murray chose for her vocal selections, "Boy of Mine," "Blue Bird of Happiness" and "One Night of Love." Mr. McLean's interpretations of Brahms Waltz in A Flat, Hungarian Rhapsody by Koelling, was a feature event of the evening. Mr. Hugh Trainor, master of ceremonies, introduced each number in his usual competent manner.

Miss Cantwell gave a short talk, thanking the children, parents, and all those who helped to make so successful a revue. Wardrobe: Mrs. Claire Curley. Following was the programme:

Leopold Agrees To Slow Exit

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Aug. 2 (AP) — Militant socialist leaders, flushed with a conditional victory over King Leopold III, called off anti-Leopoldist strikes and started the near-prostrate country back toward normal.

Thousands of Socialist workers gathered at party headquarters to cheer the news that the King was prepared to hand his recently resumed regal powers to his 19-year-old son, Crown Prince Baudouin, with the implication that Baudouin would become King in fact when he reaches the age of 21 Sept. 7, 1951.

The Socialist-led Belgian Trade Union Federation directed strikers to return to work tomorrow and end their demonstrations against the monarch, who returned only 10 days ago after six years in exile. Leopold's expected capitulation-abdication was implied only in the King's promissory note conditionally due-dated Sept. 7, 1951 — was regarded as a triumph for the socialist-worker group. In addition, the Socialists jubilantly claimed three concessions from the pro-Leopold Social Christian (Catholic) Government. These were: 1. The release of all persons arrested in the disorders of the last few days. 2. No punitive action to be taken against public officials and civil servants who refused to carry out orders detrimental to the strikers. 3. A call for a national labor conference in Brussels Aug. 7-8, during which representatives of labor, employers, and the government will discuss wage and hour demands.

During the last 48 hours, it appeared at times that Belgium was perilously close to civil war over her king — a target of criticism since he surrendered Belgium's army to the Germans after only 18 days of fighting in 1940. Leopold finally notified an extraordinary council of ministers in the night that he was prepared to yield.

CRAPAUD W. M. S. Crapaud Auxiliary of the W.M.S. held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Trowsdale with 11 members and two visitors present. Mrs. Wm. Waddell had charge of program, "People Grow Older", which took the form of a playlet. The ways and means committee report was given by Margaret Dawson. Several good suggestions for raising funds were made.

After appointing supper committees, collection was taken amounting to $2.65. Meeting closed with Misspah benediction, after which a pleasant tea hour was enjoyed. In July the Auxiliary members were the guests for their regular meeting at the home of the Misses Barbara and Anna Nicholson, Tryon. At this meeting the program leader was Mrs. Joseph Trowsdale. This program was also a playlet, "Over To Korea". The readers of the various parts were Margaret Dawson, Ruth Simmons, Jean Myers and Nettie Leard. Minutes were read and roll call answered by nine members. Four visitors were present. Collection amounted to $3.41. The report of the supper committee showed that it had been a very good financial success. Six sick calls were reported and thirteen cards sent. It was decided to hold a combined Sunday School and Mission Band picnic at the shore, date to be decided later. Meeting closed with prayer by Anna Nicholson, and the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," followed by Misspah benediction. A delicious lunch was served by hostess. Next meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank MacDonald, with Mrs. John Nicholson in charge of program.
