Sport Echoes From Prince County

The fortunes of the high-soaring Curran & Briggs Juniors came down with a sickening thud Wednesday evening when the R. C. A. F. Royals, underdogs in the betting, trounced Carroll's Curranties by the lopsided score of 12-4. In about every department of the game, the construction crew were considerably under par. They kicked the ball around as if they were playing soccer, they used their heretofore deadly bats as if they were Indian clubs, and even Donnie Simmons was not at his best. There was plenty of excuse for Donnie's showing, however. The way the boys were playing hop scotch with the ball would have caused a less cool-headed pitcher than Simmons to blow up like a circus balloon.

The umpires are getting stricter and more power to them. We must say we were glad to see Petty, Schurman and Cannon get the gate for taking too many liberties with the officials. They're all young players, and it might help them to think twice the next time before displaying their displeasure with umpires' calls in such a forceful way.

Daves had some trouble with his control, but otherwise pitched an effective game. The way he handcuffed those C. & B. batters was a surprise. We may have to add a lot of words we used about a while. We'll bide a wee, and maybe our judgment on those pitchers will still come true.

Who was it said that Stan Richard couldn't hit a curve ball? We saw him hit a few twisty ones Wednesday night. Stan had three hits in five trips, and looks as if he will make it a quartet with those other fence-busters, Meier, MacKenzie and Cox.

It's a long time since we've seen Gerald Dalton commit errors in the outfield, but he managed to add to the general comedy with two bobbles Wednesday night. Johnny Whalen, who had three miscues, besides dropping an "in-field fly" and delaying an important throw to first, has been somewhat shaky at second, but baseball heads who should know say it's due to Whalen's inexperience at the keystone sack, and that Johnny will do all right there. After all, the kid is only 15.

Sunday is another day, and the C. & B. boys will be looking for revenge for their humiliating defeat. Benny Carson will likely be towing the slab, and if the team field behind him as they are capable of doing, Benny should bring home all the marbles.

W.C.T.U. NOTES

BORDEN LIQUOR STORE

Sir,—It was with a feeling of deep regret that I read in Saturday, July 5th's Guardian, a letter of denunciation under the title "Borden Liquor Store", signed by Willard Leard, Mayor of Borden, and referring to the stand taken by Rev. W. Burton Crowe against opening a liquor store in Borden.

Now I do not know this man, or his doctrinal beliefs, but I do thank God that there is one man on the island that is not afraid to raise his voice against wrong even if it does bring public wrath upon him. Perhaps some are not aware that God's word says, "Touch not Mine Anointed and do My Prophets no harm." 1st Chronicles, Chapter 16-22.

It is a serious and dangerous thing for us to open our mouth against a God-called man when he is acting according to the Scriptures. Mariah and Aaron tried that with Moses, and we have a record of what happened, Numbers, Chapter 12, verses 8-10. According to God's word a preacher is responsible for the souls of mankind. Speaking to His watchman, God said, When I shall say to the wicked, thou shalt surely die, and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at thine hand; yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not away from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity, but thou shalt have delivered thy soul. Ezekiel, Chapter 3, verses 18-19.

So it seems as far as the Borden liquor store is concerned that Rev. Mr. Crowe has before God freed his hands of the blood of the people of Prince Edward Island. But someone will be responsible for those same people; "Who will it be?" Still looking to the word of God, we read, Woe to him that buildeth a tower with iniquity—Habakkuk, chapter 2, verse 12. And verse 15 reads woe to him that giveth his neighbour drink, and putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also. Isaiah, chapter 5, verses 22-23 says, woe to them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink. 1st Corinthians, chapter 6, verse 10 says, No drunkard shall inherit the Kingdom of God. His curse is on liquor, from the one who manufactures it on down to the drunken driver who turns his car over in the ditch. Proverbs, chapter 20, verse 1, says wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

In the letter referred to above, the statement was made, did Mr. Crowe think for one moment that he and those whom he represents are going to over-rule all the other law-abiding citizens? When we have God on our side we don't need a majority, some may be over-confident when they have the largest crowd on their side, but there are also those who would rather be defeated on the side of right, than be a winner on the side of wrong. I cannot understand how a people could be both God-fearing, and vote for liquor, for between the two there is the curse. Our democracy is supposed to include God; when we leave Him out, we don't have much to go on.

One excuse given for opening the liquor store was that bootleggers

Bedeque Notes

Mrs. John Toombs is spending some time with her son, Mr. Irving Toombs and Mrs. Toombs.

Rev. Angus MacDonald, Bideford, was a recent visitor at the manse, guest of Rev. and Mrs. Crowe.

Dr. and Mrs. Burton Howatt have had as their guest Mrs. Howatt's sister, Miss Earla MacKenzie.

Miss Jean Malcolm, Halifax, N. S. has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. MacCaull, Carleton Siding.

Mrs. Arthur Yeo, Tyne Valley, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Holland and Mr. Holland, Lower Bedeque.

Mrs. Beatrice Sherwood, on the staff of the General Hospital, Saint John, N. B., is visiting in this village, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray.

Mrs. Reginald Murray has returned from Trenton, Ont., after a visit of two weeks with her husband who is employed at the R. C.A.F. Station there.

The following girls are attending the C. G. I. camp at Augustus Cove, Misses Catherine Callbeck, Isabel MacFarlane and Shirley Cameron.

Mrs. Annie Lang and Miss Catherine MacFarlane, Lower Bedeque, and Mrs. Earle Pearson, Chelton, left on Saturday, July 12th, for Moncton, to board the "Overland Special" for Western Canada. They will spend a month among relatives and friends in the west.

The sympathy of this community is being extended to Mrs. John Myers, Carleton, and the other members of the family, in the death of her mother, Mrs. Alexander MacLeod, Victoria West, on Sunday, July 13th.

Among those attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Alexander MacLeod, Victoria West, on Tuesday, July 15, were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. MacCaull and Mrs. Albert

From New Brunswick were peddling cheap rum over there. Does that also mean that if a bootlegger drug addict went over there peddling dope, the Government would grant a license for the sale of narcotics, just to offset the bootlegger? Galatians, chapter 6, verse 1, says, Be not deceived, God is not mocked, whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap.

If we sow liquor, we will reap drunkards. The writer stated that he was glad to let the public know that their liquor store was doing a good business. Well it may be a business, but it is not a good business. The protests of the W.M.S. of Cape Traverse are up before God in behalf of their young people. Ecclesiastes, chapter 8, verse 11, reads, because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, it is set in the heart of man to do evil.

I sincerely hope the future leaders of our fair Island will be elected by other means than promising the people vendors' stores. I was appalled at the drunk I saw last summer when I visited my home there. I would like to see an improvement when I again visit my dear homeland.

I am, Sir, etc.,
MRS. C. B. DUDLEY,
Gray Rapids, N. B.

Let's Talk It Over

It is the season for summer camps, and we wonder if people rightly appreciate the splendid work these camp leaders are doing for our children. Many children who would otherwise be forced to remain in the towns during the hot weather receive these glorious outings, frolicking in the water and along the beaches, living and sleeping close to nature. How the youngsters must look ahead longingly to those thrilling camp days!

Instruction is not forgotten either, and if ever the bitter pill of learning was coated with the sugar of pleasing surroundings, and delightful experience, it is in these halcyon days of camp life. The children approach their tasks with an enthusiasm rarely found in the classroom. Their nature explorations, handicrafts and camp-fire activities are profitable and give pleasure at one and the same time.

These camps also provide excellent training in leadership for the boys and girls in their late teens. They acquire a sense of responsibility, and are given excellent practice in the essentials of leadership careers which many of them plan to take up. These camp programs make good use of the principle of sharing responsibility. Their methods seem much superior in that way than the methods of the schools.

So let's pay tribute to the work of the Knights of Columbus, the Taxis, Trail Rangers and C. G. I. T., the Boy Scouts and the Girl Guides, and other church organizations which promote these very helpful and enjoyable summer camps.

Crawell, Carleton Siding, and Mrs. Allison Harper, and Mr. and Mrs. Heber Myers, Carleton, and Rev. E. S. and Mrs. Weeks, Bedeque.

Rev. G. A. D. and Mrs. Elliot, New Mills, N. B., were in Bedeque on Tuesday, July 15th, calling on Rev. E. S. and Mrs. Weeks. They were enroute to Winslow where they will spend two weeks vacation with Mrs. Elliot's people.

A special service was held in Bedeque United Church on Sunday evening July 13, sponsored by the C. G. I. T. group, and the Trail Ranger group. Mr. Alexander Green presided and conducted the worship period assisted by Mr. Arthur Craig. A religious film entitled, "Simon Peter" was presented and proved to be both interesting and instructive to the large gathering present.

The following boys returned home on Friday evening, July 11th, from Augustus Cove where they attended the Boys' Camp: Ronald Dawson, Robert Montgomery, Harvey Worth, Graham Lodge, Malcolm Lodge, Everett Campbell, Gordon Bagnall and George Wright. Billie Callbeck was the leader of the group.

An enjoyable two hours were spent at the Bedeque school house on Wednesday evening, July 16th when Rev. Burton Crowe showed pictures depicting many beautiful scenes of the Island and Nova Scotia. The Bedeque W. I. sponsored the entertainment.
