Three Ch'town Men Attend Ninth Botanical Congress

G.W. Ayers, L.C. Callbeck, and Dr. D.B. Robinson of the Research Laboratory have returned to the city from Montreal where they attended the Ninth International Botanical Congress. The congress meets at intervals of five years, the previous meeting being in Paris. In 1964 the host city will be Brussels.

The sessions were held at McGill University and at the University of Montreal. The congress opened on August 19, with the inaugural plenary session in Molson stadium and closed on August 29, with the final plenary session in the Montreal High School.

Nearly 3,000 delegates from some 70 countries were registered and they represented all phases of botanical science, making it necessary to organize the congress into 14 sections such as nomenclature, mycology, phytopathology, microbiology, palaeobotany, ecology, and genetics. With such an array of disciplines, many lecture rooms were in constant use through each day of the congress.

During the congress, adequate opportunities to become acquainted were provided by a reception at the University of Montreal, and a reception at the Chalet on Mount Royal, the latter being given through the courtesy of the mayor of Montreal.

Trips to the St. Lawrence Seaway the Laurentians and other places of interest were arranged for those who could find time to participate in them. These tours were enjoyed particularly by the wives and children of delegates.

Actually, the congress began on July 20 with a series of field trips in various part of Canada, including the Arctic. Botanists from many countries were thus given the opportunity to study the native flora of the country.

Several post-congress trips have been arranged and a number of visiting botanists began a tour of the Maritimes on September 2. Several of these scientists will visit Prince Edward Island.

Friday evening the group will pay their respects to His Honour, Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman, whose father, the late W.E. Hyndman was a former district engineer for the department of public works in this district.

836 Receive Polio Shots

A total of 836 persons received anti-polio inoculations last night in one of the most successful clinics held in Charlottetown for adults. Of that number 691 received their first dose and the remainder were reporting at the Community Centre to receive their second or third shot.

The clinic opened at 7:00 p.m. but as early as 6.30 the line-up stretched along the sidewalk of Stewart Street. Working at maximum effort throughout the evening the two doctors and their staffs managed to put everyone through by shortly after 11 o'clock.

The doctors on hand to give the injections were: Dr. J.L.F. Burge and Dr. H. Fuerst, the nurses assisting them were Mrs. Lily MacGuigan, R.N., and Mrs. Mary Carragher, R.N.

In charge of the carding and recording was Mrs. J.E. Fleming executive secretary of the polio project. Mrs. Fleming was assisted by Mrs. Fred MacMillan, Miss Irene Dewar, R.N., Miss Kay Fleming, and Dick Fleming.

Minister Delighted

"Any Federal Cabinet minister would be delighted with your election results, especially in view of our feeling that it is an endorsation of Federal policies — particularly as they relate to our treatment of the Maritime Provinces."

The speaker was Hon. William Hamilton, Canada's Postmaster General, who is visiting this province inspecting postal facilities here.

It is his first visit here and he told The Guardian "there is nothing I could say about your delightful Island that you do not already know because you live here. He expressed pleasure with "the excellent Post Office building you have," and thought there was very little needed.

Drunk Driving Charge Laid Against City Man

Stephen Oliver MacDonald, Charlottetown, was remanded until Wednesday, September 9th, following his arraignment before Acting Magistrate Allison Gillis in city police court yesterday morning on the charge of drunken driving. The accused was released following the posting of a property bond in the amount of $500.

The charge arose following an incident which occurred at about 12.30 Wednesday morning at the intersection of Pownal and Grafton streets and in which a pedestrian Charles Ryan was knocked down and injured by a vehicle alleged to have been driven by the accused.

Also charged with the offense was Ollie Alden MacInnis, Charlottetown. He entered a plea of not guilty. Not represented in court by counsel he refused a suggestion he plead guilty to the lesser charge of driving while his abilities were impaired. The case was remanded to tomorrow.

A number of election day hangovers apeared in court with six men charged with being drunk and incapable being fined $10 each while another making a plea for leniency on the grounds that he had not appeared in court for a year was fined $5 and costs.

A female from Scotchfort remanded from last Saturday on a drunk and disorderly charge was sentenced to 20 days but had the sentence suspended as did another female from Charlottetown also remanded from Saturday on a drunk and incapable charge. Another drunk and incapable was remanded to today.

Portrait Studio Televised By CBC

Mr. and Mrs. O.C. Craswell of Craswell's Portrait Studio of Charlottetown were televised by the CBC yesterday. A crew of eight, including director, interviewer, two camera men, sound technicians and several others are in the province on a number of assignments.

The choice of Craswell's is a tribute of the high class of artistic photography of that studio which has resulted in its pictures being hung in numerous international salons in four continents. Both colour and black and white pictures of the studio have received wide recognition.

The choice of pictures in such international exhibitions is made from world-wide competition and is indicative of high merit.

The films shot this week will be used in telecasts across Canada at a future date and will focus considerable attention on the various aspects of Prince Edward Island life and works so highlighted.

Increased Enrolment Seen For City Schools

Last year's enrolment of 3,400 pupils in the city schools is expected to be exceeded by several hundred in the coming term which opens Tuesday, September 8th.

City superintendent, K.A. Parker, said yesterday morning that at both Queen Charlotte and Birchwood high schools every available classroom will be fully occupied. In anticipation of the rise in enrolment seven additional classrooms for grades 8, 9 and 10 have been furnished and seven additional teachers have been engaged.

A good portion of the increase is due to those students of 8, 9 and 10 who had previously failed and dropped out of school attendance who were now being encouraged to repeat their year.

"This would seen to justify the expenditure of one and a half million dollars on our two modern high schools within the city" Mr. Parker observed.

MONTREAL, Sept. 3rd — It usually pays to keep your sights high . . . meaning, if there is something extra special you really want or need, it's often better to refuse to compromise with an "almost as good" second choice. If you have such a problem, I suggest you learn about the new BANK OF MONTREAL Family Finance Plan. If you have a steady income and can make monthly loan repayments without hardship, almost any useful purchase can be made under this comprehensive plan. The low monthly repayments can be extended up to two, or even three, years. Keep your sights high . . . and arrange your low-cost, life-insured loan, at your friendly neighborhood branch of "My Bank".

HAPPY IS THE TALENTED COOK who uses nutritious BLUE BONNET in all her baking . . . She has found that Blue Bonnet is the sure key to light and luscious cakes and pastries, tempting muffins and toothsome cookies. This same wise mother knows that piping-hot vegetables are more truly flavorful when served with extra-good Blue Bonnet melting through. Delicious Blue Bonnet is a favorite table-spread because it's made from pure vegetable oils and pasteurized skim milk, with Vitamins A and D added . . . I'm sure you'll find everything tastes better with Blue Bonnet on it!

THIS IS MY FAVORITE MONTH — everywhere there's a harvest of colorful fruits and fully-ripened vegetables. A perfect time for salads . . . and their best friend—MIRACLE WHIP! Let's enjoy the light and lively flavor, the satin-smooth texture of Miracle Whip on garden-fresh tomatoes, beets and green beans—all so good! Day after day, I happily reach for Miracle Whip in the sure knowledge that, thanks to this delightful salad dressing by Kraft, my salads will be polished off with great gusto. Do be really wise and buy the large 32-oz. budget-wise jar. I know you'll share my enthusiasm!

THERE'S REAL 'TOGETHERNESS' in my family's agreement about our favorite brand of canned peas. We all agree that AYLMER FANCY PEAS — ASSORTED SIZES are the best-tasting, tenderest and sweetest. And I've found out why! First of all, Aylmer Fancy Peas are grown on carefuly selected Canadian farms where sunshine, moisture and soil are just right. Then, when they've reached perfection, Aylmer rushes them, fresh-harvested, to nearby canneries and, often within an hour, seals and cooks them in the famous bright white tins. Look for them — sunshine-fresh Aylmer Fancy Peas!

I FIND IT HEART-BREAKING to see people suffer unnecessarily. That's why I wish you'd tell anyone you know who endures the agony of rheumatic, neuralgic or arthritic pains about the relief thousands of others have found in TEMPLETON'S TRC's. One lady from Quebec writes: "When I saw the wonderful relief my husband found from his pain, I used TRC's myself. Now the relief has been so great, that we are both capable of working, thanks to TRC's." You'll find them at drug counters everywhere. So if you are troubled or have friends who are afflicted with rheumatic, neuralgic or arthritic pain — get some TRC's today and enjoy the wonderful relief they will bring you!
