

PORTRAIT OF HER MAJESTY PRESENTED

Books On Guiding, Scouting Presented To Parkdale School

A half dozen books on Guiding and Scouting were presented to the Parkdale Junior High School library last night by the Girl Guides Association. The presentation was made by Mrs. John Harris, divisional commander for the Charlottetown district, to Frank Costello, school principal. The presentation was made at a regular monthly meeting of the Parkdale Home and School Association.

Also present from the Girl Guide Association were Miss Iphigene Arsenault, Queen's County commissioner, and Mrs. Gordon Bennett and Mrs. Stewart Ives, public relations commissioners.

Alex MacLean, president of the Home and School Association presided.

After the business period the with Roy Smallman, president of Alpha as co-chairman.

The Y's Men's movement followed closely on the close of the First Great War as did many other service clubs, when men were aware of the lack of fellowship which they had enjoyed when on active service. The first Y's club was organized in Toledo, Ohio, in 1920.

Mr. Powell spoke of the special work being done locally by Claude Whitteck, Youth Director, Alton Dolliver, Young Adult Service Director for the Region and George Burgess in connection with the stamp collection records. He also stressed the honour brought to the Maritimes through the establishment and growth of International proportions of the Bishop Stamp Fund inaugurated by E.D. Bell of Charlottetown.

In announcing that "Centennial" would be host club at the Regional Convention on May 24, Mr. Powell congratulated the club on the distinction which has fallen to the members for the first time.

A leadership training course for boys and girls is to be held at one of the Y.M.C.A. camps in the Maritimes in August.

Mr. Powell was introduced by the chairman and thanked by the co-chairman.

Head table seating included; George Burgess, Regional Director
