

A GOOD STORY

A certain young lady in delicate health was advised by her doctor to take a half-teaspoonful of Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil after dinner—once a day—and found herself almost suddenly growing robust.

So small a dose is by no means the rule; the rule is whatever the stomach will bear—not more. Another rule is: take it on every least occasion, but not too much; don't over-do it.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

NOTICE TO ELECTORS.

QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS, AND HOW TO VOTE.

In electoral districts of this Province the voting takes place by ballot. There is no registration of voters here.

Every male British subject of the age of 21 years and upwards who has for six months previous to the 9th day of October, A. D., 1900, been in the possession either as owner, tenant or occupant of a house or piece of land of the yearly value of six dollars shall be entitled to vote.

IN ADDITION TO ABOVE.

In country districts every male British subject of the age of 21 years who being liable to perform Statute Labour, has performed such Statute Labour or paid his commutation money for the year 1900 shall be entitled to vote, provided he has resided for twelve months in the electoral Division.

IN THE CITY OF CHARLOTTETOWN.

If a person cannot qualify as a tenant or owner, he may vote on his poll tax,

IF

He has resided for twelve months previous to the 9th day of October, A. D., 1900 either east or west of Great George Street, and has paid his poll tax or 75cts of it for the year 1899. OR HE CAN VOTE ON HIS POLL TAX RECEIPT FOR THE PRESENT YEAR 1900. This tax may be paid at any time before the election, but not on election day.

Every resident voter must vote in the polling district where he is living on election day.

We warn poll tax electors to be prepared with their poll tax receipts, before they go into the polling booths. If you do not produce them, your votes will not be taken and you cannot again enter the booth. Tenants and owners do not require receipts.

ONLY MAKE A CROSS.

Mark your Ballot as above indicated. Simply place a X in the space containing the name of William S. Stewart, the people's candidate for West Queen's. Place no other mark upon the ballot. The cross must be made with a BLACK lead pencil. No other kind will do.

Following Irregularities Held Fatal to Votes.

- 1.—A single stroke instead of a cross.
- 2.—A mark which in itself is a means of identification, such as initials or some other mark known as used by him.
- 3.—Two single strokes not crossing.

NO PERSON who has voted at the election shall in any legal proceeding be required to state for whom he voted.—See Sec. 97 of the Election Act

The election law of the Dominion provides for perfect secrecy of the ballot, except in case of a scrutiny before two judges of the Supreme Court. Before a scrutiny can be held, the person desiring one must deposit in Court one thousand dollars as security that he will be successful. No ballot can be examined until it has been first proved that the voter has no vote, and no vote under any circumstances can be examined unless it has been marked objected to before the vote was given. No vote can be marked objected after the voter has received his ballot.

The ballots after being counted are sealed and sent to the Returning officer who without opening the packets or breaking the seals transmits them to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and whilst in the custody of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery no person is allowed to inspect them.

Besides the polling officers and the agents of the candidates, only one elector may enter the polling booth at a time; he MUST mark his ballot in secret, he MUST hand his ballot folded to the polling officer, who MUST place it in the box without opening, and there is a penalty for displaying the ballot in any way that would afford a clue as to how the elector is voting.

the same rotation of parties in office that prevails in England.

The elector who conscientiously believes that his own party is keeping faith with the country respecting its principles and fulfilling its pledges, is right to support his party. The elector who regards both parties as about equally good or equally bad, can do much to improve both parties by generally voting against the government of the day, if recreant to its professed principles, and so teaching the politicians of both sides that they are the servants, not the masters of the country.

In England, the electorate no sooner places a party in office than they begin to defeat it at the bye elections, on the principle that men in power easily lose their heads unless kept in awe of the electors, and at the general elections the government is almost defeated. Obviously this rotation of parties is entirely the work of the independent electors, who hold the balance of power between Liberals and Conservatives, and use it. It is only when the Government of the day is conspicuous for its courage, straightforwardness, patriotism, progressive ness that it is perpetuated in power.

In any country where the electors are in the habit of bringing up Governments with a sharp turn there is a widespread susceptibility and sensitiveness to public opinion which secures a robustness in politics that makes entirely for the public good.

On the other hand, if a party does wrong and is returned to power through blind partisanship, the men who rule the party become emboldened to dare more and the country is plunged into extravagance, because the schemers, having just come through an election, realize how easy it is to hoodwink the electors.

In private business a thrifty, wise man makes up for years of poor trade by saving something in times of prosperity. If he contracts debt during times of depression, some of his savings in good years are devoted to reduction of deficits.

Isn't this so with prudent men? It isn't so with the Canadian Government.

When the world-wide depression lifted, of course Canada got some of the benefits, although less, relatively, than almost any other country.

When the boom was on and money in circulation there was an era of generous buying, not only of staples, but of luxuries. The public revenue, swelling from month to month, gave the present Canadian Government the best opportunity any Government in Canada ever had to take a slice off the public debt.

Did they do it? As all the world knows, they deliberately set themselves to increase the expenditure and the debt.

What will they do when the inevitable evil day comes? It is said by that time some of them will be living over the sea.

At last the independent electors have their opportunity to show to the world that they wield the sceptre of power. If the independent electors give a rebuke to the unfaithful Laurier

"I hope others will do as I did."

"I suffered for six years with ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. E. Waite, of Chicago, Ills. (Lake View Postoffice.) "Sometimes I could hardly walk, and when I had to cough it felt as though a knife was cutting me. My hands and feet were cold all the time. I had such a tired feeling and such a poor appetite, and when I went to bed I slept only about two hours at a time. I got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and by the time I had used two bottles I felt so much better that I continued until I had taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am so well that my friends remark how well I am looking. I go to bed now and sleep till morning. My appetite is splendid and that tired feeling has left me. I hope others will do as I did—give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial."
